

MORE EFFECTIVE THAN HE THOUGHT POSSIBLE

A Well Known Insurance Man Tells of His Recent Experience.

WORKS WITH MUCH LESS EFFORT

MARTIN SAYS NEW TONIC IS VALUABLE, JUDGING FROM HIS CONDITION AND THE GREAT BENEFIT HE RECEIVED.

"Judging from my own experience, I do not hesitate to say that 'Tona Vita,' as it is called, is an extremely valuable preparation," said Mr. G. W. Martin, a well known insurance man of 131 North Thirty-eighth street, city, recently. "In fact," continued he, "it has proved more effective than I had believed possible.

"So far as my own case is concerned, I have been in a run-down condition for the past six months, tiring easily and being troubled with sleeplessness. I seemed to lack vitality, as I caught cold very readily and my digestion and appetite were far from what they should be. Nervousness was also part of my trouble, and I was depressed and run down.

"My condition grew so serious that I had to be attended by several physicians. Nothing seemed to do me any good, however, and I can say that I now feel stronger than for a long time. I have more energy and my work is done with much less effort. I sleep and eat better and feel as though rejuvenated. I am a well man. I take pleasure in saying that this preparation has been far more effective than any medicine I have ever before taken."

One of the specialists who are meeting the public in Omaha and explaining the nature of the new tonic said: "We are receiving endorsements from scores of men and women of unquestioned integrity here in Omaha, who have found 'Tona Vita' to be all we claim, but we are especially glad to receive statements of this character from men who are so well and favorably known as Mr. Martin.

"We want the men and women of this city who are suffering with what is called a 'run-down condition' to try this medicine. If the results are not entirely satisfactory we refund the price paid for the medicine. We know we have the greatest tonic ever offered the public in this country, but we can't prove this to an individual unless he or she is willing to try it. Our time in Omaha is limited, so that we are anxious to have as many people as we can conveniently talk to call during the next few days. We are meeting a great many people and the numbers are increasing each day, but when we realize how many debilitated, nervous people there are in this big city who would be greatly benefited by 'Tona Vita' it seems positively wicked that either through carelessness or skepticism they do not try this tonic."

The specialists are at the Brandeis Drug Dept., 16th and Douglas Street, South Side, Main Floor, from 9 a. m. to 6 p. m. daily.—Adv.

NEEDED AT THE CITY MISSION

Miss Magee Has a Large Family and Seeks Aid for Members.

FOOD AND CLOTHING DESIRED

Many Children Are Found Who Are Without Shoes and Stockings as Well as Warm Under-garments.

A pig, a clock, soup bones and vegetable bouquets, odd jobs for men and women, underwear for children and stout shoes for all sizes, ages and sexes—these are the things which, according to Miss Nellie Magee, are most needed at the City Mission.

Miss Magee wants one large pig for the Thanksgiving dinner to be given at the Mission for the Mothers' club December 7.

The dinner to be given at the Mission for the Mission mothers numbering over 100 women is an annual event. They gather together with the youngest children which cannot be left at home, gather at the Mission for the heartiest, happiest dinner of the whole year. Miss Magee has had promises of chickens and vegetables and asks only the pig to make the feast complete.

THREE PIGS LAST YEAR.

Last year three small roasted sucklings were the main article of food at the Mothers' dinner. Miss Magee thinks that one large pig will make a more impressive centerpiece for the huge dinner table. It is also a custom at the City Mission to furnish a little snack to the hungry just before the evening prayer and song service. The woman who for several years supplied the meat bones for soup has moved away from Omaha. Miss Magee thinks that hot soup is more nourishing for cold insides than coffee and has the big kettle all ready to simmer the bones and vegetables. Miss Magee is looking for odd jobs for men and women who come to her for help. Many of the men, says Miss Magee, have been doing farm work and have no work for the winter.

Warm underwear for the children is the thing needed perhaps more than anything else. So many little boys and girls down City Mission way have chilly little bodies for lack of warm underthings that Miss Magee cannot supply them all. Miss Magee knows one little 5-year old girl who cannot get out to go to school because she has no shoes. A sieve of diphtheria has gone through the family which numbers seven children, a mother and a father who is having a hard time to tide over the cold weather. Shoes are needed, not only for the youngsters but also for the grown-ups.

The need for clothing and food at the City Mission will be greater this year than formerly because the Mission will not get the usual donation from the public schools. The schools assigned to give their Thanksgiving offerings to the Mission are so widely separated that it cannot afford to send for them. The Mission does not boast a wagon and horse to call for donations and will be glad to have them brought to the Mission, 116 North Tenth street.

