

MARVELOUS VENO HAS PAST RECORD

D. N. Dickinson Was Sentenced to Two Years at Deer Lodge, Montana.

WORKED SAME GAME AT BUTTE Operated in Montana City the Same as He Had in Omaha.

CLEANS UP BIG SUM OF MONEY Is to Face Trial This Morning for Wages Due an Employee.

HAS USED MANY COGNOMENS Operates in Omaha Under the Name of "Mayo" and the "Hot Springs Doctors," and Last "The Marvelous Veno."

DEER LODGE, Mont., Nov. 19.—D. N. Dickinson, physician, was sentenced to two years in Deer Lodge penitentiary for a second offense of grand larceny, sentenced to two years, FRANK CONLEY, warden.

The foregoing telegram was received from Warden Conley of the Montana state prison at Deer Lodge, Mont., in answer to an inquiry as to whether or not D. N. Dickinson, alias "The Marvelous Veno," had been in his institution.

It has developed that Dickinson was arrested after some operation in Butte, in 1908, soon after leaving Omaha, where he had been operating in Butte the same sort of a medical cure he had operated in Omaha just previously and the same kind he has been maintaining again in Omaha for the last few weeks.

A man who worked for him in 1908 says Dickinson took in $12,000 in eleven days in Butte, getting his pay either in cash or notes in advance and giving guarantees that he would cure the patient or refund the money.

So far as known his present use of the name "Veno" is the first he has made of it since 1908. He has at times used the name of "Mayo" and "The Hot Springs Doctors," and has operated under both these names in Omaha.

Dickinson is scheduled to appear in Justice Altshuler's court at 9 o'clock this morning, in a suit brought by G. Koewary, a former employe, to recover $34 for services for which he says the "doctor" refused to pay.

All the furniture and appliances in the "doctor's" office at 1408 Farman were placed under attachment Friday.

The "doctor" does not claim to be a physician. His plan is to hire some impetuous doctor with a real diploma, and let him make the diagnosis of disease and prescribe remedies. The doctor who has recently been working for him and who quit says, however, that he would be ordered to hand out a bottle from a bench always on hand for the patient.

Mother Powerless to Rescue Her Son From Drowning

SIoux Falls, S. D., Nov. 19.—(Special.)—Particulars have reached here of the drowning of Alexander Fairburn, a young man who lived with his parents near the Missouri river in the northern part of Charles Mix county. The drowning had unusually pathetic features. The young man had gone to the Missouri river for a walk, and ventured too far out on the ice, which broke, precipitating him into the river. He managed to grasp the edge of the ice, and was holding on for dear life when his mother, alarmed because he was gone longer than usual, hurried to the river bank and discovered his perilous position. She used her utmost efforts to rescue her son, who had become unresponsive and weakened, but her strength was not equal to the task.

She hurried to the home of a neighbor for assistance, but this neighbor chanced to be away from home and valuable time was lost in summoning assistance from another neighbor. When the distracted mother returned to the river with help her son had disappeared, having been unable to hold on longer, and had sunk to his death in the icy waters. His body has not yet been recovered, and probably will not be until spring.

Wounded Robber Dies. CALEBRON, Ill., Nov. 19.—Peter Willis, 27 years old, confessed member of a band of robbers that for months terrorized merchants of Calverton, died today of a bullet wound inflicted a month ago by Sheriff Frank Hooker. The fatal shot was fired while Willis was attempting to escape arrest. A coroner's jury today held that Hooker shot Willis in the performance of his duty and exonerated the officer.

Roosevelt Attacked by Henry as Advocate of Real Absolutism

WASHINGTON, Nov. 19.—Declaring that Theodore Roosevelt makes Alexander Hamilton look like a novice as an advocate of absolutism, Representative Henry of Texas, chairman of the house committee on rules, issued a formal statement tonight in answer to the former president's views on the trust question in his recent editorial in the Outlook.

Mr. Henry asserts that Mr. Roosevelt, through his "message," is feeling the pulse of the American people for a third term, that he is trying to "discredit Mr. Taft and Mr. Wickersham," and predicts that he will "find the road to the presidency 'rocky' while he is running for a third term with the anti-trust struggle sitting astride his shoulders."

The democratic congressman, who recently made public proposed amendments to the Sherman law, providing that trust criminals be forced to wear "felony stripes," assails Mr. Roosevelt chiefly for what he terms his advocacy of "legislative courts" and "legislative executives."

Mr. Roosevelt's attack on the tobacco trust, Mr. Henry describes as "a terrific indictment of the president, Department of Justice and circuit court in New York."

