CORNHUSKERS WORK HARD

Defeat by Gophers Does Not Dishearten Nebraska Players.

KANSAS URGES SPY IN CAMP

Lawrence Papers Having Spam Over Alleged Presence of Nebraska Man During Practice of Team.

LINCOLN, Neb., Oct. 23.—(Special Telegram)—Only signal practice was given the varsity Monday night, Coach Stehm desiring to ease up the heavy work of the last two weeks. All of the regulars were out in uniform although considerably tired in the grueling battle with the Gophers. Despite his broken nose, Warner took charge of the varsity and under the direction of Stehm put the regulars through a stiff signal practice of thirty minutes.

Stehm worked with the linemen, indulging in a little scrimmage himself. The Nebraska coach does not feel disheartened by Saturday's defeat, but is very anxious concerning his line.

The scrubs also indulged in signal practice with Stehm calling signals in the quarterback position. The scrubs and regulars later in the evening, worked out a series of plays together.

There was hard scrimmaging work in store for the two eleven of freshmen. Assistant Coach Rathbone giving them a long workout. The regulars on the freshmen squad had little difficulty in holding the second team safely and advanced the ball at will.

SPY QUESTION TO FRONT

The old Jayhawker stunt of charging Nebraska with spying has come to light again, this time a little earlier than usual. Nebraskaans are considerably amused over the report that Frank Prouty, a former base ball man, was sent to Lawrence to spy on the Jayhawkers. The Kansas papers contain several columns regarding the Prouty incident. The college paper devoted nearly an entire issue to Cornhusker "yellowness."

Prouty, it seems, was in the same hotel with the Jayhawkers when a Kansas man noticed his small "N" on the lapel of his coat and promptly notified the Kansas officials that a spy was in the camp. Prouty when denied that he was a Cornhusker spy and laughed at the idea that he knew anything of the Jayhawkers. The Kansas refused to make light of the incident, however, and the story appeared that Prouty was spying. The college paper even noticed that Prouty had a small book in which he had been making notes.

Prouty is now a traveling salesman and it doubtless was an order book which the Kansas man noticed. The Kansas papers take a hot shot at Nebraska's expense, stating that Nebraska has always been trying to introduce purified athletics in the valley when she is the most flagrant violator of the rules. The Cornhusker authorities are considerably peeved that the incident is given publicity.

GAME WILL BE PLAYED TODAY

Sun Shines Brightly on Field All Day Long.

BAKER HITS HARD IN PRACTICE

In Five Times Up Drives Ball Over Night Field Fence and Three Times Between Temporary Fence and Wall.

PHILADELPHIA, Oct. 23.—After having been postponed for the fifth time, there is every indication tonight that the fourth game of the world's championship series between the New York Giants and the Athletics will be played tomorrow at Shibe park.

The sun shone brightly all day and put the field in fairly good condition. The diamond is in far better shape than the outfield, but a liberal use of huge sponges by a score of men partially cleared the outfield.

Both teams took advantage of the pleasant weather to prepare for what is thought will be one of the most bitterly fought games of the present series. Manager Mack had his men on the diamond at Shibe park for fully two hours, principally at the bat. With Danforth, Martin and Coombs serving up their benders the players took their regular turns at batting.

Baker Hits Viciously.

Baker, the sensation of the two victories thus far scored by the Athletics, was the star in today's batting practice. In five times at bat he thrice drove the ball into the enclosure between the temporary low wooden fence and the right field wall and later sent the ball over the right field fence.

Bender and Plank warmed up with Thomas and Lapp at the receiving end. When the batting practice was nearly concluded, Mack sent Coombs in to pitch for Plank.

Manager McGraw had his Giants out for a lengthy practice at the National League grounds. He followed practically the same line of play adopted by the Athletics' manager. With Ames, Crandall and Wiltsch pitching the New York players got in some fine batting practice.

Mathewson and Marquard warmed up with Chief Meyers. Both of the National League stars seemed to be in splendid condition.

Mathewson did not attempt to use all his speed, but occasionally would shoot a fast one over.

While neither manager would state positively tonight who would be their pitching selection for the fourth game, it is reasonably sure that Bender and Mathewson will again occupy the mound.

The local weather indications are for a clear, crisp day.

MAN WHO COMMERCIALIZES ALFALFA VISITS THE SHOW

H. D. Watson of Kearney, father of alfalfa raising without irrigation in Nebraska, visited the Land Show Saturday while on his way home from his Chicago offices. He made a careful examination of the Burbank and Buffum exhibits and was much interested in the work they have done.

