

REBELS CONTROL FOUR PROVINCES

New Republic of China is Rapidly Extending the Sphere of Its Influence.

TWO MORE CAPITALS OCCUPIED

Chang Sha and Nan Chang Are Taken by Insurgents.

AMERICANS ASK PROTECTION

Foreigners in Several Smaller Cities Call for Gunboats.

TRADE ABSOLUTELY STAGNANT

Native Merchants in Shanghai Refuse to Receive Cargoes and Banks Decline to Extend Credit.

SHANGHAI, China, Oct. 23.—The occupation by revolutionists of two more important southern cities, Chang Sha and Nan Chang, was announced in dispatches which reached this city early today.

Chang Sha is the capital of the province of Hunan and Nan Chang is the capital of the province of Kiang Si. Their capture therefore delivers into revolutionary hands the local governments of two important provinces, thereby more than doubling the territory in which the rebels are masters.

Chang Sha, with 300,000 population, is the chief commercial center on the rail road between Hankow and Canton. It is the seat of Ya Li college, the Chinese extension of Yale university. Chang Sha is 300 miles southwest of Hankow, while Nan Chang, with 100,000 population, is correspondingly situated 200 miles southwest of Hankow.

The fall of Chang Sha and Nan Chang had been rumored here for a day or more. Today's advices definitely confirm that both cities are entirely in the hands of the revolutionists.

Four of China's eighteen provinces are now regarded as under revolutionary influence—Sze Chuen, where the movement started; Hu Pei, of which Wu-Chang is the capital; Hunan and Kiang Si. The fall of Nanking, where the garrison is regarded as siding with the revolutionists, would deliver to them the vice royal government of two more provinces, Kiang Si and Sze Hwei.

Government Ready to Fight.

The latest reports from Hankow state that the defeated government troops moved northward and are now located at Szechin, awaiting the minister of war, General Yin Tchang, who in turn, awaits reinforcements before attacking the insurgent positions.

The rebels at Hankow and Wu Chang are reported now to be 25,000 strong and to have quantities of rifles. The arsenal at Han Yang is being guarded day and night. They have 150 big guns. Thousands of coolies are fortifying nearby hills.

The Chinese gunboats are coaling and provisioning at Kiu Kiang. Two Chinese cruisers left Shanghai for the north yesterday.

The rebel government is maintaining order and behaving looters. Thousands of Chinese refugees are arriving here daily, penniless and so are adding to the general distress.

The central provinces are contributing largely to the rebel funds. Singapore is sending much money.

The rebels intend to establish a government in Hu Pei province, where they will collect taxes from Hu Pei, Sze Chuen and Hunan provinces, whose people will pay more willingly to the rebels than to the central government.

The rebels' greatest fear is that the foreign powers will unite or delegate authority to Japan to assist the Manchus. Hence the utmost care is taken that foreigners shall not be injured.

Spreading Over Yang Tse Valley.

The entire Yang Tse valley is gradually succumbing to the revolutionary infection. No uprising has yet been reported at Nanking, which is only 300 miles above Shanghai, but there is every reason to believe that it will not be long.

New Venire Ordered for Second Trial of Dr. B. Clark Hyde

KANSAS CITY, Mo., Oct. 23.—Dr. B. Clark Hyde was today for a second time placed on trial charged with murdering Colonel Thomas H. Swope by poison. The verdict of the first jury, which on May 11th found Dr. Hyde guilty and fixed his punishment at life imprisonment, was reversed and the case remanded for retrial by the Missouri supreme court April 11, 1911. A special effort is being made by all attorneys concerned in this trial to make speed. A force of deputy marshals worked until late last night serving the last of the 30 special children from whom the jury will be selected. It was thought today the jury box would be filled by the end of this week. The entire trial will not last more than three weeks, it is believed.

Accompanied by his wife, Dr. Hyde arrived at Judge E. E. Porterfield's court shortly before the case was called at 9 o'clock. Judge Porterfield is hearing the case on a charge of venue from Judge Ralph H. Latawah. Although the accused physician made a losing fight before Judge Porterfield last week for the appointment of jurors to take charge of the jury and for other court orders that he asserted were necessary for him to have a fair trial he said today he was satisfied with the outlook.

The physician has always maintained that the friendly attitude of Judge Latawah toward him had much to do with the first verdict.

The defendant is represented by Frank H. Walsh, John H. Cleary, R. R. Brewster, W. T. Johnson and John H. Lucas. United States Senator James A. Reed is acting as special prosecutor, assisting Prosecutor Virgil Conkling. Attorney John M. A. Wood, who was employed by the Swope heirs to aid the prosecution at the first trial has not been retained in this one.

