ATHENIAN DEBATERS TALK ON FORTIFICATION. The Athenian Debating society of the high school held a program meeting at the Young Men's Christian association Friday evening, about twenty-five members and friends being present. The program opened with a debate on the question, "Resolved, That the Panama canal should be fortified." The affirmative was upheld by Willard Cooper and the negative by Warren Johnson. After a lengthy discussion, in which the honors of war were thrashed out, the judges declared for the negative side of the argument. Walker Rule then gave some very numerous anecdotes and Harvey Nelson closed the program by reading an original paper on "Our Navy." The Athenians plan to hold a joint meeting with the Lindsger Travel club, one of the girls' societies at the school, at the Lindsger art gallery on December 12. SAYS RUMORS OF WAR IN MEXICO ARE UNFOUNDED. Lieutenant J. H. Dickey, formerly of the Fourth cavalry, stationed at El Paso, Tex., but recently ordered transferred to Fort Meyer, at Washington, is in the city visiting with some of the army officers here. Lieutenant Dickey was in El Paso with his company patrolling the Mexican border all through the recent Mexican revolution, and although not actively engaged in the war, he says his company had many exciting adventures. Commenting on the dispatches of the last few days, in which it has been stated that a new war may break out, Lieutenant Dickey says he does not believe that the Mexicans who are in sympathy with either the federalists or the insurgents have enough patriotism left to engage in another fight, and thinks there is no foundation for the rumors of war. She has been spending the week visiting friends in Peru. TEACHING PUBLIC BUSINESS. Scope of the Experimental School Projected in New York. The projected experimental school for the study and administration of public business, for which Mrs. E. H. Harriman gave $40,000, will be started in New York, but its scope is national. If the experiment proves a success at the end of the five years for which maintenance is provided, doubtful provision will be made for permanency. The training will be in doing governmental work that needs to be done and in seeking facts about methods and results of government work such as analysis of budget estimates, charter studying, drafting and explaining, installation of cost records, tests of milk inspection and physical examination of school children, study of school and health problems and management, standardization of salaries, contracts, specifications, methods of assessing and collecting taxes and preparing handbooks on administrative practice. The school will be in charge of the New York Bureau of Municipal Research. Four classes of applicants are expected: (1) college graduates wishing to go into public service or social work; (2) accountants wishing to qualify for analysis of public business, especially the social phases, such as health, education, publicity, etc.; (3) superintendents of schools, secretaries of boards of trade, heads of civic organizations wishing to take up public business; (4) post-graduate students of politics, economics, sociology, law and journalism wishing practical field work to supplement academic training. Starting with different experiences and different interests, these men will all be given, each for his own specialty, the benefit of the bureau's experience, which represents a cost of $500,000 to the bureau's supporters. NEBRASKA WESLEYAN NOTES. Bishop Harziseil Addresses Students at Chapel Monday. Monday morning students and people of the town had a rare treat at convocation. The academy foot ball team defeated the sophomores Wednesday afternoon by the score of 12 to 0. No variety men were allowed to play. This weakened the sophomores so that they were easy victims for the preps. The game settled the university championship. Tuesday evening the active chapter of Phi Beta Sigma and their "rushers" met at the chapter house and were conveyed in automobiles to the home of Lyle Stovel, south of the city. There they were served with the annual oyster feed, followed by a three-course dinner. The Theophanians held their annual "dog feed" in the grove on the campus Wednesday evening. The feed was prepared over bonfires in true aborigine style. The Oro girls entertained Wednesday evening at a "sugaring off" party at the home of Sarah Kirtland. The group was brought from Vermont and everyone present tried her skill at making maple sugar. The Aeliolians and Dialectics gave an open program in the auditorium of the White building Friday evening. The alumni of Phi Beta Sigma gave their annual reception to the active chapter and their rushers Thursday evening at the home of Harry McLaughlin. Formal entertainment was furnished and a light lunch was served late in the evening. KEARNEY NORMAL. Memories of the State Teachers' Meeting at Omaha. The state normal opened with full membership after a few days' vacation on account of the State Teachers' association. Many of the members of the faculty attended the association and took part in the program. The annual dinner of the Kearney normal was held at 6 o'clock on the evening of November 8 at the Rome hotel. A splendid seven-course dinner was served. Members of the faculty who were at the association expressed general satisfaction concerning the treatment accorded by the Omaha people. The local committee and the committee from the Commercial club spared no pains to make the city attractive and to be of assistance to the visitors. The bulletins of the association furnished by the local committee and posted in public places was an innovation and of such vast help to everyone that it ought to be continued in future sessions. Arrangements are being rapidly completed for the general reception to be given at the normal on November 22, at which time Governor Chester H. Adrich will be present. Governor Adrich will speak in the morning at 10:15 at the general assembly, will inspect the building and its equipment and the work being done during the day and will be present in the evening at the reception, at which time a general invitation is extended to everyone who can possibly come. The receiving line will be composed of the governor, Senator