

Sampeck Overcoats Command Attention

They're as handsomely tailored as Sampeck suits and brimful of style, good looks and long life. Brown and gray mixtures in rough finished fabrics are in high favor — the clear-toned diagonals are equally as popular.

The Imperial

Illustrated, a big roomy, comfortable coat with a convertible collar that stays put—worn turned down or military.

Take all the sting out of the coldest days—put on the Imperial.

The Chesterfield

A new Sampeck model with medium shoulders, long revers, either fly front or buttoned through style. 3-4 length and full fashioned, with a semi-shaped back. A dressy, original coat you'll be proud of in any company.

Ex-President Celebrates His Fifty-Third Birthday Today

"The Colonel" is 53 today, having been born October 27, 1858.

As a boy he was not strong, but lived in the rough country of the Maine backwoods to strengthen his constitution. He went at this task with the vim that has characterized him ever since, and later went through Harvard with a good record.

Since leaving the university, as member of the New York legislature, as a rancher and cattleman in North Dakota, as deputy police commissioner of Gotham, as assistant secretary of the navy, as lieutenant colonel and then commander of the Rough Riders, as vice president and president of the United States, Theodore Roosevelt has left a well defined impress on the history of his day.

There never was a man just like him in the public eye of America. He has met all classes of the people right where they live, has enjoyed the experience, and expressed his opinions out loud under all circumstances. Some of his "jobs"—his favorite word for all work—he has tackled with a keen relish from enthusiastic choice. He was practically forced into the biggest job of all, the presidency of the United States, but after landing he served notice that he liked the place.

By the radicals he is considered conservative; by the conservatives he is classed as a radical. The American people generally regard him as a prize possession without which they could not keep house properly, and they hope he will live to be a great-grandfather.

DOCTORS MUST GET LICENSES

War Started in Iowa Against Those Without Credentials.

COLLEGES UNDER SCRUTINY

Medical Schools of State Must Come Up to Certain Standard—Des Moines Objects to Colored Regiment.

(From a Staff Correspondent.)

DES MOINES, Oct. 27.—(Special Telegram.)—War against physicians in Iowa who are practicing without license was declared by the State Board of Health at the concluding session of the quarterly meeting of the board, held today. A number of physicians in the state are practicing in violation of the law. The health board is going after these men and force them to secure licenses or get out of the state.

The state board also appointed committees to inquire into the standing of colleges and medical schools and to revise the list of these accredited.

Object to Colored Soldiers.

Des Moines people are not pleased with a report that one of the two colored regiments of cavalry is to be sent to Fort Des Moines to take the place of the sixth cavalry, which has been ordered to remain in the south. It is known that a new regiment is to be sent here and rumor has it that it will be either the Ninth or Tenth. A colored regiment, or part of one, was left here for a long time, and while there was no serious trouble, it was objected to by the people.

Two Men Fatally Shot in Court Room

MASON CITY, Ia., Oct. 27.—(Special Telegram.)—Nine pistol shots were fired in Judge W. S. Rankin's court this afternoon and as a result Herbert Gable and Rex Kibbling are at point of death at Park hospital.

The two men were suspected of robbery. Kibbling accused Drexel of owning a revolver taken from them. Drexel, without warning, whipped out a revolver and shot at Kibbling. The bullet passed through his intestines and liver, lodging in his back. Gable opened fire on Chief Cook, Detective Smith and Patrolman Spaight, the bullets grazing the officers. Chief Cook and Detective Smith returned the shots, one ball passing through Gable's lung. Both men will die.

DEATH RECORD.

Mrs. Phoebe P. Goodman. TECUMSEH, Neb., Oct. 27.—(Special Telegram.)—Mrs. Phoebe P. Goodman, wife of Thomas Goodman, died at the family home in Tecumseh at 8 a. m. Wednesday, October 25. Her death was caused by hemorrhage of the brain. Mrs. Goodman was 61 years old.

Phoebe A. Philipp was born near Waukegan, Wis., January 1, 1844. The days of her girlhood were spent there and on November 23, 1865, she was married to Mr. Goodman at Waukegan. Mr. and Mrs. Goodman resided in Wisconsin until 1875, when they came to Johnson county and settled on the farm which for so long constituted the family home in Spring Creek township. Sixteen years ago they came to Tecumseh to reside. Six children were born to Mr. and Mrs. Goodman, and they are, in the order of their ages, George T. Goodman and Mrs. Esther A. Howarth of this county, Arthur J. and Worth E. Goodman of Columbus, S. D.; Joe B. Goodman of Butte, Mont., and Mrs. Pearl Wright of Tecumseh. Besides these children they reared a boy, Eugene Leub, who is now in business in Milwaukee, Wis., and a girl, Sophia C. Goodman, who is at home.

The funeral will be held at the Tecumseh Methodist Episcopal church Saturday afternoon at 3 o'clock and the interment will be in the Tecumseh cemetery.

completely surrounded, and few would have survived, so numerically superior were the Turks and Arabs. In the subsequent revolt in the city, the Italians suffered more than 100 casualties before they gained the ascendancy. From forty to fifty Arabs are shot daily in the town.

REV. P. T. ROWE ELECTED BISHOP OF SOUTH DAKOTA

NEW YORK, Oct. 27.—Rev. Peter Trimble Rowe, missionary bishop of Alaska, was today elected bishop of the Episcopal missionary district of South Dakota. Other missionary bishops chosen by the Episcopal house of bishops were: Rev. D. Trumbull Huntington, bishop at Wu Hu, China, and Rev. Henry St. George Tucker, president of St. Paul's college, Japan, bishop at Klotu, Japan. Bishop Rowe has been bishop of Alaska for many years and it is believed by some that he will not accept the new post. When he was elected bishop of Nevada four years ago he declined to accept, saying at that time: "I will never leave Alaska."

Bishop Tucker is a son of the bishop-elect of Virginia. The newly elected bishop of Wu Hu is well known in China's missionary fields.

Miss Cruse Elopes With Butte Miner

HELENA, Mont., Oct. 27.—At the risk, friends claim, of being disinherited by her multi-millionaire father, Thomas Cruse, Miss Marie Cruse, who a few months ago obtained a divorce from Alvar O'Brien, a New York society leader, upon the grounds of nonsupport, today eloped with Harry C. Cotter, a Butte miner, and was married at Boulder, a pleasure resort near Helena.

The bride's aged millionaire father confined himself to his room and refused admittance to reporters.

Shortly before his wife filed suit for divorce, O'Brien left for New York, but remained there but a few weeks, when he returned to Montana. Since his return he has been employed as a cowboy on a ranch in eastern Montana.

Although Mrs. Cotter was born here, she has spent little time in Helena, having resided principally in New York, where she is widely acquainted.

TWO MEN ARE SHOT IN COURT ROOM AT MASON CITY

MASON CITY, Ia., Oct. 27.—Rex Kibbling was fatally wounded and Thomas Gable seriously in the office of Justice Rankin today. Gable placed the revolver close to the body of Kibbling, then fired. He then turned to shoot the police. The chief shot twice, wounding Gable. Both men were charged with larceny and carrying weapons. Two bullets narrowly missed Judge Rankin's head.

St. Louis Insurance Men Indicted. ST. LOUIS, Oct. 27.—The federal grand jury today voted indictments against certain officers and former officers of the Continental Assurance company and the International Fire Insurance company. The names of the indicted men will not be made public until arrests are made. The specific charges contained in the indictment was the use of the mails for fraudulent purposes.
