Sunday—The season of the debutantes is at its height. This week will see the introduction of two popular young women of the younger set. Miss Ruth Hammer will be presented to society by her parents, Mr. and Mrs. George L. Hammer, at a dance at the Country club Tuesday evening.

Miss Frances Todd will be introduced by Mrs. W. E. Miller Wednesday at an afternoon reception. In the evening, Miss Todd will take one of the leading roles, "The Cottage in the Air," to be played by the Players' club.

Wednesday evening, December 29, has been decided as the date for the debut of Miss Esther Byrne, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas C. Byrne. On that evening Mr. and Mrs. Byrne will give a 9 o'clock coffee at their home to introduce Miss Byrne.

This will be the first of the large holiday parties and most of the school set are expected to arrive home for vacation either on this day or the day preceding. So this entertainment will be the first reunion of the debutantes and the members of the school and college set.

Miss Byrne is a graduate of Trinity college in Washington, D. C., and was one of the four debutantes chosen as bridesmaids to attend the Queen of Quivers at the Ak-Sar-Ben ball.

Honeymoon House Party. In the musical comedy, "The Chinese Honeymoon," the bride and groom took their bridal party on their wedding trip to China. Dr. and Mrs. Roger Throp Vaughan are not going to take their wedding party to Europe next month with them, but will instead, entertain them at a large house party in Chicago.

The invitation comes from Dr. Vaughan's parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Charles Vaughan of Chicago, who will be the hosts at this interesting party. Mrs. Vaughan, who was Miss Louise Lord of this city, and Dr. Vaughan, whose wedding was one of the large social events this month, are spending part of their honeymoon at the South Shore Country club in Chicago, and will for Europe December 1. Preceding this the wedding party, mostly from Omaha, will leave on Wednesday evening for Chicago, where they will be entertained at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Vaughan, returning home the following Monday. Theater parties, dinners and numerous entertainments are planned for the guests.

The party leaving here Wednesday evening will include Dr. and Mrs. J. P. Lord, Miss Grace Burbank, Miss Alice Cary McGrew, Miss Elizabeth Ploken, Miss Gladys Peters and Mr. Wayland Magee. From Rockford, Ill., will be Mr. and Mrs. Elliott Barrett, and there will be other guests from Chicago, including Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Vaughan.

U. of N. College Song. Interest in Nebraska university's song, "The Scarlet and Cream," has been aroused to a high pitch since the recent teachers' convention and many of the alumni of the school have dug it up from dust covered treasure chests and are practicing the words.

"The Scarlet and Cream" was sung at a grand finale at the alumni banquet at the Rome hotel November 8. Several of the old "grads" were caught unawares and they are practicing in secret now to be in trim for the next banquet, which will probably be after next Saturday's game.

Exit Bridge, Water Cookery. A bridge party at the home of a popular and accomplished matron the other day was unceremoniously turned into a cooking bee. The games had been played and refreshments were served in the accustomed fashion.

But there was one thing about the refreshments which was so far above the accustomed edibles at bridge parties that it brought forth a chatter of enthusiasm from the assembled guests. This was the angel food cake, which they declared was light and dainty as ambrosia.

One attractive young debutante whose brief existence has been spent chiefly in having a good time, exclaimed that if she could make cake like that she would be perfectly happy. Where, upon the hosts divulged the fact that she was the author of the cake and would be only too glad to teach any one who wished to learn.

"In fact there's no time like the present," said she, and, followed by the whole party of young women, she led the way to the kitchen, donning a befrilled white apron, she beat the whites of the eggs, sifted flour and with the eyes of her admiring guests upon her concocted a duplicate of the cake which the bridegroom had enjoyed so much for refreshments.
