

ATHLETICS CRUSH GIANTS

Final Score in Sixth Game Thirteen to Two.
SEVEN RUNS IN THE SEVENTH
 Philadelphia Develops Hitting Streak and Nearly Every Man on the Team Gets a Hit—Small Crowd Sees Game.

 All fielder for New York, robbed Lord of sure three-base hit by a great spring, catching his long fly in center field.
 Baker and Davis made sensational running catches of foul flies and Collins identified the spectators by a stop and a throw of a terrific grounder back of the second base that no one thought he could reach.
 The Philadelphia team was charged with five errors and all of them were made on the easiest kind of chances. Two of New York's three errors were wild throws, which repeatedly started their downfall.
Small Crowd Out.
 The crowd which saw the Athletics win the championship was the smallest of the series, numbering 20,000, but what it lacked in numbers was made up in enthusiasm. There was little noise until the third inning when the Athletics tied the score, and when the home team cut loose in the fourth and subsequent rounds there was never a lull in the cheering. Every player was given a rousing hand as he stepped to the plate; rank errors were overlooked, and finally the Athletics so far outclassed the Giants in the hitting department that the crowd began to cheer in derision every time an Athletic player was thrown out by any man.
 The fourth inning was noisy, but it was nothing compared to the seventh, when the Athletics stepped to the plate.
 A bit of sentiment on the part of Captain Harry Davis was cheered when he sent the injured McInnis into the game in the ninth. "Stuffy" took the last put out and will figure in the series.
 "Chief" Meyers also retired near the end of the game in favor of Wilson, probably for the same reason.
 Before the game began it looked as if Plank would be the pitcher and there was some surprise among the enthusiasts when Connie Mack sent Bender into the box. The chief proved that he could pitch more than twice a week.

run in the two feature innings of the game. In the fourth, with the score a tie, Baker opened the inning with a slashing single to centerfield. The crowd called on Murphy to bring him around and he almost did it by landing Baker on third with a single to center field. The veteran Davis then came up and hit a grounder to Doyle, who threw to the plate, but Baker was in with the run by a beautiful slide under Meeker. This run gave the home team the lead. With none out Barry laid down a bunt and in fielding the ball to first Ames hit Barry on the head and the ball rolled out to right field.
 Murphy and Davis rounded the bases to the plate. Barry put on steam and started to sprint to second. Barry made a poor throw to catch the fleet-footed short stop at second and Barry made a dash for home. He crossed the plate with the fourth run. Thomas, Bender and Lord then went out in order.
Story of Seventh Inning.
 In the sixth the Athletics got a run on Murphy's two-base hit and two outs and in the seventh the Athletics put the world's championship in their possession. Bender opened the inning with a fly to Doyle. Lord singled to the infield and Oldfield put him on third with a single to center. Collins hit to White, who threw to Meeker and when the latter dropped the ball Lord sprinted across the plate. Collins was safe. Oldring scored on Baker's drive over Doyle's head and Collins went to third. Murphy pushed a single into center field and Collins came home. Baker stopping at second. Davis sent Baker home and Murphy to third on a smash to right field and a moment later Murphy came home when Barry lifted a ball into the crowd for two bases. Davis going to third.
 Manager McGraw then switched his pitchers, sending in Marquard, who let loose a wild pitch and Davis and Barry crossed the plate. Then up came Thomas, the ninth man at bat in the inning, and shot out his first hit of the series, to his intense delight. Bender came up and Thomas started for second and was thrown out. Meyers to Fletcher. It looked as if Thomas purposely went out to end the inning quickly. Bender struck out.
 After that big inning the Athletics did not appear to try hard. All interest in the outcome of the battle was gone and the big crowd started homeward.
Meekers Scores in Ninth.
 There was no more scoring until the ninth inning, when Meerkers scored on his pitcher, sending in Marquard, who let loose a wild pitch and Davis and Barry crossed the plate. Then up came Thomas, the ninth man at bat in the inning, and shot out his first hit of the series, to his intense delight. Bender came up and Thomas started for second and was thrown out. Meyers to Fletcher. It looked as if Thomas purposely went out to end the inning quickly. Bender struck out.
 After that big inning the Athletics did not appear to try hard. All interest in the outcome of the battle was gone and the big crowd started homeward.

