MUST GIVE COWS DAILY BATH

Inspector Orders that Dairy Herds Must Be Kept Clean.

THREE DAIRYMEN NOTIFIED

If the Rule is Not Complied With the Inspector Declares that He Will Refuse to Issue Licenses.

City Milk Inspector Bosse has ruled that cows in the Omaha dairies must be given a bath each day and has served the proprietors with notice to get busy. "Some of the cows are filthy," he said, "and the owners have not to carry them and clean them up or the department will take steps to notify their customers and warn the public. Also, if the cows are not kept clean enough so that a reasonable assurance against impure milk can be made the proprietors will be refused a license." Three dairymen were notified that if their cows were not bathed and given a shower bath before the next daily visit of the inspector action would be at once started to enforce the sanitation laws.

A MOTHER'S DUTY

It is the duty of every expectant mother to prepare her system for the coming of her little one; to avoid as far as possible the suffering of such occasions, and endeavor to pass through the crisis with her health and strength unimpaired. This she may do through the use of Mother's Friend, a remedy that has been so long in use, and accomplished so much good, that it is in no sense an experiment, but a preparation which always produces the best results. It is for external application and so penetrating in its nature as to thoroughly lubricate every muscle, nerve and tendon involved during the period before baby comes. It aids nature by expanding the skin and tissues, relieves tenderness and soreness, and perfectly prepares the system for natural and safe motherhood. Mother's Friend has been used and endorsed by thousands of mothers, and its use will prove a comfort and a benefit to any woman in need of such a remedy. Mother's Friend is sold at drug stores. Write for free book for expectant mothers, which contains much valuable information. MOTHER'S FRIEND BRANDEIS REGULATOR CO., Adams, Co.

Distinguished Jap Studies Railroads; Visits U. P. Officials

Among the passengers arriving on the Union Pacific "Overland Limited" from the west traveling as an ordinary tourist was S. Shimaka, president of the Japanese House of Parliament.

Arriving in Omaha unannounced and finding that he had a short time to remain before pursuing his eastward journey Mr. Shimaka halted a taxi cab and with his secretary took a spin about the city, going through the jobbing, retail and better residence sections, ending up at the new Union Pacific headquarters. Mr. Shimaka went to the rooms of General Manager Scott, conferred with him for a time on railroads generally and then visited the rooms of Assistant General Manager Sykes. Here the distinguished Japanese, who speaks English fluently, went into the workings of railroads in a manner that soon convinced the Union Pacific men that he knew his business. He talked of construction, operation and maintenance with a familiarity that is gained only after long years of active work.

NEGRO WOMEN ARE BEING ORDERED FROM THE CITY

It was the grand exodus for two-thirds of the dusky damsels who were brought before Judge Crawford in police court yesterday. In all twenty-eight negro women faced the judge on various charges, from public decency to those of street walking. Eighteen were ordered to stay in jail and make arrangements for tickets out of town. Two were sentenced to thirty days in the county jail and eight discharged.

"We are going to clean out this band of negro women who have been preying on holdups and robberies," said Chief of Police Donahue, "and that must be understood right now. We are giving them their choice of staying in jail in Omaha or leaving the city, and the majority of them will choose to leave." The frequency with which complaints have been made to the police department during the last few weeks that "black brigands" were committing robberies and picking the pockets of pedestrians on several of the principal streets has led to the action that is expected to put an end to the work of the negroes and will be enforced against all who are found guilty of violating the law in this manner.

SAYS ARREST IS CAUSED BY A GOSSIPY NEIGHBOR

Former Omahan, Nome Postmaster, is Snowbound Here

F. J. Kolash, former Omahan, but now postmaster of Nome, Alaska, has perhaps the most peculiar position of any postmaster working under the direction of the postmaster general, Mr. Kolash came to Omaha Monday to visit his old friends and his aunt, Mrs. Anna Palk, of 1820 North 24th street, and now he finds that he cannot return until next June, because of heavy snow. He has since secured permission from the postmaster general to stay away that long, although he originally asked for only a few weeks' leave.

Postmaster Kolash has two regular letter carriers, who each deliver mail on the "rural" routes every seventeen days, and they are generally forced to carry the mail overland on dog sleds. Most of the mail handled at Nome is called for by the persons living in the city and surrounding country, but the miners living several miles from the city have regular delivery service, about every seventeen days, if the weather permits. Sometimes it takes two months to deliver mail 200 miles from the city.

Can You Afford Handicaps?

During digestion the stomach requires nine times as much blood as when it is not active. Heavy, indigestible food takes energy from your working capacity. Mental "dullness" and that "logy feeling" usually comes from poor digestion. Don't be "dozey" during business hours—the wide-awake man, with good digestion and a clear brain will pass you—sure!

Grape-Nuts

is a partially pre-digested food, and contains the natural food elements from wheat and barley—albumen, phosphate of potash, etc., that keep the body and brain in perfect repair.

Grape-Nuts is a concentrated food and its rich nourishment is easily and quickly absorbed by the blood with but slight tax upon the digestive organs. One can be strong, well and brainy.
