NOT MORE THAN 2 TO ANY CUSTOMER.

The Glove Section is Opposite

Some decidedly attractive bargains for Saturday. Don't fail to note the calendar glove gift—interesting, as Christmas is only 6 weeks away.

We Have Moved in On The Second Floor

Not yet in apple pie order, but we are all ready for business—with some mighty attractive offerings, too, for Saturday. More room for display—more stock to show—in our new addition.

Two Days More After Saturday

for skirt making to your order at the low price of $2.00. Skirts well tailored and fit guaranteed. Dress goods reduced greatly during our extension sale, also. We can deliver in about one week—orders crowding us to such an extent that there must be more time given. Promptness will profit you—for first come, first served.

There Are About 100 Suits To Go at $23.75

This lot includes some new garments received recently and worth in the regular way up to $40.00. The materials, the workmanship, the styles are the best that can be produced—better, infinitely better, than the garments blown about by trumpet blare from some stores.

A Real Sensational Suit Sale Saturday

We use the word sensational advisedly for we will place on sale Saturday morning at 8 o'clock a great collection of women's suits, embracing the choicest new garments bought for late fall and winter trade and sold as high as $65.00—$33.50 at one price.

Saturday Will be Underwear Day

Our stock is complete and replete with all the best popular makes—10 lines in the neighborhood of $1.00. A very special line for Saturday is:

- Ladies' Jersey Union Suits — Combed peeler yarn, bleached pure white; high neck, long sleeves, ankle length, real comfy; worth $1.00, at 79c
- Another attractive item—A small lot of silk and lisle separate garments—vests and tights, worth $3.00, will go at $1.98

Hosiery Bargains Galore

In lisle, cotton and silk—for instance, silks in colors and black—worth $1.00, at 59c

Lisle and Cotton, all colors, worth 50c, at 25c a pair. Most of these are foreign makes.

Fifteen Prisoners Try to Escape from the Workhouse.

ONE IS SHOT BY ED STOUT
Gank Locks Overseer in the Tool House and Run, but a Shotgun Calls a Halt on All but Two.

Fifteen members of the chain gang made a break for liberty yesterday at the municipal rock pile, Twelfth and Nicholas streets, after three had locked Ed Stout, overseer of the prisoners, in the tool house. Stout managed to get out and stop the gang after two had made their escape. Ed Wilkinson, who was just going out of the gate was shot in the back and arms with bird shot.

That the break for liberty was premeditated is the belief of Mr. Stout. The two men who escaped—Frank Serrel and Fred Bell—are known to be desperate men, and Stout noticed that they were holding long conversations for the last three days.

About 11 o'clock Stout went into the tool house to get a new pick for one of the men. He had hardly reached the interior of the shed when he heard a yell and the door was closed behind him. When he attempted to get out he found that it had also been locked. After securing their guard the three ringleaders notified the rest of the gang. A pick was used to break the lock off the fence gate.

While the prisoners were breaking the lock off the gate Stout was crawling along the rafters of the building to a small window. This he broke with the butt of his gun and then dropped thirteen feet to the ground. He fired one shot at the three men going out of the gate. Wilkinson dropped to the ground with a yell of pain, while the other two men kept on going.

The rest of the crowd, when they saw that Stout was in earnest, ran helter skelter back to their various rock piles and began to work. The two men who escaped evidently were shot by Stout, as small spots of blood were found on the sidewalk outside of the enclosure. Wilkinson, the injured convict, was sent back to jail, where his injuries were dressed by Dr. T. T. Harris. Although questioned regarding the attempted escape Wilkinson maintained silence. His injuries are not dangerous.

POSTAL EMPLOYE TAKEN WITH A DECOY LETTER

Deputy United States Marshall Wright of Chadron arrested T. B. Manning, a Bridgeport postal employee, charged with rifling the mail. Information has been received here and Postoffice Inspector Randall of this city has been working on the case with Inspector Willis of Bridgeport, with the result that Manning was caught in the act of extracting money from decoy letters. The exact amount of his peculations is not known, but it is thought that it will total up to several thousand dollars, as he has been suspected for several months. He gave bonds before the United States commissioner at Bridgeport and will have a trial next month.

The key to success in business is the judicious and persistent use of newspaper advertising.

Board Checking Up Ballots of Tuesday

Canvass of last Tuesday's general election in Douglas county has been commenced by the official board. The canvass will extend at least a week. County Clerk D. M. Haverly being confined to his home by illness, Deputy County Clerk and County Clerk-elect Frank Dewey is chairman of the board. The other members are J. Francis Hopper, democrat; H. J. Hackett, republican, and County Judge Charles Leslie. The election law requires that when the office of county clerk has been affected in an election the county judge shall be a member of the election canvassing board.

Several registration fraud cases, started by John J. Mahoney, deputy county clerk and set for hearing before County Judge Leslie Friday afternoon, were continued for a week because the judge is required to serve on the canvassing board.

ALFRED SINNETT TAKEN AFTER A LONG SEARCH

A search extending over four states since April was brought to an end yesterday when Deputy United States Marshal Perkins of Hot Springs, Ark., brought Alfred L. Sinnett to Omaha charged with forging a postal money order.

In April Sinnett received a letter addressed to Adolphus Sinnett, containing a money order for $7, forged in an indorsement, cashed it and fled. He went from here to Kansas City and then to Sioux City. From there he went to Kentucky and later went to Hot Springs, where he was arrested upon information furnished by Postoffice Inspector H. E. Randall of this city.

Sinnett, although only 35 years of age, is married and has two children. He is afflicted and says he used the money to buy medicine. The wife resides in South Omaha with his parents. He was placed in the county jail and will be brought up before Judge Munger next week.

PAWN TICKET PROVES THE UNDOING OF CLAY

Clay Valandingham, whose undoing was caused by his failure to destroy a pawn ticket after he had borrowed money on a stolen match box, was arraigned on a grand larceny charge before Judge Lee S. Estelle. He pleaded not guilty. Valandingham as a bellboy at the Hotel Home purloined a suitcase of Lorenzo P. Macey, a guest, and pawned its contents worth $18.50. He made good his escape. The police of Syracuse, N. Y., arrested him as a suspicious character, found the pawn ticket among his effects and deduced that he might be wanted in Omaha.

BARBER IS FINED FOR VIOLATING ORDINANCE
A fine of $10 and costs and a reprimand were dealt out to John Konvallis in police court for violating the barber's ordinance which provides penalty for accepting money for shaves and haircuts on Sunday. Evidence showed that Konvallis had accepted money for such work. Konvallis did not make any other defense than the excuse that others violated the ordinance.