"It looks like Mr. Roosevelt is right here," he continues, "and I say 'lay on MacDuff.'"

Charging that the trust commission is Mr. Roosevelt's issue, the Texas congressman says in conclusion: "This will make him the candidate of the steel trust, which he defends, and the advocate agent of the reactionaries, not the progressives. In my opinion he is harnessing himself up with the wrong crowd and on a mighty bad issue, and even Mr. Taft and Mr. Wickersham can whip him in his party."

Ambassador from Russia in America

NEW YORK, Nov. 19.—George Bakhteff, the new Russian ambassador to the United States, arrived in New York today and left for Washington. The coming of the new ambassador is of greater interest than ordinarily attaches to a shift of diplomatic representatives, for he arrives at a time when a wave of anti-Russian official protest is at its height against the government because it refuses to honor American passports without discrimination against the Jews.

It is understood the ambassador comes empowered to negotiate a revision of the treaty of friendly relations of seventy-nine years' standing between this country and Russia, the abrogation of which is advocated in resolutions now pending in congress.

"I cannot discuss anything until I have communicated with the State department at Washington," he said. "You see, I have been at sea for a week and I am not in touch with affairs."

As timely information it was volunteered that an interesting matter has been an occasion since Jacob H. Schiff made last week, charging indirectly that John Maynard Keynes had acted as agent for the Russian government in certain activities because of the influence it was believed he had with President Taft. The ambassador appeared interested, but declared he was in no position to "criticize."

Eastern Capitalists Get Railway Line

CHEYENNE, Wyo., Nov. 19.—(Special.)—The reported sale of the Cheyenne electric street railway to a company of eastern capitalists, headed by W. J. Barker, president of the Northern Colorado Power company of Denver, was confirmed today. The price paid was not made public, but it is understood Messrs. T. A. Coakley, Jr., H. M. Bennett, George E. Abbott, George W. Hodge, J. Edgar Ryan, A. D. Kelly, Governor Carey, Fred W. Ryan and other stockholders will obtain all that they put into the company and a little more. The new company buys the outstanding stock, paying something like $100,000, which sum represents the approximate cost of the line to date. The property is bonded to an amount in excess of $30,000, and the new company assumes responsibility for the payment of interest on $20,000 and the final calling up of the bonds. The eastern syndicate obtains this valuable line, a twenty-two-year franchise and other important considerations for approximately $125,000. It is announced that the new owners will take charge in a few days, when a 5-cent fare between Cheyenne and Fort Russell will be announced.

Republicans Advocate to Organize Stable Government in Time to Avoid Disorganization.

YUAN SHI LOSING HIS POWER Newly Appointed Premier Believed to Have Deserted People.

NANKING BATTLE MAY DECIDE Both Sides Directing All Efforts to Important Center.

HEAVY STRAIN ON FINANCES Revolutionary Forces Approaching Nanking Number Many Thousands Within Day's Striking Distance of City.

SHANGHAI, Nov. 19.—The situation in southern China is becoming more involved each day. The republicans apparently are determined to secure their independence from the Manchu dynasty, but there are grave doubts of their ability to establish a stable government in time to avoid the consequences of continued disorganization and the absence of revenue and a competent administration.

The local organizations generally are preserving order. Shanghai is the center of business for the entire Yang Tze valley, which is stagnant while the military operations around Wu Chang and Nanking are proceeding. The situation at Peking has little influence on the rest of the country.

The power of Yuan Shi Kai's name is waning, because it is believed he has deserted the cause of the people.

Many Separate States. The provinces which have declared independence are organizing separate governments, but each refuses recognition of the responsibilities incurred by the central government. Nanking, the ancient capital, is still firmly in the possession of the imperialists, through the assertion of southern supremacy is not taken seriously.

Even the reformers recognize the importance of Nanking, and both they and the imperialists are directing all their efforts to this important center, where the result of a battle may mean either the end of the Manchu dynasty or a serious setback to the revolutionary cause.

The reformers do not conceal the tremendous strain upon their financial resources in conducting the campaign against Nanking and maintaining their position at Wu Chang. The fall of Nanking will possibly mark the real commencement of the final act of the drama, but even then entire unity may be impossible. The outcome of the attack which the reformers are preparing to make on Nanking is problematical, but the imperialists probably will become the victors, if the war is prolonged.

The revolutionary forces approaching Nanking number many thousands. From Nanking, on the north side of the river, 4,000 revolutionists, with forty-one guns, are marching to Pukow, which lies opposite Nanking.

