PUBLIC FUNDS ARE INCLUDED

Banking Board Sends Notice to Bankers About Reports.

BONDS MAKE NO DIFFERENCE

Such Institutions as Have Protected the State in This Fashion Must Also Report What Funds Are on Hand.

(From a Staff Correspondent.)

LINCOLN, Nov. 28.—(Special Telegram.)—Following a meeting of the State Banking board held today, it was decided to send a letter to the directors of the banks relative to the discontinuance of public money deposits with the bonds which have had to be put up during the year when no other protection was afforded for the deposit of such funds. The action is taken in consequence of the passage and enactment of the amendments to the guaranty deposit law, said amendments providing that public funds should be under the protection of this law as well as private funds.

The following is the letter which is sent to state bankers and which explains the move taken by the banking board:

At a meeting of the State Banking board held on November 28, 1911, the question as to whether or not the average daily deposits to be reported by banks should include public monies for which bonds had previously been provided, was discussed and a resolution of law in relation thereto fully considered. The board had under consideration particularly the letter part of section 45 of the banking act, which provides that depository funds shall be secured in the same manner that private funds are secured. Under an opinion of the legal department of the state this provision was held to apply to the extent of the requirement that depository bonds should be provided for public funds. It was concluded by the board that provision of section 45 which requires a statement showing the average daily deposits in banks for the preceding six months exclusive of public money otherwise secured, was placed in the original banking act passed in 1903, at a time when the depository law was in effect, and that now that the provisions of section 45 virtually amending that law have become effective, it is deemed that a fair construction of all the provisions of the law, requires the banks to make a statement of their average daily deposits, as well as private deposits. This will apply to the report of average deposits to be made in December, as well as those to be made in the future. Public funds do not need to be listed separately.

This letter is written that you may know the views and decision of the banking board upon this question. The board did not overlook the fact that some of the banks at the commencement of the year had given bonds to secure public funds, which bonds were due in two years, but it was thought by the board that this fact (although it works somewhat of a hardship on some of the banks) would not relieve the board from calling upon them for a statement that would include all their deposits, both public and private. It was suggested by the board that banks that have given surety bonds, will be able to take the matter up direct with surety companies and secure a settlement on the basis of short rates.

CHAMPION HUSKERS MEET NEAR NEBRASKA CITY TODAY

NEBRASKA CITY, Nov. 28.—(Special.)—Earl Neely, who claims to be the champion cornhusker of western Iowa, and Edgar Van Houton, who likewise claims the championship of the same territory, have arranged for a big husking contest on the Iowa bottoms near Percival tomorrow. Neely husked 219 bushels of corn in ten hours and Van Houton husked 20 bushels and thirty pounds in ten hours a few days after Neely did his great day's work. Van Houton did his work, like that of Neely, before three judges in the field and four at the scales where the corn was weighed and cribbed. Both contests took place west of Sidney on the bottoms. Tomorrow the contest will be witnessed by a large delegation from this city, as one man is a resident of this city and the other is well known here. Neely is a brother of Walker Neely of this city and his parents reside on a farm south of this city, while Van Houton is a farmer and resides on his own farm near Percival. Odds are being placed upon Van Houton because he is the heavier and more active of the two young men, and both are used to much hard work. Both men have broken all records for western Iowa and are to shake in fields where the yield is from forty to sixty bushels per acre.

NEW CLASSIFICATION IS OUT

State Railway Commission Issues Booklet Upon Rates.

ROADS BUYING MANY LISTS

Shippers May Find Them on File in Each Station in Nebraska—How Receipts from Sales Will Be Used.

(From a Staff Correspondent.)

LINCOLN, Nov. 28.—(Special.)—The state railway commission has gone into the book business or at least it has indicated that it will sell printed copies of the new freight classification at the rate of 25 cents per copy. The books are ready and contain the classification which is to become effective and operative December 15. Railroads of the state are the heaviest buyers of the books and already 500 copy orders have been placed by the hands of the commissioners by the Burlington and the Union Pacific roads. Sales to the shippers are not expected to be large in view of the fact that a copy of the book will be available for use in all of the stations of the state. The classification increases the minimum weights on about two-thirds of the 1,000 articles on its lists. It affects interstate shipments on all roads and known as Nebraska schedule No. 1. Heretofore, the other intrastate schedule known as No. 2 has been in effect in this state, the having been refused the roads all applications for changes.

