TO MORE SIGNAL SUCCESS TO THE CREDIT OF BOYLES COLLEGE

Here's further proof that Boyles College DOES endow its graduales with an ability and an ambition and a never-fugging pervisioncy of purpose that enables it to win out BIG in the battle of life's prizes. This letter lends greater emphaals to the truth that you should gain your training for success as a Stenographer, Bookkeeper, Telegrapher, Salesman or U. S. Civil Bervice Applicant at Boyles College than anything we could say ourselves.

Mr. H. B. Boytes, Omaha, Neb.,

Dear Sir:

Enowing that you are always interested in the progress of your graduates after they have left college. I take plea sure in informing you of the "doings" of Mr. F. D. Moore and myself since leaving Boyles College.

Mr. Moore was appointed agent for the Union Pacific R. R. here about two months ago (less than nine months after he graduated from Boyles College) with a salary of $125.00 PER MONTH, and " take it from me," he is certainly making good. This is one of the "stiffest," most difficult agencies on this division and Moore won out against older heads by a trict application to his duty and courteous treatment to patrons.

I have been appointed to a position with the Inter-Mountain Demurrhage Bureau and the Western Weighing Associa tion, with a salary of $105.00 PER MONTH, although it is but little over fi ve months since I left Boyles College. Wishing you and Boyles College all kinds of success, I am.

Yours Very Truly, BEN BOLLIG.

Devil's Blide, Utah.