From Wu Hsi, on the south side of the river, 2,000 men are advancing. Above Chinkiang there is a force of 8,000 revolutionists, with 100 guns, and it is estimated that 3,000 more are proceeding down the line of the Tien Tsin-Pukow railway. Fifteen warships, now in the river under command of the rebels, are awaiting the signal for the attack.

The imperialist garrison in Nanking, under command of General Chang, numbers about 11,000 men, well trained, well armed and strongly entrenched and fortified.

It is believed that all the republican forces are within one day's striking distance of the city.

Governor Willson's Chickens Poisoned

FRANKFORT, Ky., Nov. 19.—Police-men are guarding the executive mansion of Kentucky Governor Willson, because at the request of Governor Willson, fear that the historic house may be set on fire or that food for the use of the governor's household may be poisoned are responsible for the guard.

Some time ago Governor Willson discharged an employe who had worked on the place. This employe continued to get his meals from the executive kitchen until the governor found it out and was ordered from the place.

HUBBARD JR HAS DIPHTHERIA

Son of Congressman of Sioux City in Washington Hospital. PARENTS HASTEN TO CAPITAL Young Man Reported Not in Serious Condition—Nebraska Postmaster Given Additional Letter Carrier by Special Order.

(From a Staff Correspondent.) WASHINGTON, Nov. 19.—(Special Telegram.)—Representative H. H. Hubbard and wife of Sioux City, arrived in Washington yesterday, coming as fast as flying express could carry them to see their son, Elbert H. Hubbard, Jr., who is confined in the Providence hospital with an attack of diphtheria. Mr. and Mrs. Hubbard got into Washington rather late yesterday afternoon and went directly to the hospital, but were not allowed to visit their son, who is in the "contagious diseases" ward.

They arranged with the hospital authorities, however, so that they might stand in the area to the rear of their son's room and hold a few moments' conversation with him from the outside.

Young Hubbard in a bathrobe was wheeled to a window and conversed largely with signs on his part for some five minutes with his parents on the ground, fifty feet below. Hubbard was stricken with diphtheria several days ago, but today it is said that the case is a comparatively mild one and that no serious results are anticipated and unless some unforeseen complications should arise, he will be discharged from the hospital within a week or two days.

In the meantime, Representative and Mrs. Hubbard will remain in Washington to see that every care is given the young man.

WINTER DESCENDS ON TOWN IN MIDST OF CHANGING SITE

FORWARD, Wash., Nov. 19.—The town of Forward has been stopped midway in its career, and as a result of the recent snow and cold wave is scattered over a mile of territory. Some time ago it was decided to remove the town from the old site to another one a mile away. Some of the buildings had been moved, others were in transit, and still others were on their old location, when winter came and stopped all operation until next spring. One restaurant now stands half-way between the two half-towns, in the midst of a wind-swept flat field.

LOS ANGELES BATTLE GROUND

Resolutions Committee Will Not Request Gompers and Others to Resign from National Civic Federation.

ATLANTA, Ga., Nov. 19.—Alleging that the enemies of organized labor had made Los Angeles the battle ground of a movement designed to crush and intimidate unionism, socialist delegates today appealed to the convention of the American Federation of Labor to help them elect Job Harriman mayor of the California city. The socialists submitted resolutions touching on the matter which were recently adopted by the executive committee of their party at the suggestion of Congressman Victor L. Berger.

The resolutions set forth the allegations against the so-called enemies of labor and declare that a victory would materially help the case of the McNamara brothers. President Gompers assured the socialists that the organization would do all in its power to elect Harriman.

The convention of the federation was in session but a short time today, adjourning early to permit the committees to work. It is understood the resolutions committee has decided to report adversely on the motion requesting Gompers and several other leaders to resign from the National Civic Federation and the resolutions proposing initiative in election of federal judges.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 19.—Congress should force the government to appeal from the decree in the American tobacco company case, said Samuel Untermyer of New York today, before the senatorial committee on interstate commerce. "The court should be forced to say whether the dissolution plan agreed upon is what it means by an order of disintegration."

Mr. Untermyer said he understood the attorney general had been to some extent consulted in the formation of the plan of dissolution, but he thought the tobacco company had "done" the attorney general. He said the tobacco trust has simply "changed its clothes."

The pitiful and humiliating fiasco in the American Tobacco company case has strengthened by belief that supplementary legislation is necessary for the enforcement of the Sherman anti-trust law," said Mr. Untermyer, who is chairman of the sub-committee on trust legislation of the National Civil Federation.

