PHANKFORD, Ky., Nov. 8.—Henry Watterson, editor of the Louisville Courier-Journal, delivered an address here today on Abraham Lincoln on the occasion of the unveiling of the Lincoln Memorial.

Tomorrow there will assemble in a little clearing of the wildwood of Kentucky a goodly company. It will embrace the greatest and the best of our time and land.

"No falseness, no story ever gained currency than that which impeaches the character of the mother of Abraham Lincoln. It had never any foundation whatsoever.

It was a period of heroic achievement tempered by religious fervor. It was a pious, God-fearing neighborhood of simple hard-working men and women.

Reform Slate in Elected in Philadelphia

PHILADELPHIA, Nov. 8.—In one of the most bitter fought elections in the history of Philadelphia, Rudolph Blankenburg, independent republican and popularly known as the "war horse of reform," yesterday defeated George H. Earle, Jr., the republican organization candidate for mayor, by the small plurality of 4,261.

The fight made by Blankenburg was remarkable. Facing a normal republican majority of between 75,000 to 100,000 and a candidate backed by United States Senator Penrose and state Senator James P. McNichol, the organization leader of this city, this advocate of civic righteousness battled his way to victory against odds which would have deterred a less determined candidate.

The significance of the Blankenburg landslide can be appreciated when the total vote of 23,241 is taken into consideration.

While Blankenburg was successful for mayor, the other regular republican candidates won, with the possible exception of the office of clerk of the quarter sessions court.

Rudolph Blankenburg, 121,382; George H. Earle, republican, 130,122; Charles Sehl, socialist, 3,294; James J. Patton, prohibitionist, 232.

All the republican candidates for county judges against whom there was little or no opposition were elected.

According to the complete, but unofficial figures, Eugene J. McAleer, democrat, was elected clerk of the quarter sessions court by 1,563 plurality.

Socialists Carry Ten Ohio Cities

CLEVELAND, O., Nov. 8.—Unofficial returns today show that the socialists have elected mayors in two large Ohio cities, Canton and Lima, and that they have won the majority in eight smaller cities.

The socialist vote has increased heavily all over the state. Dayton and Conneaut have elected three socialist councilmen. Conneaut missed electing a socialist mayor by only five votes.

The contest at Canton was so close that Harry Schilling, socialist, is believed to have beaten Arthur Turnbull, democrat, by only three votes.

Democrats elected mayors at Cleveland, Cincinnati, Columbus, Hamilton and Zanesville. Brand Whitlock, independent democrat, was victorious at Toledo.

Mr. Taggart's election breaks the solid ranks of a republican congressional delegation from Kansas. In six of the eight districts of the state there are republican representatives.

REMOVE OFFICE FROM POLITICS

At Teachers' Meeting Sentiment Favors Appointment of State Superintendent.

PRELIMINARY STEPS TAKEN Instructors of Nebraska Come to Meeting in Large Numbers.

CADETS JOIN IN RECEPTION Incoming Trains During Day Bring Representative Delegation.

DOWN TO WORK PROMPTLY Sessions Are Now Under Way, with a Fair Sprinkling of Social Events, and Thousands More Teachers Are Expected Today.

Steps looking toward the removal of the office of state superintendent of schools from politics were taken yesterday by the superintendents and principals who are here to attend the Nebraska Teachers' association convention.

The matter came up following a paper read by Superintendent A. L. Caviness of Fairbury, who advocated that the Nebraska superintendent be appointed by a committee of three—the president of the Board of Regents, president of the State Normal board and the governor of the state.

Three thousand school teachers, from every part of Nebraska and from neighboring states, and even down to the western, eastern, northern and southern states, gathered in Omaha Wednesday for the annual convention, which continues for three days.

The attendance on the first day exceeded the expectations of the arrangements committee as well as every teacher in the city. For a time hotels and lodging houses were swamped, but one hundred high school cadets commanded by three women principals of Omaha schools, stationed at all the depots, and information bureaus at the Young Men's and Young Women's Christian Association buildings, handled the situation well.

At the depot the Lincoln teachers divided up into parties of a dozen or fifteen and in street cars were whirled away to that many of the city schools, they having expressed a desire to be present and observe just how the Omaha teachers start the school day.

The Northwesters Nebraska trains brought in nearly 100 teachers from all points north of here and half as many more from as far west as Scribner, having gathered them en route.

The Missouri Pacific and the Union Pacific early trains had a goodly number of the educators on board, and like those who came over the Burlington, they were met by reception committees and guides, and escorted to headquarters.

