Former Athlete Leaps Two Stories to Death

PORTLAND, Ore., Oct. 23.—Ralph Dimick, a young lawyer of this city and well known in the Pacific northwest and in the middle west as an athlete, met death early today while descending by jumping from the second story of a fire escape of a local hospital.

Dimick, who contracted pneumonia ten days ago as the result of a foot ball game between colleges, alumni and students of the Pacific university at Forest Grove, had been out of his mind. During the momentary absence of his nurse, Dimick jumped from bed, climbed out of the window and leaped from the fire escape. Alighting he ran several hundred feet at great speed before dropping exhausted. The distance he fell was not great, but in his weakened condition he was unable to stand the shock. He was dead when picked up.

Fire Breaks Out on German Cruiser

KIEL, Oct. 23.—Fire broke out today on the German cruiser Von Der Tann. It started in the tower, oil and alcohol storeroom and burned fiercely for half an hour. The crew worked heroically in extinguishing the flames and the damage to the cruiser is not great.

Finger Print Did the Job

Colored Crook Seized at "the Footlights" and Then Squeezed.

It should be proven that this story is absolutely true—even if it doesn't sound that way. A few days before Lieutenant Faurot, in charge of the fingerprint department at the New York police headquarters, called for France, a big negro was brought in. He had been arrested on general principles by an alert copper, but the policeman had no charge against him that could stick. Faurot took his fingerprints.

"He bash is all footlights," said the negro. "I never been arrested before, and I don't like the way you all treat me. I'm er hard working man."

He gave his right name too, and an address which proved to be accurate. But because the police still suspected him in spite of his good references they had him while Faurot went through the records of the bureau. Finally he looked up at the negro. "What were you doing out at Flatbush last Thursday night?"

"Kush," said the negro, "bash's where I work. I'll tell you the truth. I done some forty years over in Pennsylvania, and I got that store little bit out because I don't want to see nuffin behind the

Helpless Cripple Self-Supporting

John Gordon, a paralytic for eleven years, has been self-supporting through the assistance of magazine readers. He is a subscription agent and can duplicate any offer made by the various publishers. Last year, through the assistance of the magazine readers, Mr. Gordon earned a $2,000 cash premium. This prize was deposited with the Omaha Conservative Savings & Loan association as trustee. The interest from the money will go towards the support of Mr. Gordon during his life time and at death the principal sum will be used for charity. If Mr. Gordon can secure 6,000 subscriptions to the Saturday Evening Post and Ladies' Home Journal this year he will earn another prize of $3,000, which will also be donated to charity, but the interest will be devoted toward Mr. Gordon's support while he lives. By interesting the public in earning this $5,000 Mr. Gordon will have succeeded in obtaining a life income of $800 a year, which is more than he could accomplish by any other plan.

Readers of any of the various magazines are earnestly requested to mail their orders to John Gordon, 3423 S. 24th Street, Omaha, he will supply you with them at as low a rate as any publisher or other agent, and you will at the same time be assisting a helpless cripple to earn his livelihood. Mr. Gordon needs 167 more subscriptions to the Ladies' Home Journal and Saturday Evening Post in October or he will fail. Call up Douglas 7163 and send in your order at once. Address:

The Omaha Bee's Great Booklovers' Contest

No. 70—Tuesday, October 24, 1911.

What Book Does This Picture Represent?

Title ..... Author ..... Your Name ..... Street and Number ..... City or Town .....

Rules of the Contest

All persons are eligible to enter this contest except employees of the Omaha Bee and members of their families. Each day, for seventy-five days, there will be published in The Bee a picture which will represent the name of a book. Beneath each picture there will be a blank for the contestant to fill in the title of the book. Cut out both the picture and the blank and fill in the name and author of the book and add your name and address neatly and plainly in the space provided. No restrictions will be placed on the way in which answers to the pictures may be secured. Each picture represents only one title of one book. If you are not sure of a title and wish to send in more than one answer to each picture, you may do so. BUT NOT MORE THAN FIVE ANSWERS TO ANY ONE PICTURE WILL BE PERMITTED. Incorrect answers will not be counted against contestants. If correct answer is also given. More than one answer should not be put on the same coupon. Extra coupons should be used for extra puzzles. All answers to the same number should be kept together when sending in the set. Only one list may be submitted by one contestant, though any list may have five answers to each puzzle. The number of coupons used—answers given—must be plainly written on the outside of each SET submitted, but do not write such information on the wrapper. While not absolutely necessary, it is desirable that the pictures should be sent in each case be sent in with the answers, in order that all answers be uniform. Additional pictures and coupons may be obtained at the office of The Bee by mail or in person. When you have all the pictures and answers, pack them together in a FLAT package and bring or mail them to The Omaha Bee, addressed to Booklovers' Contest Editor. Prizes will be awarded to the contestants sending in the largest number of correct solutions. In event of two or more persons having the same number of correct solutions, the person using the smaller number of extra coupons in his set of answers will be declared winner. In event of two persons having the same number correct and using the same number of coupons, the person whose set of answers is most neatly prepared, in the opinion of the full judging committee, will receive the first prize. Only one list of answers may be submitted by a contestant and only one prize will be awarded to one family at one address. The use of the coupons is obligatory upon the contestant, and an answer may be submitted in any legible manner the contestant may select. Awards will be made strictly according to the merit of each separate list. The name of more than one person must not be written upon any one coupon. The awards will be made by the Contest Editor and a committee of well-known citizens whose names will be announced later. The contest is limited to the following territory: Nebraska, Wyoming, that portion of low west and of the only interurban trolley line running out of Omaha and the Black Hills district.

FIRST PRIZE Value $2,000 White Steamer Automobile

A 5-passenger 1911 Model White Steamer Touring Car—odorless, smokeless and noiseless. No cranking. No starting of gears. Any desired speed. White Steamer sales increase each succeeding year.