"The courts are not adapted to the enforcement of decrees of disintegration against big combinations. They have no machinery to carry them out."

NEW YORK, Nov. 19.—William R. Pettus, alias William Russell, counterfeiter and self-accused murderer, was arrested today by postoffice inspectors, who charged him with having written letters demanding $500 under penalty of death from Postmaster Edward M. LODGE DOCTORS ARE UNDER BAN

Fraternal Order Contract Physicians May Be Ostracized by Their Fellows.

RAPID FIRE VISITS SCORED Resolutions Previously Passed by County Medical Society.

FIGHT STARTS IN THE BLUFFS Large Numbers Were Receiving Free Treatment in Iowa Town.

MEDICAL SOCIETY AFTER THEM Says Free Treatment by Lodges of Members and Families is Unfair to Patients' Other Doctors.

Doctors of Omaha who sell their services at wholesale to fraternal organizations at such low rates as to preclude the possibility of proper service, are threatened with ostracism by their fellows of the Omaha-Douglas County Medical society.

Members of the society consider that rapid fire visits made in such haste as to render it impossible to furnish valuable or scientific treatment are unworthy of sanction by a body of representative medical men.

The Omaha-Douglas County Medical society, having already passed resolutions against the practice, now proposes to take steps to stop it. A committee has been appointed to consider the matter and recommend a penalty to be imposed on members of the society who do not respect the purpose of the resolutions. This penalty probably will be expulsion from the society, in case gentle correction fails.

War Starts in Bluffs. The present situation arose from the situation in Council Bluffs, where fraternal lodges sprang up in such numbers that 12,000 people, or more than one-third of the population of the city, were being given free medical treatment by the physicians of their orders. These physicians, it is said, were for the most part mere loafers, selling their services to the fraternal orders as low as 25 cents per call.

The Council Bluffs Medical society went on the warpath and decided to expel members who insisted on remaining in the employ of the lodges, and to stop the practice as far as resident physicians of Council Bluffs were concerned, but the fraternal orders thereupon imported young doctors from other towns.

These young doctors sought the advice of the resident doctors as consulting physicians, and through the influence of the medical society were refused. So now they are consulting Omaha physicians. This is what has aroused the Douglas County Medical society.

Corporations Are Touched. The formal resolutions, besides protesting against contract practice as applied to lodges, make some suggestions as to contract service as applied to industrial corporations. The resolutions follow:

Your committee appointed by the Omaha-Douglas County Medical society to investigate the broad subject of contract practice, desire to state that we have given this subject our best attention and discussion. Each member studied some phase of the question, and your committee as a whole, have analyzed without prejudice, our combined information. We herewith submit for your consideration the following conclusions:

1. Your committee believe the right of industrial corporations employing labor to engage the services of skilled physicians, surgeons and specialists at reasonable remuneration, to examine employees as to their fitness for service as well as care for and supply of labor in case of injury or acute sickness when on duty, or to care for those to whom the corporation is under obligation to provide medical aid, is but a just and fair protection against damage suits brought by the unscrupulous. However, it should be distinctly understood that such services should not be extended to apply to any member of an employe's family.

2. We believe that industrial corporations employing physicians, surgeons and specialists, should limit the service of said physicians, surgeons and specialists strictly to the care of their employes during the time of actual service. We also believe that the service of said physicians, surgeons and specialists should be entirely at their own expense, or if the employe are obligated by agreement to the expense of such medical, surgical and special attendance they should be understood to be under obligation to their employes should do so entirely at their own expense, or if the employe are obligated by agreement to the expense of such medical, surgical and special attendance they should be understood to be under obligation to their employes should do so entirely at their own expense.

3. We believe that contract practice as applied to lodges, fraternal societies, benevolent and benefit organizations, is detrimental to the best interests of the medical profession in general, and especially to the physicians employed; that it is especially unjust to all physicians who are excluded from the practice of medicine in general, and especially to those who are excluded from the practice of medicine in general, and especially to those who are excluded from the practice of medicine in general.

4. We believe that contract practice as applied to lodges, fraternal societies, benevolent and benefit organizations, is detrimental to the best interests of the medical profession in general, and especially to the physicians employed; that it is especially unjust to all physicians who are excluded from the practice of medicine in general, and especially to those who are excluded from the practice of medicine in general.

5. We believe that contract practice as applied to lodges, fraternal societies, benevolent and benefit organizations, is detrimental to the best interests of the medical profession in general, and especially to the physicians employed; that it is especially unjust to all physicians who are excluded from the practice of medicine in general, and especially to those who are excluded from the practice of medicine in general.
