CHINESE REBELS ENGAGE THE ARMY

ually changing, the royalists and rebel bands holding it alternately. Between 300 and 500 revolutionists are reported killed or wounded in today's engagement. The imperial losses were smaller. Rebel reinforcements who were crossing the river to support the fighting line encountered a smart royalist fire and were disorganized. The rebels complain that their leadership was feeble.

A German sailor was hit by a stray bullet, but not seriously wounded. So far as known this was the only injury sustained among the foreigners. Three imperial soldiers were waylaid by an armed mob and stoned to death.

Another trainload of northern troops arrived here tonight.

Report from Consul General Greene. Peking, Oct. 18.—American Consul General Greene telegraphed today from Hankow as follows:

"Firing between the rebels and imperialists aided by the ships began at 7:30 o'clock this morning near the river and the railway station."

The railway station is on the north bank of the Han river, west of Hankow.

Chinese officials report that negotiations are proceeding between Admiral Mah Chen Ping and General Li Yuan Liang, the revolutionary commander at Hankow, though the nature of the negotiations is not divulged.

It is stated that the object of the revolutionary expedition up the Han river last evening was to attempt the capture of General Chang Piao's camp near the Belgian concession through an attack in the rear.

No Joint Naval Force.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 18.—There is no joint international force acting as a unit in China, in the view of the State department. Each of the naval commanders is supposed to be acting under instructions from his own government, consequently the question of seniority of naval commanders and right to direct the international operations has not been brought to an issue.

Charge at Peking that Japan Incited Revolution.

TOKIO, Oct. 18.—Despite the assurances given both by the Chinese government and the revolutionary leaders in the central Chinese provinces that the rights of foreigners will be respected, officials here regard the situation as likely to develop phases alarming to outside nations.

The maintenance of a scrupulous impartiality will be very difficult at times and it is certain that any suspicion of interference on the part of the foreign-

Kidney Trouble Overcome By The Great Treatment.

I have been a sufferer for years with kidney and bladder trouble and took almost everything a drug store contained, without obtaining any benefit.

I suffered so that I became utterly discouraged, as I could not sleep, was always dizzy and had a headache all the time. I saw one of your advertisements and as a last resort, decided to try your Swamp-Root. I am now taking the third bottle and feel like a new woman, sleep well and have no pains whatever.

I strongly advise all sufferers to take the only real cure for kidney and bladder trouble. Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root was a God-sent to me.

You may publish this letter if you wish so that it may be the means of bringing some poor sufferers back to health.

Des Moines Street Car Trouble Now in Their Hands.

ANTI-SALOONISTS ARE CONFIDENT

Des Moines Faction Preparing Amusement Places to Substitute for Saloons.—J. R. Dobbins Must Serve Term.

(From a Staff Correspondent.)

DES MOINES, Ia., Oct. 18.—(Special Telegram.)—The practical application of the principle of arbitration to settle a controversy between the street car company and its employees was inaugurated today when the recently organized arbitration board began its sittings. The board first took up the case of Roberts, the motorman who was accused of smoking while on duty. The board rules that the company must present its side of the case first and affirmatively show why it had discharged the men, thus giving an advantage to the workmen. The three cases are to be taken up separately.

In the course of the hearing today it developed the company had not issued a new book of rules for twenty-one years, but had changed rules by filing bulletins.

Anti-Saloonists Confident.

So confident are the members of the citizens association that they will win their case in district court against the saloon petition and secure the closing of every saloon in the city that they have already begun the preparations for opening amusement places in the city to take the place of saloons for the men who have no other place to go.

Dobbins Must Serve Term.

Taking people's money away from them on a "fixed race" is the same as grand larceny, according to the finding of the supreme court in a decision handed down today, affirming the case of the state against John R. Dobbins.

Dobbins was a lieutenant of J. C. Mabray, who was convicted at Council Bluffs on a charge of grand larceny. He was accused of having beaten T. W. Ballow, of Princeton, Mo., out of $30,000 on a "fixed" horse race staged at Council Bluffs by the Mabray crew. He was sentenced to an indeterminate term of five years in the penitentiary and has been at liberty on bonds awaiting the result of the appeal.

English Must Act or Ouster Follows

LINCOLN, Neb., Oct. 18.—(Special Telegram.)—In an open letter issued early this evening, Governor Aldrich writes to James P. English, county attorney of Douglas county, that he had better get busy as a police officer and perform his duties or suffer at the executive hands under the provisions of the Sackett law.

Keelo and a spare engine was rushed to the scene. Owing to many requests from stops along the way the presidential train already was running an hour late, the delay getting a new engine resulted in the loss of another half hour, and efforts are being made today to catch up with the schedule before reaching Salt Lake City, where the train is due at 2:30 p. m. Governor Spry and Senator Smoot of Utah and Colonel D. C. Jackling of Salt Lake City will accompany the president through Utah today. Special stops have been scheduled at Ogden, Logan and one or two other points.

Remove First Sign of Old Age.

"The infallible first sign of age is in the sagging cheek muscles," says Mme. Lina Cavalleri, whose fame as a beauty culturist is scarcely outshone by that gained before the footlights. "These are more difficult and serious to treat than wrinkles," she continues. "The sagging muscles indicate that they have grown too weak to remain in place; they must be assisted, strengthened.

The best way to strengthen and harden them is by using a wash lotion made by dissolving an ounce of powdered saxolite in a half pint of witch hazel. This creates a free circulation to the affected parts, besides causing muscle and skin to contract. Saxolite, procurable at every drug store, has long been known by complexion specialists to possess remarkable properties, valuable in treating not only flabby tissue, but all wrinkles and furrows.—Adv.

When you go to buy a diamond do you know your dealer? You are certain that he is honest and truthful and has a reputation for fair dealing. But do you know that he has a reputation for being a good merchant in the sense that he thoroughly understands his business? That is an important question in diamond buying. If you are dealing with a man who knows but little more about these precious stones than you do, you are very likely to be deceived through intention of the dealer, yet through his ignorance.
