GRAIN AND PRODUCE MARKET

Covering by Shorts on Previous Day Causes Wheat to Sag.

BEARISHNESS HAS DISAPPEARED

Time is at Hand When Storms Prevail and Marketing from First Hands Will Be Noticeably Reduced.

OMAHA, Nov. 11, 1911.

Week has disappeared, however, and a sagged this morning that yesterday's strength was due entirely to shorts covering. The extreme bearishness of last the winter and early spring months.

better trading market can be expected.

The season of the year is at hand when storms and adverse weather conditions will reduce marketing from first hands and a stronger market is likely during the winter and earl yspring months.

The sentiment in the corn trade is decidedly mixed, as those who are bullish for a long time, are willing to concede that the early movement of new corn will cause further declines in the cash value. The demand for old corn has dropped off and there is an uneasiness in the general cash trade.

Wheat was lower on weak and lower cables and the dull cash trade; cas. wheat was 1c lower.

Corn held fairly firm and new corn samples brought better prices; cash demand was active and gave strength to the futures. Cash corn was ½c higher.

Primary wheat receipts were 1,185,000 bu. and shipments were 304,000 bu., against receipts last year of 748,000 bu. and shipments of 732,000 bu.

Primary corn receipts were 486,000 bu. and shipments were 219,000 bu. against receipts last year of 345,000 bu. and shipments of 279,000 bu.

Clearances were 53,000 bu. of corn, 3,000 bu. of oats and wheat and flour equal to 927,000 bu.

Liverpool closed ⅝@⅞d lower on wheat and ⅝@¾d lower on corn.

The following cash sales were reported: Wheat: No. 2 hard, 2 cars, 96½c, 1 car, 96c; No. 3 hard, 1 car, 95½c; 1 car, 95¼c, 1 car, 96c, 2 cars, 95½c; No. 4 hard, 1 car, 94c; no grade, 1 car, 87c. CHICAGO GRAIN AND PROVISIONS

Features of the Trading and Closing Prices on Board of Trade.

CHICAGO, Nov. 10.—Export clearances today almost equal to 1,000,000 bushels rallied the wheat market after prices had suffered a break of 1½@1¾c. The close was strong and compared with last night varied from ¼c off to ¼c advance. Corn finished unchanged to a shade lower, oats up ⅛c to ⅛@¼c, and provisions dearer by 10@30c.

In connection with the generous showing of wheat exports today, attention was given to the fact that the total clearances from the United States and Canada since July 1 aggregate 20,000,000 bushels more than for the corresponding time a year ago. The bulls also were encouraged by liberal flour sales at Minneapolis. A blizzard which sent the mercury to 22 below zero at some points northwest counted likewise against the bears.

Earlier in the session the news was all the other way. Primary receipts were on a huge scale, notably so at Minneapolis and Duluth, and there was much talk of congestion at Buffalo. Between the opening and the close December fluctuated from 93¾@94¼c, with last sales at 94¼c, just ¼c under last night.

After trading hours a report was current that a broker representing millers had unsuccessfully bid 1½c under May price for 2,000,000 bushels of No. 2 red wheat in store here. The house carrying the grain is not identified with the bull leaders, who a few days ago because of a difference of a fraction of a cent refused a bid from the same broker for 5,000,000 bushels in one lot.

Corn, which at first was depressed, rebounded with wheat. December ranged from 62¾@63¾c to 63½c, closing precisely the same as last night, at 63¼c. Cash grades were steady for old and lower for new. No. 2 yellow was quoted at 73@73½c.

Oats showed the best activity and strength in a long time. High and low figures for December proved to be 47¼c and 46¾@46¾c, with the close ½@⅝c up, at 47¼c.

In the provision pit sellers became scarce late in the day and there was a general bidding up of values in consequence. When the gong cleared the pit pork had risen 22@30c and other products 10c to 10@12½c.

NEW YORK STOCK MARKET

Fluctuations of Prices Uncertain and Feverish.

BUYING EXPANDS RAPIDLY

Railroad Stocks, Especially Those of Western Group, Leaders of Market During Day—Copper Shares Are Strong.

NEW YORK, Nov. 10.—Fluctuations of stocks were uncertain and at times feverish today, but the market again exhibited strength. At the opening the railroad socks showed substantial gains. The market soon fell back and some issues, including Canadian Pacific, Erie, Missouri Pacific and Wabash preferred, lost 1 to 3 points.

Late in the day buying expanded rapidly and prices shot upward. The railroad stocks, especially those of the western group, were the leaders of the market. Trading was stimulated by the action of the new commerce court in staying the decree of the Interstate Commerce commission for reduction of intermountain freight rates.

In the flurry of the last hour the most conspicuous part was taken by Reading and Lehigh Valley, which were bought so eagerly that various reports of extra dividends were circulated. Lehigh Valley rose to 175¾, an advance of 5¾ points, and Reading gained 4¾.

The advance of Reading was attributed in part to a gain of 37 points in Central Railroad of New Jersey in which it has a large interest.

The industrials took little part in the early advance, but later in the day developed strength. The copper shares are especially strong with an advance of 2⅝ in Amalgamated Copper.

Bonds were irregular. Total sales, par value, $4,076,000. United States bonds were unchanged on call.