Twenty years ago Mr. Watson began raising alfalfa in Buffalo county to prove that it was a profitable crop. One thousand acres was finally seeded and as late as 1896 he produced a big crop, which he could not sell, because the value of the alfalfa hay for feeding had not been proven.

To prove that alfalfa was one of the finest feeds in the world, Mr. Watson found a sheep feeder in a western state who was willing to try the alfalfa, provided a good supply of corn was kept for emergency use. He fed the 1897 crop from the 1,000 acres and fed it without corn. The crop of 1898 had rotted. It was an expensive experiment for Watson, who received $1 a ton for one crop and threw in the crop of the previous year, but thereafter the industry was established and in the last few years has, according to government statistics, increased more than all other crops combined, the increase in alfalfa and other hay crops for 1910 alone being 50 per cent.

Prof. Bailey of Cornell university believes Mr. Watson's work is second only to that of the great Burbank, and in a recent article in World's Work links their names, one as the naturalist and the other as the commercialist, and both equally successful in developing and

BIBLE IN PUBLIC SCHOOLS TO BE DEBATED TONIGHT

A question that is causing considerable agitation in ministerial circles will be discussed tonight at the Tri-City Baraca Union rally in the First Methodist church when a debate on the question, "Shall the Bible be Placed in the Public Schools," will be debated.

Several months ago at the meeting of the Baraca Union in the Young Men's Christian association the question was brought up for settlement, but on account of the importance of the matter it was held over until the rally tonight for definite settlement. If the affirmative side of the debate wins out the Baraca Union will in all probability do everything in its power to see that the Bible is placed in the schools, but should the negative side win, then the question will be dropped.

At the rally tonight the young women's Bible classes of Omaha, South Omaha and Council Bluffs will organize a Tri-City Pilgrimage Union.

Invitations to attend the rally have been extended to pastors of all surrounding cities and a large attendance is expected.

If you have anything to exchange, advertise it in the Omaha Daily Bee.

JERSEY JUSTICE VINDICATED

What Hit the Man Who Dropped Syllable Off the Judge's Name.

The traditional dignity of "Jersey Justice" has once more been vindicated, according to the latest returns from Caldwell. James Martin, a town character described by the local experts as "a man of excellent family but who does odd jobs," was arraigned before Recorder Heller, accused of having pilfered a few trifles from his patrons.

"Ten dollars or thirty days in jail," said Recorder Heller after hearing the evidence.

"You take that back," said Jimmy Martin, truculently.

"Ten dollars more or thirty days more for contempt of court," remarked the recorder.

"Oh, hell!" said Jimmy Martin.

"And $10 or thirty days more for more contempt of court," said the recorder.

"Oh, Heller!" said Jimmy. He apparently meant to be plaintive, but the recorder did not take it that way.

"And $10 more or thirty days more for still more contempt of court," he remarked wearily.

When they led Jimmy Martin limply to the prison cell he had been sentenced to pay $50 or to spend 150 days in jail.

"When I get out," he said to the turnkey, "I'm going in there and tell Fred Heller what I really think of him."

There we may leave James while we set down the record of George Coombs, who was brought before the same judgment seat for alleged disorderly conduct and was fined $20 or sixty days.

"Damnifyit," murmured George.

"Forty dollars or 120 days," said Recorder Heller.

Coombs, who had seen what happened to Martin, fairly grabbed at the arm of the officer to be led away.—New York Press.

NATURE'S CURE FOR CHRONIC ULCERS

Only by removing the cause can any chronic Ulcer or Old Sore be cured. No one will question the truthfulness of this statement. The cause is always from an inward source, never an outward influence, and therefore the only possible way to get rid of these places is to take internal treatment. Pure blood is the one unfailing cure for chronic ulcers; just as long as the circulation is allowed to remain in an impure condition the place will be kept open from the constant discharge of impurities into it from the blood. But pure blood will change this condition and the flesh tissues will be nourished and made healthy, and then nature will promptly and permanently heal the ulcer. S. S. S. is recognized as the greatest of all blood purifiers and therein lies its power to cure old ulcers and sores. It goes into the circulation, and removes every trace of impurity or infectious matter, and so enriches this vital fluid that it nourishes all flesh tissues instead of irritating them with impurities. When S. S. S. has cleansed the blood and the place has healed over it is not a surface cure, but the ulcer is filled in with healthy flesh from the bottom. Free book and any medical advice will be sent to all sufferers who will write us. S. S. S. is for sale at drug stores.