More than 1,000 other teachers will arrive before the convention closes. Special trains and extra coaches from cities in western parts of the state augmented the transient population of Omaha on Wednesday 30 at a time.

Prominent Educators Here. The most prominent educators in the state and some of the leading figures in the educational field of the United States are attending. Superintendents, principals, grade, primary and kindergarten teachers are meeting to plan and to propose new methods in their work.

Among those who took part in the preliminaries Wednesday morning and in the attempt to organize and "set down to work" were W. M. Davidson, E. U. Graf, Charles E. Bency, J. L. McMillan, J. W. Crabtree, E. M. Hunter, A. O. Thomas, Carl Herrick, A. W. Waterhouse, George E. Martin, Miss Dorothea Kolls of the efficient corps of officers.

All visitors were pleased with the reception accorded them and the effort made to see that all secured lodgings. Five hundred Omaha teachers wearing badges were on duty at headquarters and section meeting places to direct and dispense information for the benefit of the visitors. Large numbers of teachers went direct from their trains to inspect the Omaha city schools, which were kept open for the purpose, and approval of the city's system of education in the grades and high school was expressed by all.

Physical Education. The method will resolve itself into a discussion of the principal problems confronting the educators today. Agreeing that physical education is one of the most important things relating to the growth and development of youth this phase of school life will be given special attention.

The physical side of school life will be the theme at all of the general sessions. Secondary problems also will be discussed, but the great interest centers in physical education and the convention, according to the leaders of the several divisions, is likely to ask for the adoption of some radical change in the methods of city and country schools regarding the physical development of boys and girls.

STEPHENS PROBABLY WINS

Great Cut Made in Majority of Latta One Year Ago.

DEMOCRATS SUSTAIN BIG LOSS In the Precincts So Far Reported Decrease in Democratic Vote Averages Fourteen to the Precinct.

Table showing election results for Stephens and Latta across various precincts. Columns include precinct names and vote counts for both candidates.

With a little more than one-third of the precincts heard from the result of the congressional election in the Third Nebraska district is in doubt, with the probability in favor of the election of Dan V. Stephens, democrat, by a plurality greatly reduced from that given to the late James P. Latta two years ago.

Complete returns from six counties containing 122 of the 222 precincts of the county, Stephens has a lead of 1,694 votes. Latta carried these counties by 2,588 votes. The gain made by Mr. Elliott will not prove sufficient to overcome the big majority of Mr. Latta last year. The vote follows:

Boone, 1,190; Stephens, 1,434; Latta, 1,250; 1,000; Knox, 1,385; Stephens, 1,708; Latta, 1,219; Dodge, 1,162; Stephens, 2,319; Latta, 2,711; Madison, 1,523; Stephens, 1,984; Latta, 1,362; Wayne, 1,100; Stephens, 851; Latta, 1,008.

Total 122 precincts: Stephens, 7,239; Latta, 7,239; 10,116.

Court Approves Plan for Tobacco Reorganization

NEW YORK, Nov. 8.—The United States circuit court handed down a decision here today approving the plan of dissolution of the American Tobacco company with modifications.

The court in its decision says provision should be made in carrying out the plan for keeping intact the books and records of the American Tobacco company and its present constituents and branches so that they shall be available and subject to legislation to the same extent as at present, in suits for accounting and other existing litigation.

Girl Says Sister Told Her to Put Poison in Father's Coffee

NORTHWOOD, Ia., Nov. 8.—Mrs. Eta Larsen was placed on trial in the district court here today charged with having attempted to poison her father, Douglas Rhedenbaugh, a wealthy farmer. The jury was quickly drawn and the state began introducing its evidence.

She testified that Mrs. Larsen gave her a glass of coffee and told her to mix the poison in tea, coffee and other food prepared for her father. The dates of these attempts at poisoning ranged from a year ago to within the last four months. The state has indicated that it will endeavor to prove that Mrs. Larsen sought to poison her father to obtain possession of his property.

Governor Harmon Sees Signs of Victory

COLUMBUS, O., Nov. 8.—Based on his opinion on the results in Massachusetts, Kentucky and Ohio and other points where democratic candidates were elected yesterday, Governor Judson Harmon today predicted a national democratic landslide next year.

"The result of those elections has pleased me very much," he said, "and I consider them a forecast of what is to come next year. It is the strongest endorsement of democracy that has been tendered by voters in recent years."

When asked regarding the Cincinnati results, Mr. Harmon said: "Personally nothing could have pleased me better. I have fought for twenty-five years to free Cincinnati from the sway of republicanism and am delighted to find that the voters have awakened."

