

Vote the Straight Republican Ticket is Advice from Aldrich, Brown and Norris

United States Senate, COMMITTEE ON PATENTS,
WASHINGTON, D. C.

Kearney, Nebraska, Oct. 6, 1911.

Hon. John L. Kennedy,
Chairman Republican State Committee,
Omaha, Nebraska.

Dear Mr. Kennedy:

I have your esteemed favor of the 4th inst. in which you express a hope for the election of the straight ticket this year and in which you ask me for an expression of how such a result can be attained. Replying, permit me to say, in the first place the character and ability of the candidates are such as to command the full confidence and support of the people without regard to politics. Judges Letton, Rose, and Hamer have each been tried in judicial service and each has acquitted himself as a judge. Letton and Rose on the Supreme Bench, and Hamer on the District Bench, to the full satisfaction of all those who know them and are just judges. I know of no safer guide than the test of trial. These men have been tried. They were honest, efficient and impartial. No stronger commendation can be found than the records they have made for themselves.

Thomas L. Hall has a life record for industrious devotion to correct and impartial laws for the regulation of public service corporations. He is one of the truly great men in our country for his qualifications for Railway Commissioner and his disposition to treat fairly and justly both the shipper and the railroads.

Frank Fuller and Victor Lyford are both men of scholarship and high character and both have shown live interest in educational affairs. They are students still. With these men elected Regents of the University that institution would continue to hold its place among the foremost universities of the country to the great advantage and profit of our young people and to the great credit and good name of our advancing state.

With such a ticket no Republican will find it easy or agreeable to encourage the candidates of any other party.

You also enquire "to what extent, if any at all, the issues of the next campaign should enter into this campaign?" In my judgment, none at all. The campaign next year will have to do with problems not before us for solution on election day of this year. After election there will be ample time before the primaries of 1912 for the Republicans to consider and debate the issues and candidates of that year. When all differences, if any shall then exist, can be determined and settled.

I am a Republican and still feel under deep obligations to the party from which I sought and which I received the nomination four years ago as well as to the people who afterwards elected me. That obligation would be repaid if I did attempt to inject into this campaign my own candidacy or that of any other man which cannot be determined until next year.

I congratulate you and the party and the people on your efforts to keep Republicans together instead of on your strong desire to promote the success of the ticket so worthy of popular support. In this understanding my services are at your command.

Very truly yours,
Norris Brown

House of Representatives II
Washington D. C.

McCook, Nebraska,
October 7, 1911.

Honorable John L. Kennedy,
Chairman Rep. State Central Committee,
Omaha, Nebraska.

My dear Mr. Kennedy:

Upon my return home after an absence of several days, I find your letter of October 4th awaiting my attention. In my judgment, the issues of the next campaign should not enter into and are not connected with the issues of the present campaign. In the presidential primaries next April, the voter will be called upon to determine questions that are in no way related to or connected with the issues in the campaign this fall. This fall we are electing Judges of the Supreme Court, Regents of the State University and a Railroad Commissioner. The qualifications of candidates and the fitness of men for these offices are entirely distinct and separate from the questions to be determined in the presidential primaries next April, and no man's vote at the coming November election should be influenced by the position he intends to take next April in that contest.

Personally, I had hoped that the issues of next year's contest would not be brought up for discussion until after the coming election was out of the way and I would not have entered into any discussion of the issues and the men involved in the presidential primary contest had it not been that the question was first opened up and discussed by those who will be on the opposite side from myself in the April primaries.

Yours very truly,
G. W. Norris

State of Nebraska
EXECUTIVE OFFICE

Lincoln, Neb., Oct. 11, 1911.

Hon. John L. Kennedy,
Omaha, Neb.
My dear Mr. Kennedy:

Your kind favor of recent date is at hand. I fully concur in your plans as expressed in your letter.

I don't believe anything should intervene at this time to attract attention from our present campaign in the election of supreme judges and regents to the state university. This is a very important election and there is absolutely no reason why Republicans everywhere over the entire state should not rally to the support of their ticket.

