SALEM PANORAMA IS VIVID

Willamette Valley on Canvas is Exhibited at Land Show.

MANY VISITORS ARE INTERESTED

Remarkable Painting is Made Still More Realistic by the Use of Some Unique Electrical Effects.

George L. Schreiber came to Omaha and brought a city with him—a city of paint and iron, electric lights, automobiles, steamships—and all of it surrounded by great mountains and green valleys, and Schreiber also brought the sun and the moon and the stars.

The city transported by express to the Omaha Land show is the city of Salem, Ore., and the reproduction, vividly accurate to the minutest detail, is the work of Schreiber, who is an artist of ability and a successful artist, having sold many of his paintings of western scenes.

On the opening night of the exposition a large crowd gathered in front of his reproduction of the city of Salem. The spectator seems to stand as on a mountain and view below, far away and yet very clear, the city, its spires and skyscrapers and its confusing array of houses.

Off to the left, snow-crowned and glittering in the fierce light, stands Mt. Hood, and away to the front, a mere speck of white, is Mt. Jefferson. Through the city a blue river flows, with boats upon it, and about the city itself there are many trees and green fields. In front of the spectator of all this automobiles race back and forth, fires burn brightly in lamp-glasses and rain-sheds and white tents of the workmen about the drying sheds give forth a hum of conversation, so real is the illusion.

While one stands and views this panorama a slow change is wrought. The skies darken, the high fides and behind

You know of the money wasted on "drink" that is needed in the home to purchase food and clothing. Orrine has saved thousands of drinking men. It is a home treatment and can be given secretly or taken voluntarily. Put up in two forms, powder or pill. Your money will be returned if after a trial it has failed to benefit. Costs but $1.00 a box—a mere trifle when compared with the amount a drinking man will spend in a day for liquor. Come in and get a free booklet and let us tell you of the good ORRINE is doing.