"Signs of victory for the democratic party are evident everywhere. Next year I predict that this party will win the national office, including the presidency."

Rate on Potatoes to Omaha Reduced

BRAINERD, Minn., Nov. 8.—The Northern Pacific Railway company has announced a reduction in rates on potatoes from here and other points in the Crow Wing country to the Missouri river, to take effect December 1. The rate to Kansas City territory is reduced to 2 1/2 cents per 100 pounds and to Omaha territory to 31 cents per hundred, a reduction of about 2 cents per hundred in both cases.

H. A. FOSTER GETS LOW VOTE

THREE REPUBLICANS ELECTED New Democratic Members Polls Two Thousand More Votes Than the Man Who Got on Ticket by Accident.

John J. Foster, James J. Richardson, Edward J. Stretts, republicans, and C. T. Walker, democrat, were elected members of the board of education. Walker, long man of the four, got about 5,000 votes more than Dr. Harry A. Foster, the man who by accident got a republican nomination at the primaries.

The vote for the various candidates: John J. Foster, 7,187; James Richardson, 7,407; Edward J. Stretts, 6,998; C. T. Walker, 6,271; Mark M. Farmer, 5,927; Dr. P. A. Redback, 5,201; Harry A. Foster, 4,890; Mrs. C. C. Vaughn, 2,182; J. P. Donahay, 1,627; E. D. Snyder, 1,573.

Kenyon Says Should Enforce Sherman Law

CHICAGO, Nov. 8.—Senator W. S. Kenyon of Iowa, speaking before the Hawkeye Fellowship club here last night, declared that the Sherman anti-trust law should be enforced before it is obliterated or amended.

"If we have a law on our statute books," he declared, "whose enforcement will lead to a panic, there is something the matter with the law or else something the matter with business. The president is not going to stop enforcing the laws just because some one cried 'panic.' I believe President Taft will stand in history as the man who stood for the enforcement of law against the poor man and the rich man alike."

"I read today a story to the effect that the day of competition was gone and that the day of combinations is here. That is a question the American people have got to deal with."

"At the last session of congress I introduced a bill wiping out the provision in the law for a penalty by fine. I will introduce the bill again and keep pushing on the proposition until we have a fair chance to find out whether the law is an economic one."

Judge Must Pay for Tweaking Nose of Another Judge

KANSAS CITY, Mo., Nov. 8.—Judge W. O. Thomas in the circuit court here today instructed the jury to bring in a verdict for the plaintiff in the case of former County Judge George J. Dodd against the county because of an alleged tweaking of the Dodd nose at the hand of Moss.

The nose pulling incident was said to have taken place in open county court three years ago. Judge Moss, a strapping six-footer, admitted growing vexed with Judge Dodd, a small man, to the point of calling him a "little shrimp," but denied tweaking his nose.

Arguments in the case began this afternoon. It was expected to go to the jury late today.

REPUBLICANS CARRY STATE

Partial Returns from Nebraska Counties Indicate Safe Lead for Judges and Regents.

JUDICIARY CANDIDATES ALL WIN Voters Endorse Republicans for the State Supreme Court.

REGENTS ARE GIVEN FINE LEAD Haller and Lyford Go in with Unquestioned Lead.

DOUGLAS COUNTY IS REDEEMED Overwhelming Democratic Vote of 1910 is Reversed and Handsome Lead is Given the Whole Republican Ticket.

A clean sweep of the state by the republican ticket is indicated by the returns in the election of supreme judges and regents of the university. The vote on railway commissioner is close and Hall, republican, in nineteen counties is running behind Harman.

Not only has Douglas county made a wonderful reversal and turned back the democratic majorities of 1909 and 1910, but the remainder of the state has followed suit.

Four hundred and nine precincts of the 1,660 in the state, including the complete city vote of Omaha and representative counties from various parts of Nebraska, show Harman the lowest man on the republican ticket for judge, with a plurality of 1,146 over his closest democratic contestant, Dean, while in the 879 precincts in 1909 Judge Sullivan, the high man on the democratic ticket, was 201 behind Judge Fawcett, who was then low on the republican ticket, but who won by a plurality of 1,573.

Douglas county comes in with a majority of 2,500 for the republicans, overcoming the 14,000 majority of the democrats in 1910, and making a considerable gain over the republican vote in the county in 1909. Such a complete reversal in Douglas has not been accomplished in years.

For regents Haller and Lyford, republicans, will be elected.
