

For the WOMEN FOLK

Debutante List Grows

Miss Frances Todd will take her place among the season's debutantes at the afternoon reception which will be given for her Wednesday, November 22, by Mrs. W. B. Millard at the Millard home. Miss Todd has made her home for the last few years with Omaha friends. She is not only accomplished in society graces but has displayed distinct talent in dramatics as a member of the Players' club and ability in the more prosaic activity as teacher at the Clifton Hill school.

Unusual Gifts

A number of Omaha brides have received handsome homes, motor cars and jewels for wedding gifts. Miss Louise Lord and Dr. Roger Torsen Vaughan, whose wedding last evening was one of the large social affairs of the autumn, received several unusual gifts.

Prominent among these was a letter of credit from Dr. Vaughan's parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Charles Vaughan of Chicago for 40 pounds sterling, which they will use on their wedding trip in Europe.

The groom's father also presented the bride with a beautiful diamond lavalliere set in platinum and an order for furniture from a well known shop in Chicago.

The bride's father also gave them an unusual gift—10 acres of Canada wheat land. Besides this the bride's parents gave them flat silver, an oriental rug and a check.

Dr. and Mrs. Vaughan left last evening for Chicago, where they will reside at the South Shore Country club until December 1, when they sail for a six months' trip abroad.

Omaha's Exclusive Store Makes Unusual Announcement

First Great Clearance Sale of the Season Will Start Next Saturday.

Orkin Bros' exclusive new Sixteenth street store announces an event of unusual importance. They will hold their first big clearance sale of the season, starting Saturday. It will be a suit sale, and a remarkable one at that.

The announcement of such a sale at this time of the year by such a store with the established high standards of Orkin Bros. may well be considered a most unusual undertaking. As is generally known, stores of this class do not begin their clearance sales until much later in the season.

The whole suit section of this magnificent store will be converted into one of the finest fur departments west of Chicago. The demand for furs at Orkin's has increased to such a large extent that this departure is imperative. People like to buy furs at a store of this kind, where they are assured of the highest quality at all times, just the same as in other articles of apparel sold at this popular institution.

This suit sale to start Saturday will be a wonder. Over 1,000 suits will be included, the greatest collection of smart styles and fashions ever assembled in Omaha. Merchants from other towns as well as those in Omaha accept Orkin's exclusive store as a criterion where the smartest styles in ladies' wearing apparel in the greatest assortment are always to be found.

The clearance will certainly be the talk of the town. The values offered are without a precedent for this season of the year. Full announcement of the sale will be made later.

WHAT WOMEN ARE DOING.

Miss Winifred Stoner of Pittsburgh is thought to be the youngest author in this country. She was a pupil of poetry and typewriting at 3, published a book of verse at 7, and at the age of 9 speaks five languages.

Mrs. Elizabeth Thayer Adams of Hopedale, Mass., who has just celebrated her one hundredth birthday, is said to have no sympathy with women who complain of family cares. Mrs. Adams reared eight children, and yet found plenty of time to continue her social and educational life.

Mrs. Timothy L. Woodruff, wife of the former lieutenant governor of New York, is said to be the most enthusiastic amateur woman flyer in the United States. She has gone up with Sopwith, Welch and others, and on one occasion went up 2,000 feet. She says that as long as the engines are going you are not afraid, but that volplaning makes one a little bit timid if inclined that way.