The sole charge upon which Dr. Hyde is being tried is the alleged murder of Colonel Swope. Collateral issues admitted as testimony at the first trial have been barred by the order of the supreme court. The first trial lasted six weeks, and most of this time was taken up by testimony touching on matters that will be eliminated this time.

Just before noon the attorneys for the defense entered an objection to the manner in which the venire of Jurymen had been drawn and moved that the entire venire be discharged and new Jurymen summoned. The state did not oppose the motion and the court ordered the Jurymen discharged and gave instructions that a new venire of 100 men be drawn and summoned to be present in court tomorrow afternoon.

Technical reasons were advanced by the defense to prove that the first venire had been drawn illegally.

Woman Destroys Herself and Six Children by Fire

BRADDOCK, N. D., Oct. 23.—Apparently insane, Mrs. Axel Johnson, wife of a prosperous farmer living about eight miles northwest of Braddock, locked herself and her six children in a house today and set fire to the house. They were all burned to death.

Mr. Johnson was working in a field some distance from the house when the tragedy occurred.

Neighbors believe Mrs. Johnson locked and barred the doors and called down the stairs and ordered the children to stay in the room with her, she applied the match. The neighbors who saw the smoke rushed to the home, but rescue of the woman and her babies was impossible.

The bodies were found in a corner of the living room under the smoldering mass.

Woman and Six Children Are Burned to Death

BRADDOCK, N. D., Oct. 23.—Mrs. Axel Johnson, wife of a prosperous farmer near here, locked herself and six small children in their home and set fire to the house after saturating the room with kerosene oil. They were burned to a cisp.

The bodies were found in a corner of the living room under the smoldering mass.

Monsignor T. J. Capel Dies in California

SACRAMENTO, Cal., Oct. 23.—Mgr. T. J. Capel, world famous Catholic, once private chamberlain to the pope, is dead here.

Mgr. Capel died peacefully at the residence of Bishop Grace. He had been ill for some time, but preached in the Catholic cathedral yesterday. He was found unconscious in bed this morning and did not regain consciousness.

The Monsignor was born October 23, 1854, and was ordained priest by Cardinal Wiseman of England in 1880. In January, 1881, he became co-founder and vice principal of St. Mary's Normal college at Hammamra. Shortly after ordination he sought a southern climate to recover his strength. When at Pau he established the English mission and was formally appointed its chaplain in 1882.

During several visits to Rome he also delivered courses of English sermons in that city by the express command of the pontiff.

Mgr. Capel while laboring at Pau in the work of diversion was named private chamberlain to Pope Pius IX, in 1888, and after his return to England, domestic prelate, in 1893.

BUSINESS DISTRICT OF CABOOL, MO., DESTROYED

CABOOL, Mo., Oct. 23.—Fire of unknown origin here today practically destroyed the entire business district of the town, fourteen buildings, including the bank of Cabool, being consumed. Two citizens were hurt fighting the flames. Loss, $5,000.

DYNAMITE VIEW NOT BAR TO JURY

Judge Bordwell Rules Against Contentions of the Defense in McNamara Case.

HOLDS JUROR M'KEE ELIGIBLE

Belief Building Was Destroyed by Dynamite is Not Prejudicial.

STATEMENT OF THE COURT

Says Answers of Talesman Do Not Disclose Bias of Any Kind.

WILL NOT BE ALLOWED TO SERVE

Defense Will Use Peremptory Charge to Remove Him—Judge Bordwell and Attorney Darrow Clash.

LOS ANGELES, Cal., Oct. 23.—Firm belief that the Los Angeles Times building was destroyed by dynamite is not necessarily a bar to jury service in the McNamara murder case, according to a ruling made by Judge Walter Bordwell today. The judge held that the talesman, George W. McKee, who held such view, would in the opinion of the court give a fair verdict in the case. There is no chance that McKee will get on the jury, but today's decision makes it necessary for the defense to use a peremptory challenge to get rid of him. The ruling is the first on any point considered as of consequence since the trial began and the defense excepted to it after a passage of words with the court. The judge's ruling in part follows:

"Juror McKee testified that he had a definite opinion as to the cause of the explosion, and that it would require evidence to remove that opinion. He has, however, stated positively that notwithstanding that opinion, as he explained, was formed entirely from reading statements in the public journals and public rumor and notoriety, he could act as a juror in this case impartially and fairly upon matters to be submitted to him. I do not think the court is bound by the mere statement of a prospective juror that he could so act. It is a question of fact for the court to determine. But if the court is satisfied either from the juror's statement of the circumstances which are available that he can act thus fairly and impartially, the court has no discretion, but must allow that the juror is qualified."