I notice that Mr. Bryan is out over the state urging democrats everywhere to line up for a straight democratic ticket. If he can show the reason why the people should vote the democratic ticket this fall on state issues, the Republicans certainly can show one hundred why a Republican ticket should be elected. The record of the last two democratic legislatures should put the democratic party out of every possibility of power in this state for the next decade. Our candidates for the supreme judiciary are men of experience. Letton and Rose have had successful experience as supreme judges and their decisions show the breadth and scope of a high order of judicial ability.

The office of railway commissioner is second to none in the state. The amount, extent and nature of the business transacted by the Nebraska railway commission is of vital importance in dollars and cents, not only to all the people, but to the railroads as well. This commission has done great work both for the people and the common carriers and it is up to the people to see to it that nothing happens that will in any way detract or take away the efficiency of this commission. And if the people elect Thomas L. Hall they will find in him a man of sterling integrity, eminent fairness and thoroughly well qualified. I am personally acquainted with Mr. Hall. He is an able lawyer, is deeply interested from a property standpoint in the welfare of Nebraska and his political views on public questions are thoroughly progressive. No one has ever been heard to question the integrity and fairness and ability of Mr. Hall. And in his election, the people and the common carriers will have a man upon whom they can at all times rely and implicitly trust. There should be no question about his election.

I hope you will succeed in impressing the Republicans of this state with the importance of this election, and convince them that it is their duty to give you their hearty support and co-operation in their efforts for good government in Nebraska. It goes without saying that I am ready to assist you whenever I can.

Charles N. Aldrich
charge of the meeting and after the cadet band had warned things up considerably. A. N. Carstensen, formerly of the high school faculty and now connected with the Omaha Commercial college, spoke to the students on the importance of good support from the rooters at a foot ball game. Prof. Bernstein of the faculty gave a brief talk, after which yells were rehearsed.

COMPLAINTS ARE MADE AGAINST OPEN SEWER
Several complaints have reached school officials regarding a large open sewer north of the Druid Hill school at Thirty-second and Spaulding streets. The complainants are mostly persons living in the vicinity and they state that the sewer is a menace not only to the health of themselves and children, but that there is great danger of the little tots falling into it. The matter will be presented at the next meeting of the school board.

BANQUET IS ARRANGED FOR SCHOOLMASTERS' CLUB
The affair will be tendered the school masters and the guests of honor are to be Dr. W. M. Davidson, formerly superintendent in charge of arrangements for the annual convention of the Nebraska Teachers' association have arranged for an elaborate banquet to be given the Nebraska School Masters' club

In the University club rooms November 1st, it was said today, to marry Allison MacFarland, who is in jail here awaiting trial on a charge of murdering his wife. This statement was made by attorneys for both prosecution and defense. Miss Bromley was formerly MacFarland's stenographer. The defense contends that his wife committed suicide after she discovered the relations between him and the girl.

HAVE YOU ALL REGISTERED? GARAGE ON WEST FARNAM

Today is the Last Chance if Citizens Would Vote Tuesday.

BOTH PARTIES ARE NOW ACTIVE

Every Effort is Being Put Forth to Have All Voters Get Their Names on the Poll Books for the Coming Election.

Today is the last registration day before the general election, which will be held Tuesday, November 7. Democratic and republican organizations are laying plans to get every unregistered voter out and have him get his name on the poll book of his precinct.

Every republican and every democrat is urged to keep busy with the question, "Have you registered?" and when there is a negative answer to see that the voter's name goes on the book if he has to be dragged to the polling place.

Both parties will have watchers on hand to see that there is no fraudulent registration.

In view of the unusual efforts being put forth by both parties to secure a heavy registration it appears that the vote on election day will be a large one.

Electors who fail to register Saturday will not be permitted to vote unless they show that they have been out of the city or ill on all the registration days. When such excuses are given and proven the voters will be permitted to swear in their votes.

"I want to correct a story printed in the World-Herald putting the Colored Citizens' club on record as endorsing McShane for sheriff," said G. W. Hibbler. "The truth is the club has endorsed Hoge and the entire republican ticket, the action being taken at a meeting two weeks ago. At the meeting in question, two men were granted the privilege of addressing the meeting and they spoke for McShane, but the club took no action that kind then or at any other time. The report as published is only another of the misrepresentations the democratic paper is scattering broadcast."

A citizens' meeting will be held Monday evening in Magnolia hall, Twenty-fourth and Ames avenue, in the interest of Twelfth ward candidates without regard to party affiliation. A crowded house is expected to hear the opinions of the various aspirants for office. Both sides are invited to speak alike.

