New York Raffles Arrested and Loot is Recovered

NEW YORK, Nov. 10.—The police and debonair raffles who begged the pardon of Mrs. Fred Swift on Tuesday night when he robbed her home of $500 worth of valuables walked into the police net today. Dressed in the height of fashion, the burglar whose identity is still unknown, was espied by a detective carrying a seemingly over-weighted satchel.

Cold Wave Rapidly Moving Eastward

WASHINGTON, Nov. 10.—A cold wave which today sent the mercury to 22 degrees below zero in northern Alberta and to low readings in North Dakota, Wyoming and Montana is moving eastward. Decidedly cooler weather is indicated for Saturday in the north Atlantic states and the Ohio valley.

Not in Omaha--Not in Nebraska--Not in All the West Will You Duplicate THESE Men's Suit & Overcoat Values

"Palace" buyers want to make THIS Saturday a "Day of Proof" — proof of their ability to underbuy—undersell—outstyle—any other western establishment. They want to save you a nice, crisp $10 bill at least. Will you make the move?—to see—to price—to learn of a NEW source of economy—SATURDAY?

MEN'S POSITIVE $12.50 GRADE SUITS AT $6.75—Stylish garments in grays, tans, browns and mixtures in worsteds, chevots, etc. All made up with serge linings and tailored to a nicety. You'll enthuse over 'em. MEN'S ABSOLUTE $12.50 QUALITY OVERCOATS AT $6.75—"Convertible" and "Fresto" collar overcoats in blacks, tans, browns and some stunning gray mixtures. All heavy yet swagger fabrics for winter wear.

MEN'S USUAL $18.00 STYLE SUITS AND OVERCOATS TO BE SPECIALLY AT $9.45 SATURDAY—This is an assorted lot, but is nevertheless nothing short of wonderful in point of value. All hand tailored; all late fabrics; plenty of snappy, extreme styles as well as the more reserved things that catch and retain the eye of the elder gentlemen. All shown for the first time on Saturday—at $9.45.

MEN'S $22.50 SUITS AT $12.98—New, extreme and semi-English modes; in English fabrics such as tweeds, Lincolnshire chevots, King's blues, tans, browns, staple blacks and blues, etc. All intense values. MEN'S $22.50 OVERCOATS AT $12.98—Full body English styles with Raglan shoulders. Chevots and tweeds in browns, tans, etc.; some with slash and some with vertical pockets. Some with convertible collars.

Takes Choice of a Large Lot of Boy's Overcoats in Grades Well Worth $3.00. Every overcoat in a style a boy will enthuse over; choice long effects in Friezes and Chevots; Russian and storm styles and others as good. Why pay MORE than $1.98 if it isn't necessary? If you wish to go higher than $1.98 for a boys' overcoat, buy one of the snappy material, mannish styles we are offering at $2.98 Saturday. We assure a POSITIVE $4.50 value for only $2.98.

Miss Blanche Decker returned Monday noon from Lincoln, where she was in attendance upon the silver jubilee of the Nebraska Christian Endeavor society and visited friends the last two weeks. Martin Dohlestein has gone to Germany for another long visit. He left Tuesday afternoon for Omaha and will sail from New York the last of the week. He will be away a year or more. H. A. Lockwood, who has been here about all summer, left the last of the week for his home at Leola, Ore. Mr. Lockwood thinks there is no country like the west and so goes home for winter. This cold snap, coming so unexpectedly, caught many of our farmers and seed growers unprepared. We hear of a number of who have lost several hundred bushels of wheat on the trees, not having time to gather them and the freezing spoiling the fruit except for the hogs. Mrs. A. W. Cobb and little girl were at Omaha last Friday and returned Saturday. Mr. Cobb and family, who have been stopping on the farm west of Waterloo since last summer, left Monday evening for their home in Kimball county, where they will stay on the homestead for the winter. Tekamah. Mr. and Mrs. B. F. Ward returned Tuesday from their visit to the Dakotas. G. P. Brooking returned on Sunday from his summer's stay in central Oregon, where he has landed interests. Tekamah people are now interested in watching the grading on the new railroad between Tekamah and Decatur. Mrs. John F. Nesbit entertained at a 6 o'clock dinner last evening. A pleasant evening at one of our neighbors' homes was the result. The high school girls gave a most pleasing entertainment and social last Thursday evening at which they took in $23 to the benefit of their athletic association. Fred Carpenter and family returned Sunday from Canada. Mr. Carpenter has rented his farm and will spend the winter around his former haunts in Burt county and possibly decide to remain here. He thinks there is no place like eastern Nebraska. The Tekamah Woman's club tendered a reception to the teachers of Tekamah's schools on last Saturday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Thomas, two miles west of town. The Thomas home is one of the social centers of Tekamah and the ladies of the club entertain the most interesting and entertaining affairs of the kind in its history. There were about seventy-five guests present and all were taken to and from the home in automobiles. Blair. Mr. and Mrs. Jake Bross have moved from Silver Creek and will make Blair their home. Kenneth Pound is home from Chicago where he was taking a business course in one of the commercial colleges. A. E. NEGRO PORTER LOSES MONEY

