Mancuso Counters on Tom Flynn's Printed Story

Samuel Mancuso comes back at Tom Flynn's exception to the unanimous action of the Central Improvement club as follows:

"Tom Flynn does not give the people the facts. He deliberately lies when he says I asked him to give my father a job sweeping the streets. For the last six years, during which time Mr. Flynn has been the street commissioner, I have had nothing to do with him or his department. My father is in pretty fair circumstances, and although advanced in years is quite capable of taking care of himself, and if he were not I am abundantly able and willing to care for him. I will pay $500 toward Mr. Flynn's campaign expenses if he can satisfy any fair-minded man from any evidence in his possession that I ever asked him to give employment to my father.

"The facts are just as stated in the resolution of the Central Improvement club. I did not introduce the motion. It was made by a man from the floor. The motion was unanimously carried. Mr. Flynn's ears must have burned during the meeting, for if ever any man was severely criticized in public Mr. Flynn was; not by one alone, but by everybody who had property on Twenty-first street, and who had to contribute to the expense of removing the earth placed upon the street by Mr. Flynn.

How to Prepare Your Own Shampoo

"A bountiful growth of soft, lustrant hair can be every woman's legacy—hair whose shining, silky strands respond to the finger's gentle touch and fitly place as if by magic," writes Mrs. Miss Martyn in the New York Daily Record. No great effort is required and the right sort of treatment should be given it. Shampooing with hurtful preparations must be avoided—in fact, the only safe shampoo to use is plain cuticura, a teaspoonful of which dissolved in a cup of hot water is enough for a satisfactory shampoo.

TEACHERS ENROLL HEAVILY

Many Not Engaged in Work Will Attend Convention.

AUDITORIUM BEING DECORATED

Special Trains Will Be Run from Lincoln Wednesday and Thursday to Accommodate Teachers.

Omaha is supposed to have 200 teachers, but Miss Belle M. Ryan, assistant superintendent, has enrolled 538 for the Nebraska association convention which opens here Wednesday. All the teachers in the city, many of whom are not actually engaged now, will attend the general and many of the special sessions of the associations.

The Omaha schools will be inspected Wednesday by the visiting schoolmasters and schoolmistresses. The regular routine work will be done in all the grades. Thursday and Friday the schools will be dismissed and the teachers will spend the two days attending the convention.

A special train from Lincoln Tuesday will bring the superintendent of schools and 100 of his staff to the convention. Another special train will be run Thursday for the remainder of the Lincoln teachers.

Twelve workers began decorating the Auditorium Monday morning. They are confining their efforts to the decoration of the spaces near the floor. Two sailors, accustomed to hanging in the higher altitudes, are decorating the building near the roof.

The decorating committee discovered the bunting was not wide enough and so a corps of teachers were pressed into service as seamstresses and with needle and thread are sewing the strips of green together.

Booths Being Arranged.

Miss Anna V. Day is superintending the erection of the booths at the Auditorium. The work will be complete for the first session. There will be 700 running feet of booths. Frank Keogh, secretary of the publicity bureau of the Commercial club, is assisting Miss Day in the work of preparing the Auditorium for the advent of the teachers.

Schuyler has notified the local arrangements committee that the schools will be closed here and the full teaching force will spend Thursday in Omaha.

W. M. Davidson, formerly superintendent of Omaha schools, now superintendent at Washington, D. C., will arrive Tuesday and will spend the remainder of the week in the city.

Carol G. Pearce, superintendent of the schools of Milwaukee, a former Omaha man, now president of the National Educational association, will arrive Tuesday or Wednesday to attend the convention.

Beisel and Furay Vouch for Ure

I. L. Beisel, deputy county treasurer, and last July Mr. W. G. Ure's principal competitor for the republican nomination for county treasurer, said Monday morning:

"I have been deputy county and city treasurer for the last eight years and am familiar with all the affairs of the treasurer's office. I know who the tax buyers are and I want to say that Mr. W. G. Ure is not now a tax buyer and has not been during my connection with the office.

"Under and by virtue of the provisions of the scavenger law, Mr. Ure redeemed some of his own lots and some lots for clients from total loss occasioned by the excessive taxes of the nineties. It was done in his own name. It was done under the same and wise provision of the scavenger law—a law whose operation cashed in probably $1,500,000 of otherwise uncollectable taxes.

"I know Mr. Ure very well. I am for him and my friends are for him. The man does not live in Douglas county who could make a better county treasurer."

Frank A. Furay, our present efficient county and city treasurer, asked if W. G. Ure was a tax buyer, said: "During my term I think not a single tax sale or scavenger sale has been purchased by W. G. Ure."

"DR." VENO SEEKS VICTIMS NOW IN COUNCIL BLUFFS

Refused advertising space in all of the Omaha papers, the "miraculous doctor" D. N. Veno is still getting some business by advertising in the Council Bluffs Non-Parade, though his patients are few in number compared to two weeks ago, before The Bee exposed his false testimonials and told the public that he had been here before under other names.