They cheered the players, who had dived under the grandstand the instant the last man was out, and gave three cheers for Connie Mack, who has won four American league pennants and two world's championships for Philadelphia.

Ben Johnson, president of the American league, was all smiles after the game. "Delighted," was the only comment he had to make.
 All records for attendance and receipts for a world's championship series were broken. The National Base Ball commission tonight gave out the following figures:
 Attendance, 179,831. Total receipts, $342,364.35.
 Of this amount the players received $137,919.61; each club received $90,168.22 and the National commission's share was $14,236.52.

First Inning—Giants: Devore rolled a grounder to Bender and was out at first, after having two strikes called on him. Doyle drove the ball over the temporary fence in right field for two bases. It was the first ball pitched. The ball almost went out of the grounds. Snodgrass lifted a high one, which Lord took care of. It was two out, with Doyle on second and Murray at bat. Doyle scored on Murphy's miff of Murray's fly. Murray was caught off first a moment later by a beautiful throw, Bender to Davis. One run, one hit, one error.
Athletics: Lord was an easy out. Doyle to Meeker. The first three balls Ames pitched were wide ones and the next four were straight over the plate, one of which Lord fouled. Oldring, who had made a home run off Marquard yesterday struck out. Collins fanned. No runs, no hits, no errors.

Second Inning—Giants: Meerkers lifted a high one, which Oldring captured after a long run. Barry muffed Herzog's line drive and the runner was safe. Herzog stole second. Thomas' throw being a trifle high, Barry was slightly spiked by the runner. It was purely accidental. The game was delayed a few minutes while the doctor bandaged Barry's right ankle. Fletcher struck out. Chief Meyers was given a great hand when he came to the plate. It was Indian against Indian. Meyers drove a hard grounder over second base, but Collins made a beautiful pickup and got the runner at first. No runs, no hits, one error.
Athletics: Baker lifted a high fly to Devore and was an easy out. Murphy hit one too hot for Doyle to handle and was safe at first. It was a base hit. Davis rolled an easy grounder to Ames and retired at first, Murphy taking second. Barry struck out on three pitched balls, fouling one of them. The last ball Barry struck at could not have been hit by a cicheteer. No runs, one hit, no errors.

Third Inning—Giants: Ames singled to left. Devore forced Ames at second. Bender to Barry. Doyle was cheered when he came to the plate. Doyle flied to Baker. Devore was an easy out stealing. Thomas to Collins. No runs, one hit, no errors.
Athletics: Thomas was given his base on balls. Bender was out. Fletcher to Meerkers. Thomas taking second. Lord doubled over the temporary fence in right field, scoring Thomas. The stands shook with the cheers of the crowd. Meyers and Ames held a conference when Oldring came to the plate. Lord went to third on Oldring's out. Fletcher to Meerkers. Collins lifted a fly to Devore. One run, one hit, no errors.

Fourth Inning—Giants: Snodgrass lifted

Don't Pull Out the Gray Hairs, a Simple Remedy Restores the Color.

"Pull out the gray hair and a dozen will take its place," is an old saying, which is, to a great extent, true, if no steps are taken to stop the cause. When gray hairs appear it is a sign that Nature needs assistance. It is Nature's call for help. Gray hair, dull, lifeless hair, or hair that is falling out, is not necessarily a sign of advancing age, for there are thousands of elderly people with perfect heads of hair without a single streak of gray.
 When gray hairs come, or when the hair seems to be lifeless or dead, some good, reliable hair-restoring treatment should be resorted to at once. Specialist say that one of the best preparations to use is the old-fashioned "Weyth's" which our grandfathers used. The best preparation of this kind is Weyth's
