NEWS NOTES FROM EDGAR
Ladies' Auxiliary of Farmers' Institute Serve Thanksgiving Dinner to Visitors.
 EDGAR, Neb., Dec. 1.—(Special.)—The Ladies' auxiliary of the Farmers' Institute served their regular annual dinner Thanksgiving evening in the dining room of the fraternal hall. Nearly 50 guests were served with an excellent turkey dinner, after which a splendid program was rendered in the opera house. The program consisted of instrumental and vocal music and tableaux, all of which were of a high character, and very much enjoyed by the audience.
 A number of republicans of Clay county are strongly progressive and are engaged in organizing La Follette clubs. Four prominent republicans have been appointed to circulate pledges and secure signatures of those who favor the movement and will join the clubs. P. A. Caldwell was the appointee for the territory Edgar and vicinity. A. H. Lewis for Sutton, Judge L. H. Ritzer for Clay Center and Mon Broderick for Fairfield. Mr. Caldwell has been actively at work since his appointment and has secured more than 100 signers, who have pledged themselves to work for the interests of the movement. A meeting was held tonight at the opera house, addressed by local speakers, who have been heretofore prominent in the republican party.

LIND PLEADS GUILTY TO TWO BURGLARY CHARGES
 Charles Lind has pleaded guilty to two charges of burglary before Judge Howard Kennedy in the criminal division of the district court. Sentence was deferred until next week to determine whether his terms should be concurrent or successive. Early in November Lind entered the home of Fred M. Hain and stole $85 worth of jewelry. Later in the month he stole $29 worth of jewelry from the home of Edgar Weeks.
 James Martin, charged with picking a watch and chain from the pocket of Louis H. Beasley on November 30, pleaded not guilty to a grand larceny charge.
 William Maher, charged with assault

TRIAL OF HOTEL CLERK WILSON IS NOW STARTED
 Trial of James Wilson, the rooming house hotel clerk charged with perjury for alleged doctoring of the hotel register to help clear one of the men accused of fraudulent registration, has begun before Judge Leslie in county court. Wilson is said to have altered his register so as to indicate the man lived in the house, when as a matter of fact he did not live there. Then, it is charged, he took the witness stand and swore no one had tampered with the book.
