SHONKA FOR ALL-WESTERN

Nebraska Leader Looks Like Choice for Position on Big Team.

MOST WONDERFUL OF PLAYERS

His Work Against Minnesota and Missouri Attracts Much Attention and His Michigan Showing to Be Watched.

Students at the state university are declaring that they have on their eleven a player who will make the All-Western football team this fall. Their contention seems well founded, too, for in Captain Shonka, the man they have selected, the Cornhuskers possess one of the greatest tackles ever on the Nebraska eleven. Last fall he was selected by one Chicago paper for the tackle position of the all-star team. This fall the Cornhusker leader is playing the best game of his career and seems certain of getting the coveted all-western position.

Captain Shonka is strong on both the defensive and the offensive. He plays at left tackle on the Nebraska eleven, and has not met his match this fall. In the Minnesota game his side of the line held strongly all the time. He is so powerful and so aggressive that few tackles can last long with him.

On the offensive he charges hard and gets through the opposing line, where he does terrific tackling and breaks up plays in their inception. In the contest with Missouri last Saturday the Cornhusker captain played an excellent game, and was through the defense of the Tigers all the time. He aided wonderfully in getting the man with the ball down the field. When Owen Frank made his most spectacular run, he was aided by the captain, who ran beside him and hurried off tacklers.

Very Valuable Player. When the Cornhuskers needed a few yards to make their downs, the Nebraska captain was called out of his position and sent charging against the line. The Missouri always gave way, too, and the Cornhuskers made their downs. The big captain runs high, and charges with his whole body. He is so strong and powerful that he simply pushes all out of his way.

Because he is so fast and aggressive, the Nebraska leader is a valuable man to the team when the ends are checked in going down field to cover punts. The Nebraska captain rushes through the line and gets down field, where he is able to do a large amount of tackling and prevent the return of the punts.

His work in the Michigan game should get attention from the critics of the entire country and may secure him a place on the All-American. He seems to be entitled to make the All-Western.

Will Investigate Ticket Scalping

CHICAGO, Oct. 31.—The National Base Ball commission will meet in Cincinnati November 14 to begin an investigation into alleged ticket scalping in connection with the world's series. This was announced today by B. B. Johnson, president of the American league, and member of the National commission.

President Johnson also announced that tomorrow he would answer a letter written him by President Brush of the New York club, urging Johnson to make use of information he had said he possessed about the irregular sale of tickets and asking him to induce the commission to make an investigation.

Mr. Johnson said that President Brush was the person who should make the investigation, and in his letter will ask that official to investigate separately from the commission and give what information he acquires to that organization.

Nebraska Central College Heard From

CENTRAL CITY, Neb., Oct. 31.—(Special.)—Nebraska Central college is coming once more to hold the high position in the athletic circles of the state that it occupied a few years ago when its faculty decided upon the discontinuance of the foot ball team, which was followed by a general loss of interest in all forms of athletics at the college. At that time the college possessed a foot ball team which ranked among the best in the state, its basket ball team was of championship caliber, and on the track it came within a few points of winning the intercollegiate championship, and some of its men set state records in the field events.

ALUMNI SENDING MONEY

Former Nebraska Students Back of Foot Ball Team.

CONTRIBUTIONS ARE COMING IN

Request Made that Contributions Be Sent in Before Thursday to Fund to Send Band to Ames.

"Boys, here is $6 for your fund. You are doing something that the alumni should have done long ago—showing the graduates thing of their alma mater. Your success in this will demonstrate that the Omaha and Nebraska alumni are awakening. If you need any more, just make the fact known through the papers and I will send in another sum."

This note accompanied the contribution from one of the Nebraska good fellows to Amos Thomas, secretary of the Nebraska alumni association yesterday. It was a donation to the fund for sending the Nebraska cadet band to Lincoln Saturday to help the Cornhuskers win their Missouri Valley championship game with the powerful Ames Aggies. The university athletic board at Lincoln is in debt, and the band must be sent, so the Omaha and Nebraska alumni are raising $500 to defray its expenses.

The efforts to raise the money were started yesterday and were marked by considerable success, more than $90 being collected. Late last night Mr. Thomas, who is located in suite 67, Omaha National Bank building, received two letters from alumni living out in the state. Both said they hoped the campaign would be a success.

Omaha and other Nebraska alumni are urged to send their contributions to Mr. Thomas before Thursday night, as the band must be notified so it can get ready for the trip. No sum is too small and none too large for the fund. Graduates of the university are urged to send money today. An accounting of all money collected will be made to the Omaha alumni association by Mr. Thomas.
