

MADERO IS INAUGURATED

Little General Takes Oath as President of Mexico.

DE LA BARRA OFF FOR EUROPE

Former Provisional President Has a Diplomatic Mission—Instructs Act as Escort for Their Chief.

MEXICO CITY, Nov. 7.—Officially the period of revolution in Mexico was closed yesterday when P. L. Madero took the oath as president and placed across his breast the tri-color insignia of the chief executive.

This afternoon the oath was administered to the eight members of his cabinet. At the same time Francisco Leon de la Barra, who has governed the country as provisional president since the day General Diaz left the capital for Europe, boarded a special for Vera Cruz, whence he too will sail for Europe, but on a diplomatic mission.

A number of diplomats, including the American ambassador, were at the station.

Tonight public buildings in front of the national palace were brilliantly illuminated, as was also San Francisco street, over which had been erected a series of arches bearing electric lights. The new president took no part in the public manifestations, but for many hours huge crowds of his admirers marched through the city bearing banners and shouting vivas, drowning the music of the many bands that joined in the demonstrations.

Escorted by Former Rebels.

Although a holiday, there was no serious disorder. The only feature of the program which served as a reminder that the inauguration of Madero was the culmination of a revolution was the manner of his arrival at the chamber of deputies, where he took the oath of office. From his home to the chamber he was escorted by a detachment of former revolutionists. In command was General Ambrosio Figueroa, now commander of rurales in Mexico.

General Pascual Orozco, who was largely responsible for Madero's success in Chihuahua and at Juarez, also rode in this detachment. Madero himself received but little more applause than did Orozco. Though identical in form and wording, the inauguration of Madero was markedly different from that which the public was accustomed to when General Diaz was so many times sworn into office.

Within the chamber Madero emphatically emphasized his appreciation of the plaudits by waving his hand in contrast to the dignified and somewhat cold manner usually adopted by Diaz.

De la Barra's departure was the occasion for a manifestation as enthusiastic if not so great as that extended Madero at any time during the day. His passage to the station could be traced by the flower-strewn streets and the passage-way about the train in the sheds was carpeted with flowers, many bouquets of which had been brought to the capital this morning from Cordoba.

Expects to Restore Peace.

President Madero professes to have the utmost confidence in his ability to restore peace within a short time. He does not believe that the counter revolution which his secret service agents claim has been organized by Emiliano Vasquez Gomez and others can even be inaugurated.

He begins his administration with dozens of prisoners in the jails and if the efforts of the police are rewarded there will be many more within the next few days. The investigation of the plot continued today, but without important development.

The chief problems with which President Madero will have to deal immediately are the Zapata movement, the uprising in the Isthmus of Tehuantepec, where the rebels yesterday were reported to be in possession of four machine guns taken from the federal garrison at Juchitán, and the turbulent conditions in the state of Simlaon.

The Zapata movement, he believes, will cease of itself, now that he is president. The Simlaon troubles, he believes, will disappear without drastic measures and the insurrection on the isthmus he considers simple to suppress. Specialia from Cuatula tonight state that Zapata today signified his intention to surrender at once.

Thirty Killed by Federals.

CUATULA, Mexico, Nov. 6.—Thirty Zapatistas were killed today in an encounter with federals who had been sent to dislodge the rebels from the Hacienda Colon. The federal loss is not reported.

Yesterday the Zapatistas raided the interoceanic railway station on the hacienda, where he took the oath of office. From his home to the chamber he was escorted by a detachment of former revolutionists.

Reports reaching here from Ayala are that Emiliano Zapata proposes to come here tomorrow to surrender.

Ryan Gives Up Claim on Controller Bay

WASHINGTON, Nov. 7.—Richard S. Ryan, alleged author of the famous "Dick-to-Dick" letter, which started the Controller Bay investigation during the extra session of congress last summer, today relinquished all claim to the fifty-six-acre tract on Controller Bay, Alaska, known as the Canyon Creek lane terminal tract. Mr. Ryan is president of the Controller Railway and Navigation company. The claim, which he relinquished today lies between the claims of J. J. Ryan and A. L. Scheuer, which it is conceded, were taken in the interest of the railway and navigation company of which Mr. Ryan is head.

The law requires that between all claims adjoining the waterfront eighty rods shall be reserved for entry. Mr. Ryan's claim occupied practically all of the eighty rods between the soldiers' additional homestead claims of J. J. Ryan and Scheuer. He contended that law did not apply in his case because his application was only for right of way over the tract, not for absolute possession.

Secretary Fisher intimated very strongly in a recent address that the government would not take Mr. Ryan's interpretation of the law.

DISCUSS COMPENSATION PLAN

Garretton Objects to Compulsory Feature in Behalf of Workmen.

LIBERAL PAYMENTS ADVOCATED

Lee Says Most Employees Want Choice of Action at Law, but that High Compensation Would Obviate Difficulty.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 7.—The employers liability and workmen's compensation commission bill was sharply criticized by A. H. Garretton, president of the Order of Railway Conductors at today's meeting of the commission. Mr. Garretton took special exception to the compulsory feature of the bill, saying that with a small maximum payment for injury and a comparatively brief time of payment, the employ would desire the privilege of a choice.

"If," he said, "the common law remedy is removed the average man will invent it with a value that it never possessed."

Mr. Garretton contended for an extension of the years during which compensation shall be paid for injury, saying that if the time were reasonably extended a smaller percentage would be acceptable.