The City Mission was the one bright spot in the neighborhood of North Tenth street yesterday. The big coal stove was working overtime, the canary birds were singing, the sunshine smiled in and Miss Magee was smiling too. A big laboring man was diligently sewing the torn places in his canvas jacket and another man was waiting for Miss Magee to get him a job.

Business Teachers Go to Kansas City to Land Convention

Several local business teachers are planning to attend the convention of the Missouri Valley Commercial Teachers' association which will be held at Kansas City on Friday and Saturday of this week. From the high school the following will attend: Prof. L. C. Rummel, head of the commercial department; Mabel C. Allison, head typewriting teacher, and James Knott, commercial correspondence instructor. Mr. and Mrs. H. B. Boyles of the Boyles Commercial college will also go.

Prof. Rummel of the high school will make strenuous efforts to land the 1912 convention for Omaha while there. The Commercial club has endorsed the idea and has provided him with sufficient badges and advertising material of Omaha to make a good showing.

This is always one of the most important educational conventions of the middle west and brings representatives from Nebraska, Iowa, Kansas, Missouri, Colorado, Illinois and Arkansas. This association takes the place of the sectional divisions of commercial work in the various state teachers' associations.

Omaha Butter Does Not Follow Elgin

Butter on the Elgin market advanced 1 cent yesterday, but, departing from their habit of quoting a price 2 cents above the Elgin market, the Omaha creameries put their prices up only 1 cent.

The Elgin price today is 35 cents and the Omaha price 36 cents, the Elgin price, however, being quoted on butter by the tub, and the Omaha price on butter delivered in small quantities in one-pound cartons. The general retail price in Omaha is 40 cents, though some quote butter from state creameries at 38 cents.

The Omaha Produce exchange recently went out of business, but members say this has nothing to do with the narrowing of the margin between Elgin and Omaha quotations.

OMAHA MASON'S WERE AT NOTABLE CONCLAVE

Omaha Masons who attended the supreme council of Scottish Rite Masons for the southern jurisdiction of the United States at Cedar Rapids, Ia., Saturday, say it was one of the most notable Masonic conclaves ever held in this part of the country. The thirty-third degree was conferred upon eighteen candidates, among whom were the following Nebrascans: C. E. Herring and C. L. Shook, Omaha; Colonel John H. McClay, Lincoln, and George W. James, Hastings.

Other thirty-third degree Masons from Nebraska present were: W. T. Bourke and Victor White, Omaha; Charles H. Rodge and C. C. Quiggle, Lincoln; W. T. Bourke, C. E. Herring and Colonel McClay responded to toasts on the banquet program.

Turkey Day Dinner to Be Cheaper This Year Than Year Ago

Exposure of Kettle River Combine Shows How Omaha Lost

TWO OMAHA STREETS PAVED

Competition is Throttled by the Law Which Permits the Designation of the Kind of Material.

Turkeys are 3 to 4 cents cheaper this Thanksgiving season than a year ago. Prices for tomorrow run the way from 20 to 25 cents, with the majority of stores selling at 20 to 25 cents. Last year most of the shops quoted prices from 25 to 30 cents.

Ducks are quoted for tomorrow's sale at 14 to 15 cents; geese, at 12 to 15 cents and chickens at 10 to 12½ cents, these prices being under those of last year.

Cranberries, however, are higher than a year ago, so much higher that the restaurants which served cranberry pie last year do not have it on their list this season. Good cranberries are 12½ to 15 cents a quart; last Thanksgiving they were 10 to 12½ cents.

Some of the outside stores quoted turkeys Monday at 25 cents, but have been forced to cut. Martin Reum says the market is flooded and that the price will stay down till all are supplied for their Thanksgiving dinner.

CRUSADE TO BE MADE AGAINST POST CARDS

As the result of a number of complaints which have been received in the office of United States Attorney Howell from young women in Omaha and vicinity who have been receiving off-color post cards from unknown persons, federal authorities are preparing to wage a bitter fight against both the senders and the persons or firms manufacturing the postals.

In many cases, the makers of the "souvenir" postal cards know that they are unmarketable, but manufacture them anyway, and not a few of the cards fall into the hands of degenerates who will attempt to send them to women acquaintances. The most suggestive of these cards have stamped on the bottom, the word, "unmentionable," but despite this fact, many find their way into the post offices.

"The very fact that on the reverse side of the card are printed the words, 'Post Card,' and are sold as cards which are unmentionable," says Mr. Howell, "name the seller and maker liable, and I am hereby giving warning that wherever possible we will prosecute to the fullest extent of the law anyone caught. And we can catch them too, for this is no new problem."

According to George W. Craig, city engineer, the job would have totaled about $42,000, but the Kettle River company was informally called on to complete the work for $40,000, which was the actual amount paid by the taxpayers for the entire paving.