"Now do you think that under the condition upon that matter he can act fairly and impartially?" asked Attorney LeCompte Davis for the defense.

The court: "I think so from the testimony of McKee taken as a whole. I have examined it carefully and considered it and taking into consideration all the questions asked of him and all the answers which he has given, I cannot upon my conscience come to any conclusion other than that he can and will act fairly and impartially upon all matters submitted to him, and require just as much proof on the part of the prosecution in this case before he would come to the conclusion that the defendant is guilty as he would require if he had no views on the subject connected with the case. Being of that opinion, as a matter of fact I must come to the conclusion as a matter of law under this subdivision of the penal code that the juror is qualified."

Judge and Darrow Clash.

A collision between the court and Attorney Darrow occurred when Talesman Willis F. Oliver, answering a question by Darrow, said he knew of no reason why laboring men should strike.

"Do you mean that strikes are not required or not proper?" asked Judge Bordwell.

"I object to your question, your honor," said Attorney Darrow, emphatically. "I am examining this man."

"I think the question is a proper one, and the objection is overruled," replied Judge Bordwell.

"Well, I think the question conflicts with my line of examination."

"Oh, on that ground I will not ask it," replied the judge. "It was simply getting at his state of mind."

This is the first ruling of the trial which the defense has strongly opposed. Only eighteen men outside the jury box and six in it of the original 135 veniremen summoned to try James B. McNamara for murder remained when court convened today at the beginning of the third trial week. No juror had qualified finally. Three talesmen, Zeoborn Manning, Robert Egan and F. D. Green, had been "named" or temporarily accepted by both sides.

Talesman A. C. Robinson and A. R. McIntosh were excused by Judge Bordwell today, leaving only twenty-three talesmen and veniremen. Both men said they were opposed to conviction on a capital case on circumstantial evidence.

PRESIDENT TAFT SIGNS NEUTRALITY PROCLAMATION

HIGHMORE, S. D., Oct. 23.—President Taft today signed the long-expected proclamation declaring neutrality of the United States in the war between the Ottoman empire and Italy. The proclamation was forwarded from Highmore and the state department will notify the powers interested.

It recites that the United States "resolved to maintain and enforce, in accordance with the rules and principles governing the rights and duties of neutrality in international warfare, a strict and impartial neutrality between the aforesaid contending powers, as well as between themselves and the subjects of each, whether resident within the jurisdiction of the United States or elsewhere."

Favors Doing Away With Small Forts

WASHINGTON, Oct. 23.—After a month's tour in the west Secretary Stimson and Major General Wood have returned to Washington. They made a flying trip along the Mexican border, inspecting army posts as far as Prescott, Ariz. Secretary Stimson and General Wood said that the trip confirmed their belief that some army policy requires the concentration of troops in large posts and the abandonment of the many small western forts.

Fowler's Motor Breaks Down

BANING, Cal., Oct. 23.—Aviator Robert G. Fowler today tried to start eastward from Stewart's ranch, where he alighted yesterday. The motor broke down when Fowler was forty feet up, but the aviator managed to land safely. It will be two days before he can start again.

TO ADVANCE DRAINAGE CASE

Motion in Suit to Enjoin Levy for Ditch in Washington.

BUD LATTA'S SUIT ADVANCED

Action in Supreme Court Consolidated with Another Similar One—Reception for Dr. Davidson by Nebraskans.

(From a Staff Correspondent.)

WASHINGTON, D. C., Oct. 23.—(Special Telegram)—William J. Courtwright of Fremont, Neb., was today admitted to practice before the supreme court, and later submitted a motion to advance the case of Samuel O'Brien, plaintiff in error, against Rudolph Schneider, Joseph A. Yegar, Andrew P. Shepherd, Eugene C. Diers, Joseph Roberts, Ira M. Williams, Adam Mindmarsh, H. H. Orstman, as treasurer of Dodge county, Nebraska; James A. Donahue, as clerk of said county; J. F. White, as treasurer of Washington county, Nebraska, and O. T. Anderson, as county clerk of Washington county, defendants in error.

This action was brought against the defendants as public officials; they being, in part, the officers and directors of the Elkhorn river drainage district, and in part the county treasurers and county clerks of the two counties in which the drainage district is located.

