HELP WANTED-MALE

First Winter Term

Boyles College Day and Night Opens Monday, Dec. 4

Don't you know that you do that very thing by delaying your enrollment in Boyles College until January instead of entering

BOYLES COLLEGE

So, consequently, not to enroll now and to delay your enrollment until January means to less a whole month's salary as an expert Hookkeeper, Stenographer, Telegrapher or U.S. Civil Service Appointee. And that means just the same as throwing $40.00, 550.00, $50.00 or $75.00 away.

You don't want to do it. So, why not, in the name of all that's profitable to Four peckethook, enter at the beginning of the first Winter Term.

WHAT Navy training develops: When a boy ater being in the navy goes back home to visit, why do the other boys of his are seem young and undeveloped be-side him? The answer is—NAVY TRAIN-

Four years in the navy will build a strong physique; will teach self-reliance, obedience; will give alertness, wide-awakeness; will make a young man able to give orders and to take orders.

Beside that, the young man gets steady pay and good pay. He has the chance to save. Fine opportunities for promotion. And he has the congenial companhighly of fine young men.
The United States Navy has an ex-remely fine body of trained men. The lavy department wants and accepts only the best. It urges no man to enlist, but the best. It urges no man to enlist, but does recommend that serious-minded, ambitious young men between the ages of 17 and 25 investigate the navy's opportunities. Those stated above are by no means all.
