

COLORADO San Luis Valley

Next Excursion to the COSTILLA ESTATE TUESDAY, November 7th

Join us on this excursion and we will show you one of the largest private irrigation projects in the United States—one where the reservoirs are complete (not on paper)—one where they have the water and plenty of it. We will show you an irrigation project where there never will be any question of water supply. The company owns the entire watershed controlling the rivers from their source until they empty into the Rio Grande River. The Costilla Estate has a gradual fall of ten to seventeen feet to the mile, which insures perfect drainage and freedom from alkali troubles. The combination of ample water supply, perfect drainage and fertile soil is what produced the enormous yields on our tract this year and has made the Costilla Estate the most talked of irrigation project in the west. The Costilla Estate is being settled by the very best farmers from Iowa and Nebraska, and many former Greeley irrigation farmers are now on the tract. They have all made money this year, including a number who did not break their ground until April and May. We are offering this land at $15 and $70 an acre on ten years' terms. Conservative investors have told us that this land is far superior to much that is being sold at $150 and $200 an acre. If you will join us on our next excursion we will show you not only one of the largest reservoirs in the country, but will show you developed farms, prosperous towns and choice farm land lying within a mile of the railroad track can be bought on the above terms. Send us a card today or call us by telephone and we will give you full information about this project and our next excursion.

Climate—Soil—Sunshine

Montana—Idaho Washington

No section of the United States offers such splendid opportunities to the small grain farmer, fruit grower, truck gardener, dairyman, live stock and poultry raiser as do the states of Montana, Idaho and Washington.

There Are Fortunes Making in the Great Northwest

Thousands are making their homes in these wonderful states, and there is room for hundreds of thousands more. You are assured of the best climate, richest soil and more days of sunshine than in the middle west and eastern states.