The purpose is to enjoin the levying and collection of assessments made by the Elkhorn river drainage district for the cost of construction of a large drainage system. The Elkhorn river drainage district comprises 40,000 acres and is engaged in the construction of a drainage system costing $25,000.

Latta Case Advanced.

Chief Justice White today granted a motion made last Monday by W. M. Hopewell to advance the case of the Chicago, Milwaukee & St. Paul Railway company versus Bud R. Latta and to hear the same when the case of H. Fred Miller against the same railroad company may be reached. The cases are similar, involving apparently like points in law. The question involved is whether the provision of the constitution of the state of Nebraska prohibiting common carriers from in any wise limiting their liability on account of goods conveyed by a contract of shipment with a consignee is superseded and rendered nugatory by the interstate commerce act of 1906.

Light Hearing Put Over

Chief Justice White announced that a motion to dismiss or affirm in case of the Omaha Electric Light and Power company versus the city of Omaha and Waldemar Michaelson would be postponed to the hearing of the case in its regular order.

Charles A. Clark of Cedar Rapids, Ia., today submitted a motion to dismiss or affirm in the case of David A. Collier, Sallie C. Smythe, George B. Smythe, Jr., Mattie Rubridge et al., plaintiffs in error, versus J. G. Smalls and the Iowa Railroad Land company, defendants in error.

Reception for Davidson.

The Nebraska association made up of former residents of the prairie state with a membership of nearly three hundred, will give a reception to Dr. W. M. Davidson, new superintendent of schools of Washington, and Mrs. Davidson Friday evening of this week at Elks hall. Addresses will be made by F. A. Collins, assistant attorney general, and F. K. Nelson, an alumnus of the University of Nebraska, now coach of the Georgetown university football team.

Chicago Street Car Strikes Automobile; One Dead, Four Hurt

CHICAGO, Oct. 23.—One man suffered injuries which caused his death and four others were seriously hurt today when an automobile in which they were riding was struck by a Halsted street car at Fourteenth street. The men were hurled to the pavement and the automobile, which was being driven at a speed of forty-five miles an hour, was wrecked. Samuel Simon, 40 years old, died two hours after the accident. The other occupants of the machine will recover.

John R. Walsh Passes Away

Former Banker, Financier and Publisher Dies in Chicago.

HEART TROUBLE CAUSES DEATH

He Was Released from Leavenworth Prison Week Ago, Where He Was Sent for Violating National Banking Laws.

CHICAGO, Oct. 23.—John R. Walsh, former banker, publisher and railroad owner, released a week ago from the Leavenworth federal penitentiary, died today of heart disease.

Mr. Walsh has been in bed most of the time since his arrival here from Leavenworth October 15. He had been attended constantly by physicians. Intermittent reports of Mr. Walsh's falling health during his incarceration had been denied at the penitentiary. On his release it was plain that he had aged, and he gave up plans for a resumption of his position as a financial leader and took to his bed. Members of the Walsh family attributed the immediate cause of his death to his imprisonment and charged President Taft and Attorney General Wickersham with responsibility in failing to arrange the parole earlier.

"They wanted the last ounce of blood," said Orville E. Babcock, son-in-law of Walsh.

"Who do you mean by they?"

"President Taft and Attorney General Wickersham," he replied. "We presented them with statements by Dr. Frank Billings and Dr. Joseph A. Capp, stating that Mr. Walsh was dangerously ill, and that further confinement meant his death. They ignored medical advice and his death resulted from the long delay in obtaining his release."

Mr. Walsh was 74 years old. Death came nine days after his release on parole from the federal prison.

Mr. Walsh's health failed soon after he entered the prison. An immediate movement to obtain his release on a parole was begun by members of his family, Mrs. Mary L. Walsh and his two sons, Richard W. Walsh and John W. Walsh.

After his release Mr. Walsh was thought to have been still further weakened by a long, cold automobile ride from the prison to Kansas City. When he arrived home on the morning of October 15, Mr. Walsh was so ill and weak that he wanted to bed at once.

The former banker was surrounded by all the members of his family when he died.

Unconscious Since Sunday Noon.

He was stricken with a sinking spell about noon yesterday. Physicians remained with him all night, but he never regained consciousness.

Death was caused by myocarditis, an inflammation of the heart muscles, said Dr. Joseph H. Lowe, who attended him.

"When Mr. Walsh returned from the penitentiary his legs and muscles were swollen badly from the disease."