Norris Brown, members of the State Board of Education, State Senator C. P. Bondinson and the Buffalo county representatives and other prominent citizens from over the state. Music will be furnished by the college orchestra and band. Light refreshments will be served, the building will be lighted throughout and an opportunity will be offered for everyone to inspect the building and its equipment. Various committees will be stationed in the rooms and departments to explain the work being done. It is expected that several hundred citizens from Kearney and throughout the state will be present. President Thomas has accepted an invitation on the part of the Shelton people to be present at the laying of the cornerstone of the new high school building at that place and to deliver the address on Friday, November 17, at Shelton. He has sent a large number of strong students to the Kearney normal. Educational Notes. Prof. Martin L. This scholarship is regarded as the blue ribbon of the classical school at Oxford. United States Commissioner of Education P. P. Claxton made a protest before the Michigan teachers' convention recently against the idea of a salary of $45 or $50 for teachers. The commission also goes on record as opposed to direct moral teaching in the schools, but suggests that the schools should assume and respect the existence of religious truths. Miss Emma C. Woodruff, who died a few months ago, left $750,000 to Bryn Mawr, of which she was a graduate. This more than completes the $1,900,000 endowment fund for which Mrs. M. Thomas and the alumni association have been working for several years. This volume will now be on a very solid financial footing, although it has taken a great deal of work to secure the fund. In New York there is a sort of civil service as regards the election of teachers. No teacher, for instance, who stands at the foot of a list as to the time she passed the examination can be elected before another teacher on the list. A Boston teacher who was elected to the New York schools was on a second list, and when the fact was discovered she was substituted for an earlier list candidate. "There are eighty-two boarders and thirty-day scholars in the German college for girls in Constantinople, and students are still applying for admission, although there is no longer a room for them. New college buildings are being erected outside the city at Anraoukuey, the administration building to be known as Gould hall, in honor of Mrs. Helen Gould, who has been so much interested in the work. There is to be a fine gymnasium in connection with the school. Taxi Company Has Own Wire Exchange. The Omaha Taxicab and Auto Livery company, of which S. A. Houser is manager, has installed a private telephone exchange with direct wires to a number of hotels, theaters, clubs and restaurants. The exchange is a most convenient one. When they go to the company's private telephone at any one of these places, they may be sure that the line is clear. The company telephones have been placed in the Rome and Loyal hotels, the Auditorium, the Orpheum, Brandeis, Boyd and American theaters, the Brandeis stores, the Omaha club, Chambers' dancing academy, the Metropolitan club, Clarkson hospital and Wise Memorial hospital. The concern, which started four years ago, with one car, now has eleven. It has bought two new limousines and two taxis, electric lighted and heated, which will be placed in service this week. Spokane shippers joined with the Department of Justice and the Interstates Commerce commission in an appeal to the supreme court of the United States from the recent advance decision of the commerce court in the Spokane rate case. Wilfred Stuart Sheldon-Dickason, allied son of a noble English family, has been charged with the murder of a woman on the charge of stealing jewels valued at $25,000 from Mrs. Olga von W. Hanks, a society leader of New York. In default of $50,000 bail he was returned to this city. At the conclusion of a two days' conference between the independent tobacco manufacturers and the Burley tobacco growers, a statement was issued which affects that both parties had decided to abide by any agreement, settlement or compromise that might be drawn up by attorneys representing both sides. Further Delay in Acquiring of Water Plant by the City. On motion of John L. Webster, attorney for the water board, hearing on the application of the city of Omaha for the transfer of the plant of the Omaha Water company to the city was postponed by Judge Munger in United States circuit court yesterday afternoon until November 25. Attorney John F. Stout, representative of the water company, at the beginning of the hearing raised the question whether Judge Munger had the power to order the transfer, even if he did decide that the transfer should be made. For the reason that the decision of the circuit court of appeals was made less than forty days ago, and that according to the law any decision made by the court of appeals is considered still pending for that length of time from the date that it is made. The decision of Judge Adams was made November 2. Attorney Stout's question was argued by Attorneys Webster and McHugh and the arguments on the question of jurisdiction occupied nearly an hour. Both sides then stated their case and on the motion of Attorney Webster, Judge Munger adjourned the hearing for two weeks to allow the water board's attorneys to prepare a brief of its case. The brief must be in the hands of Judge Munger by Wednesday and the answer by the attorneys for the water company must be filed by the following Wednesday. Creighton Senior Hop Tuesday Night. The hall is being decorated with pennants of various colleges and the bunting of Creighton. Messrs. Costello, Russum and Spellman are the class committee on decorations. Dimick's orchestra will play. The Daily Yellow is the name of a paper which has made its appearance at the University of Omaha, called "yellow" because it is printed on yellow paper. It first made its appearance the day before the university foot ball team met Peru. It came out to boost for the game. It made a decided hit and it now seems that it will become a fixture. It contains all announcements which the students would otherwise make at the chapel exercises, comments on current events and quips that are of interest to the students. But one copy is printed each day and that is posted early each morning on the bulletin board, where faculty and students gather to read the Yellow. Up to date it has dealt with special features each day. Once there was a foot ball number, another time a women's suffrage edition. Next week the special numbers will be the marriage and girls' society. The latter will be edited by the young women of the school. The identity of the editors is unknown, but they intimate that before long it will assume a different name and place itself under the supervision of one of the student organizations. 14,000 acres of Idaho's best land will be sold under the Carey act at Jerome December 11, 1911. WARNS HOTELS AGAINST TIPS

