STRAIN AND WORRY THE CAUSE

Nervous Debility Holds Countless Numbers of Men and Women In Its Grasp in Every Large City.

LOTTERY MAN IS INDICTED

J. R. Aitken Must Also Answer for Misuse of Mails.

HE DEALS IN WORTHLESS LAND

Is Accused of Making Everyone a Winner and Then Charging Heavily for Legal Documents.

John R. Aitken, indicted by the federal grand jury last month for conducting a lottery, has again been indicted on three counts, the alleged use of the mails to defraud. This indictment was returned by the special grand jury which has been investigating a number of complaints this week.

Aitken is said to have used the program of the Orpheum theater to advertise his scheme, and in each program was enclosed a ticket good for one chance on a lot 17 feet wide by 100 feet long in an arid county in Texas.

Union Pacific Pays Nearly Two Million Taxes in Ninety Days

Within the next sixty days, including what it has paid since the first of the present month, the Union Pacific Railroad company, through Tax Commissioner Scribner, will have paid approximately $1,700,000 in taxes to the states, counties and cities through which the lines run, not including the $250,000 federal income tax.

In Wyoming the road pays $277,000, about one-seventh of the entire tax of the state. Out there its valuation, as fixed by the state board, is $4,772,285, exclusive of the lands and coal properties. The entire valuation of the state, including the railroad properties, is but $130,000,000.

In Nebraska the Union Pacific pays $672,000; in Kansas, $409,000; in Colorado, $240,000; in Utah, $90,000.

In Nebraska $75,000 of the $672,000 will be paid during November. The Utah taxes will be paid this month and those of Wyoming and Kansas in December. The Colorado tax is due and payable early next year.

Suffragist Meets Man of Native Soil

There is one Omaha man who was especially interested in Mrs. Emmeline Pankhurst last week, but not because he is a suffragist, for he is in no sense an advocate of votes for women.

He is Robert Cowell, who hails from the Isle of Man, the quaint little island on which Mrs. Pankhurst's forefathers lived for centuries.

Mr. Cowell's ancestors are buried in the same graveyard of the old parish of Lonan where the parents and grandparents of Mrs. Pankhurst lie.

WITNESSES TO DEATH OF WILLIAM METZ ARE GONE

Lack of witnesses of the killing of William Metz by Harry L. Woodridge, former humane officer of the police department, will hamper County Attorney English's office in its struggle for a conviction when Woodridge is placed on trial in the criminal division of the district court within the next two or three weeks.

Metz was killed in a fight on North Sixteenth street near Jefferson square early last summer. Many of the witnesses were laborers of the floating class and loafers who spent their time lounging in the square and hanging around saloons nearby.

Deputy County Clerk Frank Dewey, chairman of the canvassing board, admitted this morning that the proof of the fallibility of the machines has been found.