"We could not prevail on him to remain in bed day times, though until Wednesday. He was so glad to be home he insisted on being up around the house."

He is survived by his widow, three daughters, Mrs. D. Blake Baldwin, Mrs. Orville Babcock and Miss Mary Walsh, and his two sons, John and Richard.

Mr. Walsh was born in Cork county, Ireland, and had lived in Chicago for more than sixty years. He was of humble origin and on his arrival here worked first as a newsboy, gradually holding better positions until he became attached to a bank. Later when he had acquired wealth, his chief business concern was his group of Chicago banks, the Chicago National, the Equitable Trust company and the Home Savings bank. Among other properties were the Bedford Quarries company, the Indiana Southern Coal company, the Southern Indiana railway, the Chicago Chronicle and the Northwest Gas Light and Coke company.

Withdrawal of money from his banks to finance other enterprises resulted in an indictment following the closing of the banks in 1907. He was found guilty and December 3, 1909 was placed in

THROUGHS SWELL AT GREAT SHOW

Opening Day of Second Week of Big Exposition Indicates First Will Be Exceeded.

FERULLO'S BAND WORTH PRICE

Warm Praise for Land Show Management for Securing Musicians.

UTAH VISITORS WELL PLEASED

Governor Spry and Others from Utah to Come Utah Day, October 25.

SPECIALISTS GIVE ADDRESSES

Society Visits Big Show Tonight—Show-Seeing Parties of Young People Plan to Look Over Exhibits.

The Monday attendance at the Omaha Land Show has furnished conclusive proof that the second and last week is to be even a greater success than the first. People from city and country were in attendance by thousands and all went away pleased, feeling that the men behind the proposition are making good every promise given and that the show this year is far ahead of any other that has been held, either east or west.

While there were no special events on the Monday program, it was satisfactory to all who attended, many expressing the opinion that if there was no other feature than the Ferullo band concerts they were worth many times the price of admission.

The Ferullo band already has won a warm place in the hearts of the Land Show visitors and the two concerts, Monday afternoon and evening, were listened to with rapt attention, the applause being long, frequent and hearty. Musical critics are unanimous in pronouncing this one of the best if not the best band that ever has visited the city, and the Land Show management is being commended on every hand for having given the public this musical treat at the nominal price, which admits to the Land Show and all of its various attractions.

Specialists Talk.

Both afternoon and evening visitors strolled among the exhibits and when tired, they went to the amusement halls, where they listened to distinguished specialists who, with moving and colored pictures, took the crowds on journeys over mountains, through the playgrounds of nature, over productive grain fields and through orchards loaded with fruit.

During the day a party of Utah officials and business men visited the Land Show, on their way to the American Mining congress in Chicago, remaining until evening, making at the wonderful display gathered from mountain, plain and valley.

Governor of Utah Coming.

Wednesday, October 25, was fixed as Utah day at the Omaha Land show.

Upon the occasion of the Utah day addresses Governor Spry will deliver an address and members of the celebrated Mormon Tabernacle choir will sing, occupying the north side in the main hall. One of the selections will be the "Hallelujah Chorus," composed especially for the occasion, the words being by J. J. McClelland, director of the famous musical organization.

Governor Spry and the members of his party left Salt Lake yesterday, traveling in a special car attached to one of the fastest trains of the Union Pacific. In the governor's party is President Kingsbury of the University of Utah; Prof. Talmage, state geologist; John W. Carr, Dunsmuir MacVickar, R. J. Evans and other prominent citizens of Salt Lake City and the state of Utah.

In addition to the gubernatorial party taking part in the Utah day exercises the members will participate in the National Development league meeting that will be held in the Coliseum during the same afternoon.

Society Out Tonight.

Tonight the chief society event of the season and one that is already attracting attention will take place. The occasion has been designated as "Society Night" but regardless of this fact everyone is invited to attend.

A number of parties have been made up for this evening. The young people will come chaperoned by those of the older set to view the exhibits and be spectators at the traveltalks.

Besides the social function, there will be a touch of military in connection with the program tonight. It has been designated as "Army Night." General Frederick Smith, commanding officer of the Department of the Missouri, his aides, his staff and the officers of Fort Crook and Omaha, at least those of the rank of captain and above, will be in attendance in full uniform.

During the Ferullo concert, the army officers as well as the society people will occupy boxes on either side of the stage. These boxes will be draped in the national colors.

Funeral of Gotch's Father.

HUMBOLDT, Ia., Oct. 23.—The funeral of the father of Frank Gotch will be held here tomorrow.