The World-Herald took the hint and eliminated "Doctor" Veno from its advertising columns when The Bee exposed his methods, and now the "doctor" can't buy newspaper advertising space in Omaha.

In his Council Bluffs ad, "Doctor" Veno says he sends millions of volts of "electric" current through the most delicate infant or the strongest man, saturating the body so completely that a gas jet can be lighted from the tongue. The "doctor" is operating contrary to law.

CODY'S INDIANS REACH THE RESERVATION MONDAY

Colonel Cody's Indians passed through Missouri Valley Sunday, on their way to their homes on the Rosebud and Pine Ridge reservations, having finished the show season. There were about 100 in the party. At Missouri Valley the Indians were met by Colonel Bill McCune of the Buffalo Bill company and Izaak Babble of the Northwestern. At Rushville, Monday, the Indians were paid off and with the money laid in a supply of clothing and provisions for themselves and families. When the train reached Rushville, there were nearly 1,000 Indians present from the reservation, they being there at the home-coming of their people.

Why We Can Undersell....

Every business man in Omaha knows that the quantity in which he buys goods governs the price—largest quantities securing lowest prices. He knows that if he could buy in larger quantities he could buy lower—therefore sell lower. This in turn would attract more trade—enabling him to buy and sell still lower. It's the universal law of business. "Operating" enables the big buyer to underbuy and undersell. Most every man knows that we buy clothing in quantities, far larger than any other Omaha store. It is, therefore, evident that we both underbuy and undersell. The big leading makers are eager to secure our large orders—so eager that they crowd extra values into every garment made for us—they can afford to give us better value even at lower prices—because they are selling in larger quantities—and we can afford to give you better values for lower prices because we both buy and sell in largest quantities.

Just now we're offering an extraordinary value in

Pioneer Nebraskan Dies at Long Pine

William C. Bishop, 50 years old, formerly in the drug business in Omaha and well known in the state, died Sunday at his home in Long Pine, Neb., where he had been conducting a hotel during the last five years. The body will be brought here for burial in Forest Lawn cemetery and services will be conducted Wednesday. He died of erysipelas and a complication of ailments and had been seriously ill for about a week.

Mr. Bishop was a native of Green Lake, Wis., and came west thirty-nine years ago, settling in York county, where he engaged in farming. In 1890 he came to Omaha and engaged in the drug business with his brother, Dr. J. C. Bishop, first at Thirteenth and Center and later at Sixteenth and Locust. After nine years he went to Boulder, Colo., where he continued in the drug business. From Colorado he went to Long Pine five years ago and engaged in the hotel business.

He is survived by his wife and two children, and the following sisters and brothers: Mrs. J. C. Pantor of Chicago, Mrs. Ellen Schelsoda of Boulder, Mrs. George W. Sprague of Omaha, John Bishop of Council Bluffs and Dr. Bishop of Omaha.

THE BUSINESS MAN

Doesn't decide his own legal questions—
Doesn't try to cure his own fevers—
Doesn't pull his own teeth—
Doesn't build his own house.

And yet—though his knowledge of technical advertising be as limited as his information regarding Blackstone, therapeutics, molar or architecture—he often subjects his business to the dangers that always attend an operation when attempted by one not skilled.

No, Dear Sir, we do not claim to know more about your business than you know, but we do claim to know something about the most effective methods of presenting your business to the public.

In this work we have specialized, and our general agency equipment is back of a Local Service for Omaha advertisers in the developing and consummation of plans made to fit the case in hand.

We'll be glad to talk with you about your publicity problems, including newspaper advertising, booklets, catalogues, circulars, letters, or any other part of your selling campaign.

Write us a line, or telephone, and we'll meet you at the time and place you choose.

SAGE TEA DARKENS THE HAIR AND RESTORES COLOR TO GRAY HAIR

Cures Dandruff, Stops the Hair from Falling Out and Makes It Grow.

There is nothing new about the idea of using sage for restoring the color of the hair. Our great-grandmothers kept their locks soft, dark and glossy by using a "sage tea." Whenever their hair fell out or took on a dull, faded or streaked appearance they made a brew of sage leaves and applied it to their hair, with wonderfully beneficial effect.

Nowadays we don't have to resort to old-time, tiresome methods of gathering the herbs and making the tea. This is done by skillful chemists better than we could do it ourselves, and all we have to do is to call for the ready-made product, Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Hair Remedy, containing sage in the proper strength, with the addition of sulphur, another old-time scalp remedy.

The manufacturers of this remedy authorize druggists to sell it under guarantee that the money will be refunded if it fails to do exactly as represented. Don't neglect your hair. Get a bottle of Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur today, and notice the difference after a few days' use.

This preparation is offered to the public at fifty cents a bottle, and is recommended and sold by all druggists.
