

Inside Tailoring That Is Different

Most any suit of clothes can be made to look well from the outside, at first—but it's the inside tailoring that decides the life of the suit.

Sampeck clothes are carefully and painstakingly built, from the cutting of the cloth to the last stitch and button, not a detail but receives the same expert attention.

The expert molding of the shoulders—the special hair cloth lining in front, which never breaks—the snug, hugging fit of the collar—all are the vital points which make Sampeck clothes fit and stay fit—

These big, roomy Sampeck overcoats need but a single try-on to settle the overcoat question for you.

They're rough, hairy browns, grays and blues that almost make you wish for the coldest days to come—

SHIELDS DENIES BRIBERY CHARGE

ago. I never saw him in Washington except on the gallery of the senate."

"Did you have any difference with Hines over any amount you were to receive for distributing $100,000 in connection with the election?"

"Never."

"Hines claimed, did he not, that he was responsible for the election of Senator Stephenson?" asked Senator Pomerene.

"He never said so to me."

Did Not Talk to Hines.—"Did not you ever talk to Hines as to the senator's election?"

"Not before his election."

"Have you any stock in any of the Hines companies?"

"Yes, some."

"How long have had it?"

"For more than a year."

Cook testified he had endeavored to induce Shields to tell all he knew about Stephenson's election and Shields had promised to call on him, but Shields denied he had ever been invited to call on Cook.

When Shields left the stand he was told to remain attendance for possible further questioning.

Bliss A. Towse, one of three democratic assemblymen who absented themselves when Stephenson was elected, was called. When he declared he could not remember in detail what he did after he left the session, Senator Heyburn subjected him to severe questioning.

"Do you mean to say that you regarded the election of a senator as such a trifling matter that what you did at the time was not worth remembering? When the suggestion of bribery was connected with your being absent, did not you try to recall what you did in order to defend yourself?"

Towse declared he did not consider the bribery charges as worthy of denial. He will be examined further tomorrow.

Beautifully tailored serge and panama dresses may be had now for $4.50 to $9.50 to fit girls 8 to 14 years. See them Saturday at Benson & Thorne Co.

CHINESE REBELS CLAIM VICTORY

threatens to upset the money market and lead to a dangerous panic.

Insurgents Cut Wires.

SHANGHAI, China, Oct. 20.—The following message from Vice Admiral Winslow, the senior British naval official at Hankow, sent by wireless from a British vessel off Hankow, was received here this morning:

All telegraph lines to Shanghai and to Peking were destroyed last night for a distance of a mile beyond the settlement.

Another wireless message dispatched from Hankow at noon today and retransmitted over the land lines at Kiu Kiang, received at 4 o'clock, says that the government troops retreated up Seventy-Mile creek, while the Chinese warships withdrew down the river out of sight. The revolutionaries claim a great victory.

Still another message says the revolutionists at Hankow claim a great victory over the imperialists. They declare that they captured the river side and the railway station, after which all the Chinese warships retreated, with the exception of one cruiser, which seeded to the rebels.

Imperial Navy Retreats.

The retreat of the imperialists at Hankow is confirmed in other dispatches from Kiu Kiang, which state that the Chinese gunboats are retreating to Kiu Kiang. The conduct of the rebels at Hankow is reported to be exemplary. Martial law is being enforced.

Today's advices of rebel successes at Hankow caused great jubilation among the Chinese here. Previously they had been downcast.

The run on the banks here has stopped, but the banks are unable to pay their outstanding checks and business is at a standstill. Otherwise the situation here is quiet.

The venerable North China Daily News, anticipating an ultimate imperial victory, in an editorial today, recalling the awful fate which traditionally awaits rebels in China, with the slaughter of innocent kindred, with the object of blotting out the tainted names, says that the powers are not intervening because of self-interest, adding:

"The ringleader must die, but Yuan Shi Kai, arriving with well filled money bags and imperial pardons ready for signature, is offering mercy to those who have been coerced into participation in the revolt.

"The events of the last week must lead to a genuine redress of grievances.

"China should remember the starving multitudes beggared by the Yang Tse Kiang floods. Those with whom the rebels had been able to plead fought and died."

Minister Predicts Repulse.

KANSAS CITY, Oct. 20.—"The foreign powers are waiting to seize the outside provinces in China, but the central part of the country will remain a complete union under the reorganization that is coming," asserted Rev. Sidney C. Partidge, Episcopal bishop of Kansas City, here today. Bishop Partidge spent seventeen years in China as a clergyman, returning to the United States only a few months ago.

"The revolutionary movement," he continued, "is a welcome one, as almost any change in China will be a benefit to the people, who are held back by ancient customs and corrupt officials. The leaders of the struggle are men who have preyed upon the people."

CULLOM WANTS HUMPHREY TO SUCCEED GROSSCUP

CHICAGO, Oct. 20.—Judge Peter S. Grosscup of the United States circuit court again delayed his resignation because of failure to reach a final settlement in the Chicago, Milwaukee Electric Railroad foreclosure proceedings. Judge G. Otis Humphrey, on the federal bench of the southern district of Illinois, was proposed today by United States Senator Cullom as the successor to Judge Grosscup. Senator Cullom announced that he would visit President Taft personally and urge Judge Humphrey's appointment.

Italian Fleet Bombards Benghazi and Lands Troops

BENGHAZI, Oct. 20.—The Italian fleet under Rear Admiral Aubrey bombarded this city yesterday and landed 4,000 men, who, after a brisk battle, occupied a portion of the town. The greater part of the troops, however, camped on the beach last night. The Turks refused to surrender and made a stubborn resistance.

The expeditionary force instructed to occupy Benghazi arrived in the roadstead Wednesday morning, conveyed by the Italian battleships Vittorio Emanuele III, Roma, Napoli and Regina Elena, the cruisers Amalfi and Etruria, five smaller warships and two torpedo boat divisions.

Rear Admiral Aubrey notified the Turkish commander that unless he capitulated Benghazi on the morning of Thursday the town would be bombarded. No reply having been received, the bombardment, began at 9 and continued until 9 o'clock, when a detachment of sailors and troops was debarked.

The first Italians to come ashore were received with a sharp rifle fire from the Turks. The Italians bore themselves well and established a position near the water's edge, where they stood the Turkish fire. They were rapidly enforced from the fleet and later in a forward movement took the barracks in the village of Sidj Houssein by assault. The Italians also took and held a part of Benghazi.

National Suffrage Association Meets in Louisville, Ky.

LOUISVILLE, Ky., Oct. 20.—Reaching out into all parts of the world equal suffrage ideas have fastened their grip even upon the women of Alaska, Hawaii and Cuba, declared Mary Ware Bennett, corresponding secretary of the National Woman Suffrage association, which began its forty-third annual convention here today. One of the notables introduced by Dr. Anna Howard Shaw, president, was Mrs. Ben Hardin Helm of Kentucky, sister of Mrs. Abraham Lincoln.

"I was raised before public speaking came in vogue," she said, "but I must say I am heartily in favor of the movement."

It Should Be the Best
You should have no diamond but the best when you purchase one for an engagement ring. Your fiancée will always appreciate a stone of the highest brilliancy and quality. But if she realizes that the stone is not the best she will always feel a little ashamed of it. She will not like to have it compared with that of her girl friends. She will fear that its defect will be discovered and that it will be regarded as a cheap stone and ring. The Edholm store tells buyers the exact quality in every diamond, so a buyer knows just what he is getting and so he can be prepared against any comparison his future wife may wish to make.