Receipts to Treasury

Receipts from the sale of the books will not revert direct to the commission, but will be collected by the printer. The cost of the printing will be deducted out of the proceeds and then the extra proceeds will be given to the commission. From the commission it will go to the state treasury.

This manner of handling the printing is not thought to be in exact accordance with the constitution inasmuch as it violates the provision which provides that all fees are to be turned into the state treasury before being paid out by any department. It is also against the spirit of the Gerdes law passed at the last session of the legislature, which set all fees at less than to be paid into the state treasury and then appropriated for the use of the department for which they came. Since this new law went into effect the following departments have collected and turned in fees as follows:

Table listing departments and their respective fees: Secretaries of the board of health, $696.00; State auditor, $125.00; State food commissioner, $61.00; Insurance Department, $100.00; Fur examination of the following companies: Kansas City Life, $267.00; Farmers' Equity Life, $200.00; Eastern Indemnity company, $110.00; Independent Order of Foresters, $100.00; Woodmen circle (to date), $130.00.

Commissioner-elect Hall, it is understood, will not formally take office until January 1, by which time he expects to have his business affairs in such a condition that he can devote his whole time to his work. Valuable Pigeons Stolen

CENTRAL CITY, Neb., Nov. 28.—(Special.)—Thieves entered the poultry pens at W. H. Rogan's home last Friday night and carried away part of his pigeons and then returned the following night and took most of those that were left. The pens were entered the first night and taken. Saturday night the pens were entered again and twenty-five more were taken, almost cleaning up the flock. The only clue Mr. Rogan has of the thieves is some footprints left in the freshly laid cement floor of the chicken house. In the cement can be traced very distinctly the footprints of a man, and also much smaller ones, apparently those of a boy. The pigeons taken are very valuable, a Mr. Rogan paid as much as $10 for one pair.

William Flege Gets New Trial by Ruling of Supreme Court

LINCOLN, Nov. 28.—(Special.)—A ruling in the case of William Flege, the Dixon county man who was convicted of the murder of his sister, was given by the state supreme court today, that body reversing the action and remanding it to the district court for a new trial. Flege has been out on $25,000 bail since last May. The case is one which attracted widespread attention in northeastern Nebraska, and the murder of the Flege girl was one of the most atrocious crimes ever committed in that part of the state. A new automobile which Flege bought and over which he had some disputes with his brother and sister is alleged to have been at the bottom of the trouble which ended in the killing of the girl. Flege was sentenced to life imprisonment for the deed, but upon the filing of a motion for the new trial he was given his liberty for the big bail. The key to success in business is the judicious and persistent use of newspaper advertising.

AMERICAN & IDEAL RADIATORS & BOILERS

A feature which has made IDEAL Boilers so popular is their large fuel-holding fire-pots, and which are corrugated so that just the right volume of air is admitted to be burned with the fuel to produce the highest possible percentage of heat from every ounce of fuel consumed. This scientifically proportioned, correct ratio of air to fuel largely accounts for their remarkable heating qualities—just as air-mixing mantles yield highest illuminating power. It is this fuel-saving feature which causes an IDEAL Boiler to so soon repay its cost.

Besides, a large body of fire gives steady results and sure control. Once kindled the fire will not go out all winter, if fuel is added once or twice a day and ashes removed every other day. These and many other exclusive features make IDEAL Boilers and AMERICAN Radiators the most efficient and economical in the world, yet at prices now within reach of the humblest cottager and the family that has most need to economize.

A No. 20 IDEAL Boiler and 175 ft. of 2 1/2 in. AMERICAN Radiators, costing the owner $110, were used to heat this cottage. At this price the boiler can be bought of any reputable, competent fitter. This did not include costs of labor, pipe, valves, fittings, etc., which are extra and vary according to climatic and other conditions.