Local Hostelties Receive Letters from a New York Man. IS HEAD OF TRAVELERS' LEAGUE. Says Travelers Will Stop at Private Houses Unless Tipping is Abolished—Hotels Discourage the System. Several Omaha hotels have received letters from P. E. Dome of Syracuse, president of the Commercial Travelers' National league, who states that unless they abate the tipping nuisance, the drummers who are members of the league will seek private houses when they are in Omaha. Mr. Dome says that because of the enormous expense accounts turned in by the drummers, firms employing them have cut their salaries, and as long as tipping prevails, reasonable salaries for drummers will be a thing of the past. In the better, Omaha is not particularly mentioned as one of the cities where tipping is the "drummer's curse," but the Omaha innkeepers are warned to keep strict watch on the bellboys, porters, and other attendants. "Tipping," said Clerk Jesse Merritt of Hotel Rome, "rests entirely with the traveler. We always try to discourage it, because I think that if tipping were abolished, the guest would spend more money with the hotel. This is the sentiment of every hotel keeper in Omaha. The employees are all paid fair wages, but when they are offered a tip it is hard for them to refuse." "Of course, there are cases where the bellboys and porters 'work' for the tips, but as far as I can ascertain, these men are always discharged whenever they are caught causing discomfort because they are not tipped. "If the traveler would only keep his money in his pocket and ignore the hints for tips, the nuisance would quickly be abolished. I am sure that the hotel owners are just as anxious as the travelers that the nuisance be brought to a stop."

Do You Open Your Mouth

Like a young bird and gulp down whatever food or medicine may be offered you? Or, do you want to know something of the composition and character of that which you take into your stomach whether as food or medicine? Most intelligent and sensible people now-a-days insist on knowing what they employ whether as food or as medicine. Dr. Pierce believes they have a perfect right to INSIST upon such knowledge. So he publishes, broadcast and on each bottle-wrapper, what his medicines are made of and verifies it under oath. This he feels he can well afford to do because the more the ingredients of which his medicines are made are studied and understood the more will their superior curative virtues be appreciated. For the cure of woman's peculiar weaknesses and derangements, giving rise to frequent headache, backache, dragging-down pain or distress and kindred symptoms of weakness, Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription is a most efficient remedy. It is equally effective in giving strength to nursing mothers and in preparing the system of the expectant mother for baby's coming, thus rendering childbirth safe and comparatively painless. The "Favorite Prescription" is a most potent, strengthening tonic to the general system and to the organs distinctly feminine in particular. It is also a soothing and invigorating nerve and cures nervous exhaustion, nervous prostration, neuralgia, hysteria, spasms, chorea or St. Vitus's dance, and other distressing nervous symptoms attendant upon functional and organic diseases of the distinctly feminine organs. A host of medical authorities of all the several schools of practice, recommend each of the several ingredients of which "Favorite Prescription" is made for the cure of the diseases for which it is claimed to be a cure. You may read what they say for yourself by sending a postal card request for a free booklet of extracts from the leading authorities, to Dr. R. V. Pierce, Invalids' Hotel and Surgical Institute, Buffalo, N. Y., and it will come to you by return post. It's foolish and often dangerous to experiment with new or but slightly tested medicines—sometimes urged upon the afflicted as "just as good" or better than "Favorite Prescription." The dishonest dealer sometimes insists that he knows what the proffered substitute is made of, but you don't and it is decidedly for your interest that you should know what you are taking into your stomach and system expecting it to act as a curative. To him its only a difference of profit. Therefore, insist on having Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription. Send 31 one-cent stamps to pay cost of mailing only on a free copy of Dr. Pierce's Common Sense Medical Adviser, 1008 pages cloth-bound. Address Dr. Pierce as above.

Fresh Eggs Minus Quantity in Omaha. "With regard to fresh eggs, Omaha is in about the same position as Chicago, whose butter and egg board has announced that there are no fresh eggs in the city," said W. O. Perry of Perry & Co. "Fresh eggs are almost a minus quantity in Omaha. Practically the entire population of Omaha is eating storage eggs, the wholesale price of which range from 21 to 27 cents a dozen, depending on quality. "Nebraska hens are on a strike. We could get fresh eggs from South Dakota, but the price there is 30 cents a dozen, case count, and they would cost us probably 40 cents a dozen by the time we got them here. That would put the price to consumers up well toward 50 cents, and few could afford to buy them." The storage men have made a profit on eggs that have been taken out of storage so far, and hope to clear enough money this year to make up for their losses of last year.
