

INTERPRET RITES IN SILENCE

Impressive Mute Ceremony for Late Lloyd F. Blankenship.

SERVICE AT SCHOOL FOR DEAF

Hymns and Sermon Are Interpreted by Pupils at Institution in a Manner that Impresses All Sorrowing Friends.

In a temple fitting for the obsequies of hero, poet or artist, the funeral of Lloyd F. Blankenship was held yesterday afternoon at the School for the Deaf. The new auditorium was used for the ceremony, and the exercises were under the direction of Superintendent Frank W. Booth.

While three hymns were being sung by a duo of women's voices, they were most tastefully and impressively interpreted by five young women connected with the school. Those who have not witnessed this spectacle of the silent interpretation of sacred song as it is voiced by the singers have a most lifting experience yet to gain.

Tribute from Teachers.

A tribute from the teachers was interpreted by Prof. J. W. Sowell, from the pupils of the school by Emil Hladik and a Bible reading by Mr. Eldridge, Superintendent Booth read the written tributes and the interpreters stood by his side.

Prof. Blankenship was well loved by teachers and pupils and the large auditorium was filled, a good many parents of pupils and friends of the institution being present.

Price of Crackers Uniformly Higher

Why are prices of crackers advanced to the same figure at the same time all over the United States by all the cracker making concerns?

This is a question mystifying Omaha grocers. A few years ago young biscuit companies all over the country were crying out against the National Biscuit Company, called the "Trust," and were boasting their business by leaps and bounds through competition with the National.

"The queer thing about it is that flour and wheat were both declining in price when the boost was made in crackers."

CITY HALL IS STIRRED OVER COMMISSION LAW

Legal circles of the city are in a turmoil of disagreement over an interpretation of a part of the commission plan law. Proper provision is made in the law in a lucid manner for the choosing of commissioners at the general or regular election, but there is a clash of legal learning over the question of the number of men an elector may cast his vote for at the primary nominations.

The law provides that the fourteen men receiving the highest vote at the primary shall have their names placed on the official ballot and for seven of these each voter shall cast a ballot. However, they say there is no clause in the law which determines whether a voter shall cast his vote for seven or fourteen men at the primary.

Several lawyers are investigating the statutes in an effort to determine if they can withdraw the ballot at the primary shall have "vote for seven" or "vote for fourteen" inscribed on it.

Union Labor League Forms Resolutions of Its Principles

At a meeting of the Union Labor League Monday night, the following resolutions were adopted:

The working men of the city of Omaha, holding with the authors of the Declaration of Independence that we are entitled to the full possession of life, liberty, and the pursuit of happiness; that the machinery of production, distribution, communication and exchange should be owned collectively and distributed democratically and economically by the community, do hereby promulgate the following as our principles:

Whereas, the working men in the past have at all times indignantly and indiscriminately wasted their votes on aspirants for political offices whose interests were diametrically opposed to their own, and

Whereas, if the working men would solidly their votes they could, by consistent action, place in the executive offices men whose interests are identical with the wage earners. For that reason, we, the representatives of the various trades, hereby organize the Labor League of the city of Omaha, whose functions shall be to elect such men under the commission form of government, and the following is our declaration of principles:

We favor an honest, fair administration of the city government, which shall promote free speech, the right of lawful public assembly and justice.

We advocate ownership by the municipality of all plants and establishments which furnish to the people of Omaha gas and electric light and power and the establishment of coal and wood yards, ice plants, cold storage warehouses and free public markets, all of which shall be operated for the benefit of the people and not for profit.

We favor the municipal ownership of a single telephone system, which will relieve the people of two privately owned and miserably inadequate systems such as now exist in the city of Omaha.

We favor the establishment and maintenance by the municipality of public court stations conveniently located throughout the city.

We favor the extension of our park and playground systems.

We favor the establishment of social centers at school houses and other suitable places.

We advocate the establishment of free public baths, both in the city proper, at Carter lake and at other places where possible.

We look with abhorrence upon the spectacle of a modern city in an alleged civilized age which maintains a barbarous chain gang, a relic of a medieval period long ago abandoned by progressive communities of America. We promise to exert every effort to abolish this hideous institution.

We call attention to the present neglect of the poorer sections of the city to the advantage of the wealthy class, and we advocate a more equal distribution of funds and labor in this matter.

We favor the establishment of a free employment bureau to be operated by the municipality with the end in view of eliminating the harpies who now, by methods of extortion, misrepresentation and cheating the employed, bring untold suffering to those upon whom a great burden has already been cast.

We favor the establishment of a free hospital and recommend that the hospital recently acquired by the city be maintained as such.

We are opposed to the contract system such as now exists in the city of Omaha and stand for all public work now performed by Omaha citizens and that not over eight hours shall constitute a day's labor.

We stand for the rigid enforcement of the child labor law and the female labor law which is now constantly and flagrantly violated all over the city.

To the accomplishment of the ends above enumerated, the Labor League of the city of Omaha hereby pledges its hearty support and invites all laboring men to unite with us and solicit the support and co-operation of sympathizers and friends.

Some Men Are Too Lazy for Hard Work

"We need jobs for several men," said Miss Ida V. Jontz of the Associated Charities, "and if the people of the city have any work they want done at reasonable wages we will be glad if they will let us know."

Miss Jontz said the charities were making an effort to furnish work for the most deserving, but that it is sometimes difficult to find out who wants to be helped in that way.

One family has been helped for several weeks. The wife has been receiving much assistance, and herself is a hard-working washer woman. Miss Jontz prevailed upon her to bring her husband in and the three of them would plan how to support the family.

The husband came. He was a big, healthy and indolent fellow and Miss Jontz at once gave him work. He worked two hours and resigned, saying his wife took in four washings a week and therefore he didn't have to work.

COMMERCIAL CLUB MEN TO ATTEND FOOT BALL GAME

Sponting blood showed itself in the Commercial club today, when the executive committee passed resolutions recommending that every member of the club attend the foot ball game on Thanksgiving day between the Omaha High school and Chicago, and that each member do what he can to induce others to attend.

Youthful Charm To Aged Complexions

"Prematurely or middle-aged complexions can be made soft and velvety and given a pink and white tint of youth," says Mrs. Mae Martyn, in the New York Express. "But first of all, powder and rouge must be discarded because of their ruinous effect on the skin. In its place should be used a plain spumax lotion, made by dissolving 4 ounces spumax in 1/2 pint hot water and adding 2 teaspoonfuls glycerine. Using witch-hazel instead of water makes it dry quicker in cold weather."

"This lotion should be applied to face, neck and arms, then gently massaged in, and when it dries the skin takes on a soft, satiny finish. Continued using will remove pimples, blackheads, wrinkles and skin-roughness. It is especially fine for oily or 'muddy' complexions, and unlike powder, is invisible when on."—Adv.