The present political campaign is ended so far as one candidate is concerned, despite the fact that the election still is ten days away. Thomas J. O'Connor, democratic candidate for county clerk against Frank Dewey, at present deputy county clerk, has told intimate friends that he has no hope of winning the office he seeks. In conversation Mr. O'Connor said he will appreciate the efforts of his friends and desires to poll as high a vote as possible, but he is not making the vigorous campaign that might be made because he knows that, even doing his best, he cannot hope to outrun Mr. Dewey.

Candidates who wish to be heard and who wish opportunity to answer questions that voters may wish to propound are invited to attend a meeting of the Fontanelle club, to be held at the Millard hotel tonight. The loyal quartet, led by Joseph W. Morrow, will furnish music during the evening.

Declaration that County Commissioner O. J. Pickard, seeking re-election from the Third district on the democratic ticket, has lost the confidence of Benson precinct is made by several Benson men. They say Pickard will be cut and slashed by democrats who they go to the polls on election day. Mr. Pickard's system of "taking care of" his brother, his position in favor of changing the county building contracts for the benefit of the contractors, Caldwell & Drake, his unexplained offering of a mysterious gift to Representative Grossman for securing a salary increase for him—these are some of the reasons for the falling of Mr. Pickard's popularity.

Electric Garage Company to Build on Fortieth and Farnam

Building is to Be Two Stories in Height, with Big Frontage on Both Farnam and Fortieth Streets.

Contract has been let to Alex Zeck for the erection of a $25,000 garage at the northwest corner of Fortieth and Farnam, to care for the garage business of the fashionable West Farnam neighborhood. Construction will be started immediately.

The garage will be occupied by the Electric Garage company, owned by Denise Barkalow and George Redick, now located at Twenty-third and Farnam. Half of the building will be for electric cars and half for gasoline cars.

The structure will be two stories in height, 132 feet on Fortieth street and eighty-eight feet on Farnam. Practically all the first floor frontage will be glass. Nippell & Bellas are the architects and Dr. C. N. Downs is the owner of the property. A. P. Tukey & Son negotiated the transaction.

This is the advance movement of garages into the residence section. It will open the sales field for electric in Dunlee, which has been too far away from garages for a general use of electric.

Persistent Suitor Disturbs the Peace

Hugh W. Hale, 313 North Thirty-first street, has a hired girl, Fine girl, retires early and all that G. H. Owens has taken a shine to her. He spent the night in jail.

Owens called up the Hale residence about 11 o'clock Thursday night desiring to have sweet converse with her majesty. Hale had to get up out of bed to answer the phone and he was furious. What he told Owens over the phone approached violence, but the suitor was persistent and decided upon a personal call.

Shortly before 1 o'clock he knocked at the door of the Hale residence and the lord of the household responded with gun in hand. Owens confided his desire to see the hired girl and Hale invited him in the house at the point of the ugly revolver. The midnight caller soon found himself a prisoner in the home and nearly collapsed when he heard Hale thunderously calling over the telephone for the police. They came and took Owens away. He was released at headquarters for disturbing the peace.

When Owens appeared in police court Judge Crawford gave him a few pointers on the art of making love and dismissed him at the request of Mr. Hale, who, after a night of sleep, decided that the young man had been taught a lesson.

GOLF COURSE PLANNED FOR FONTANELLE PARK

Assurance that an eighteen-hole golf course, which will be the finest in this section of the west, will be established in Fontanelle park early in the spring was given Deputy County Clerk Frank Dewey and others interested in park improvement by Dr. T. R. Mullen of the Board of Park Commissioners Friday morning after a party of interested ones had looked over the ground.

In the party were Mr. Dewey, H. J. Hackett, John G. Dennis, Dr. Mullen and W. R. Adams, superintendent of parks. Mr. Adams was enthusiastic in expressing his opinion that for a golf course the ground could not be surpassed in this section of the west.

STUDENTS AT THE HIGH SCHOOL PRACTICE YELLS

A monster mass meeting to arouse enthusiasm for the Sioux City game at Bourke park was held at the high school Friday noon, at which time the 2000 students of the school formed a solid mass around the east steps of the building and listened to a short program of speeches.