"Won't you state in the public interest what you think would be an equitable percentage?" asked Mr. Moon, of the commission.

The witness declined.

"On most occasions when I've made a holy show of myself," he said, "it has been on an appeal in the interest of the public welfare."

Lee Endorses Plan.

W. G. Lee, president of the Brotherhood of Railway Trainmen, endorsed the commission's plan but admitted that most of his associates were opposed to the compulsory system. Like Mr. Garretton, he wanted a high compensation, and in that event would have no objection to the compulsory plan. He would have payments for damages made on the daily wage basis rather than on the average earnings basis.

Speaking for the Edison Electric Light company of New York, Arthur Williams said his company follows a plan of compensation similar to that recommended by the commission as a national measure and found it to be most satisfactory.

"It insures better conduct and greater allegiance," he said. The company pays full compensation for loss of time on account of injury. He told of one provision of payment for forty-four years to the widow of a young man, provided she did not remarry.

"It's a long time to ask her to remain a widow," commented Senator Sutherland, outside the record.

Timothy Healy, president of the International Brotherhood of Stationary Firemen, expressed the hope that the work of the commission would take in other industries other than the railroads.

MacVeagh Will Urge Currency Legislation

WASHINGTON, Nov. 7.—A vigorous appeal for immediate banking and currency reform legislation will be made to congress at its approaching session by Secretary of the Treasury MacVeagh.

He expressed the confident belief today that a financial law will be enacted, for, he declared, "it will hurt any party to get in the way of having something done, whether it be the regular or the insurgent republicans or the democrats."

Mr. MacVeagh endorsed the revised Aldrich plan of reform, and with some modifications will recommend it to congress as a means of meeting the urgent needs of the situation. He said he believed sentiment in favor of the National Reserve association idea, the dominant feature of the Aldrich plan, was growing throughout the country.

Mr. MacVeagh declared he did not approve of national banks, through the medium of "securities companies," holding stocks of other banks. This is the principle involved in the relationship of the National City bank of New York to the National company and in the relationship of banks and trust companies in about 200 cases throughout the country.

Grumann Talks on German Mythology

Prof. Paul A. Grumann of the University of Nebraska told a large audience of society women, school teachers and students at the Young Women's Christian association Monday afternoon, the folk tales of Thor, the most popular of the German gods—the god of life, who typified the tenacious, sturdy, uncultured virtues of the agricultural classes. Prof. Grumann told interesting stories of the way in which the dull Thor was forced to rely on the god Loki—god of fire and mischief—in many of his undertakings, and of his contests with the giants.

The first half of the lecture was given to German mythology; the last half to an interpretation of Wagner's "Tannhauser."

During a recess in the program and at the close of the entertainment the visitors were escorted through the new hall and shown all the new equipment and furnishings. It is the intention of the regiment to give a smoker once a month during the winter.

A CRIMINAL

The most dangerous man or firm in any community is one that advertises to cure or even relieve, any chronic disease in five minutes. Such relief can only come from the use of strong drugs, narcotics that numb or paralyze the afflicted parts, and leave the patient in a ten fold worse condition for having used the dangerous and harmful "remedy." In such ailments as dyspepsia, constipation, indigestion and kindred diseases certain digestive agents are lacking or weakened and the thing to do is to reinforce them; Spruce-Pepsin Tablets contain all of nature's own digestive agents—it is strange that the result is always a sound, healthy stomach. Doctors advertising to perform miracles should be shunned as you would a pestilence, as they will only hypnotize you and relieve you of your money, and then leave you in a nervous, wrecked state physically and mentally. As 99 per cent of human ailments originate in the stomach it is important that this useful member be given at least an equal chance with old nature to do its best and not be handicapped by powerful, harmful drugs (verified by the fact that in five minutes). The wonderful back to Nature remedy, Spruce-Pepsin Tablets, while the greatest and most beneficial preparation ever offered the public, will not cure you in five minutes, but will relieve you by digesting the food in the stomach, giving it absolute rest instead of overwork and thus soon regain its power, this is the result every time. They will in time put you in the best possible condition, no matter how long you have been troubled with stomach ailments. They do not physic and disturb the entire system, but gently and positively correct the seat of trouble. This has been proven thousands of times, as the thousands of testimonials we have testify. Spruce-Pepsin Tablets, as soon as taken into the system commences a thorough "house-cleaning" by first digesting the food in the stomach, preparing it for the next meal, and so on until the whole system is corrected, and rich, new blood flows through all the veins, adding life and vigor to the patient, and bringing that greatest boon to mankind, health. Spruce-Pepsin Tablets are not a poisonous drug concoction, but the natural remedy for all stomach ailments, and that all may try its wonderful virtue, a free sample will be sent to anyone who will send name and address to the Spruce Tablet Co., Heron Lake, Minn. Knowing that Spruce-Pepsin Tablets will do all that we claim for them we want everyone suffering from stomach trouble to try them on our expense. Would we do this if we did not know the value of Spruce-Pepsin Tablets. No, we would do as many other firms do, refuse to send samples, but advertise to give relief in five minutes, or like some doctors, advertise to perform miracles. For stomach trouble there is no remedy on earth that half equals Spruce-Pepsin Tablets, and we want to prove this to the thousands of people who read this paper; shall we send you a free box? Call on your local druggist for regular sized boxes.
