BOYLES COLLEGE THE MAGNET THAT DRAWS EARNEST BUSINESS STUDENTS TO OMAHA IN EVER-INCREASING NUMBERS.

October's attendance largely exceeds the enrollment for September, and September's enrollment topped our best previous record.

Month by month, our ever-increasing enrollment demonstrates Boyles College's ever-increasing superiority. This desire the fact in the very teeth of the fact that many business colleges are complaining of decreased enrollments.

Following the scriptural injunction that "one should not hide one's light un-a bushed"—what are we to say in explanation of other than that it is the direct, inevitable, sure result of the fact that Boyles College graduates succeed?

Another reason is that all the Boyles College Employment departments promises to obtain positions for all-Boyles College Graduate Bookkeepers and Stenographers and Telegraphers have always been fulfilled-fulfilled to the letter. No other such systematic, uniformly successful position-getting department is conducted by any other business college in this broad land,

All these reasons plainly point out to you that it is to your best interests, both as to your present and as to your future, to gain your training for a successful career as a Bookkeeper, Stenographer, Telegrapher or Civil Service appointed in Boyles College.

We've a big catalogue ready to send you-it's yours for the asking. Or, why not call in tomorrow or some day soon, and talk the whole matter over with us?

Boyles Building. H. B. BOYLES, President

The The Mosher-Lampman College

address to the students of the Mosher-Lampman College, from which we quote the following:

"You are going to be business men and business women and the business college offers the best introduction into commercial life of any school in the world, The Mosher-Lampman College is one of the first in America to realize the need of a larger business training than you can get from bookkeeping, Shorthand, etc. It is one of the first in America to teach Salesmanship, Ad Writing and Perconsisty Development."

A school that is so PROGRESSIVE is the school for you to attend.

Mr. J. S. Knox, the well known educator and author, recently delivered an

"Young Ladies and Gentlemen: It is always a pleasure for me to talk to students. There are so many young people in this world who have not ambitton enough to go to school that when I do find young men and young women with enough ambition it pleases me. I am in my element then. I enjoy it. I like to see young people face to face who want to do something in life, who want to make a greater success. But I do want to say a word to you here in the beginning this morning about your new location. I have visited a great many business colleges all over the country, but I do not believe I have ever talked to a group of students in a school where they had a more beautiful location and a finer outlook. As I look out of these windows I see beautiful trees and houses; fresh air, sunshine, everything. I tell you it is inspiring-it is a tremendous in-And I notice another thing, To be up here off the street-up here where you can see out-you seem to live a larger life, you seem to be in a purer atmosphere, and it is an inspiration to hie, and I am sure it should be an inspiration to you. I like to be up that way where I can see out and see the big-