Roll Belonging to Photographer Heyn Contained $1,220. INSISTS BURTON IS INNOCENT. Employe on Way from Studio to Bank Dodged Automobile and Believes Money is Jostled from Pocket.

Heyn, the photographer, has reported to the police the loss of $1,220. The money was tied in a roll Thursday afternoon and given to his porter, Ed Burton, to be deposited at the First National bank. When Burton arrived at the bank he learned that the roll was missing. Heyn insists on the innocence of the porter, and the police have questioned him severely and closely without result. Heyn declares that Burton heretofore has always proven trustworthy, and he does not now believe him guilty. Burton declares that he put the money in his hip pocket, and that is the last seen of it by him. He says that after leaving the Heyn studio he joggled at Fifteenth and Harney street to escape from a swiftly moving automobile, and he believes that the money might have jostled out of his pocket at that time. The roll of money contained $56.70 in checks, $30 in silver certificates and $75 in gold.

HE CELEBRATES HIS SEVENTY-FIFTH BIRTHDAY

In celebration of his 75th birthday A. G. Vroman of 2287 Seward street received some of his old friends at his residence last night. Mr. Vroman was born in Lewis county, New York, and came west in 1848. In 1857 he came to Omaha, where he has since been engaged in the business of retailing metal polish of his own manufacture. He is a civil war veteran and is widely known among the old soldiers.

WILLIAMS IS TO STAND TRIAL FOR MURDER

Willie Williams, the South Omaha negro who is said to have killed Robert Bentley, another negro, in a quarrel, was arraigned on a charge of first degree murder in the criminal division of the district court. He pleaded not guilty. Max Brandt pleaded guilty to a charge of breaking and entering the saloon of Julius Treitschke and stealing a half pint of whisky. Sentence was deferred for a week. A Shooting Scrape with both parties wounded, demands Buckler's Arnica Salve. It cures wounds, sores, burns or injuries. 25c. For sale by Boston-Drug Co.

POWER OF NEW LAMPS QUESTIONED BY PATRONS

The work of installing the new gas lamps in place of the old ones owned by the Omaha Gas company is progressing fairly well, but it is far from being finished. A good many of the new lamps have been placed in the north part of the city, but the residents up to this time are not prepared to pass judgment upon them. They are more ornamental than the old ones, but there is some question as to whether or not they send more light into the darkness.

SUFFRAGETTES ARE TO MEET HERE ON MONDAY

The heads of twenty-three of the women's organizations of Omaha, South Omaha, Benson and Dundee, will meet Monday at 10 A. M., at the Young Women's Christian association with Mrs. W. E. Shafer, president of the Woman Suffrage society to plan for the visit in Omaha of Mrs. Emmeline Pankhurst, who will speak at the Boyd theater, November 17, on "The English Woman's Fight for the Vote."

LADS BREAK AWAY FROM INFLUENCE OF POOL HALL

William Stewart of this city appeared before Lieutenant Nathan Post of the navy recruiting station and enlisted in the service of Uncle Sam. He stated that he had been out of work for the last few months and that he had been loafing in pool halls and saloons, and he wanted to have a chance to be a man before the bad habits grew upon him. His record was inspected and found satisfactory and he was enlisted. Within half an hour after he had been examined, he returned with three other companions who were in almost the same circumstances as himself.

HYMENEAL

Warner-Reineck. Emma Reineck and Mr. Arthur Warner of Lexington, Neb., were married by Rev. Charles W. Savidge at his residence Thursday evening at 6:30. The key to success in business is the judicious and persistent use of newspaper advertising.

Wear a Benjamin

Wear a Benjamin. Billy Bourke has Benjamin Suits for $25.00. Do you need more? Come in and we'll open the seams and "prove up" the best tailoring you ever saw. Overcoats—same dope. Bourke's CLOTHES SHOP 318 South 16th St. You may "dissect" a Benjamin Suit or Coat and see for yourself that it is better tailored than the average made-to-order.
