

The Entire Bankrupt Stock of The Culp-Langworthy Clothes Shop Goes on Sale Sat., Dec. 2, at 8:30 A. M.

At the S. E. Cor. of 16th and Harney Sts. City National Bank Building

The "Classiest," absolutely highest grade line of Men's Suits and Overcoats Ever Brought to Omaha, is offered you regardless of Cost. At ONE-HALF PRICE and even LESS.

You must admit that The Culp-Langworthy Clothes Shop stood for all that is "classy," "smart" and "tony" in gentlemen's attire

Bankruptcy or no bankruptcy, it MUST be admitted that The Culp-Langworthy Clothes Shop was the highest classed men's attire establishment in the city of Omaha.

Its very windows, the fixtures; the general air of the establishment, betokened CLASS. The superbly groomed Omaha KNEW that he could FIND goods of HIS calling at Culp-Langworthy's; so there is every reason to believe that the men's suits and overcoats offered here at HALF price are the FINEST ever shown to, or worn by, a Nebraskan.

Come here expecting to find a garment in a texture and of a style heretofore denied you in Omaha; unless you have been buying your clothes at this "shop." A full stock greets you Saturday—but be quick—the selling will create a record in Omaha.

Important Note

Owing to the limited floor space in the Culp-Langworthy establishment, the clothing will be placed on sale first, the hats and furnishings to follow at a date to be announced later.

All Garments at about HALF PRICE

$9.95

sold up to $20. Think of that! HALF Price

Takes choice of all of the Culp-Langworthy Suits and Overcoats that have

All Garments at about HALF PRICE

$12.45 for all Culp-Langworthy Suits and Overcoats that have been bringing up to $22.50. Yes, even $25. The "Swagger Dresser" will fairly revel in this lot.

$14.95 for all Culp-Langworthy Suits and Overcoats that were priced at from $25 to $30 until now. The snappiest garments to be had for the winter of 1911.

$17.45 Buys Men's 1911 Winter Suits and Overcoats that have been bringing $30 to $35 in the Culp-Langworthy establishment. Extremely "Tony"

$19.85 Takes all Culp-Langworthy Suits and Overcoats that have been sold at from $35 to $43. The VERY highest graded clothing shown in Omaha today

Don't let the date escape you---Saturday, Dec. 2, 8:30 A. M.---And the location---S. E. Cor. of 16th and Harney. City Nat'l Bank Bldg.

"Brands" of Men's Clothing upon which millions of dollars have been spent in advertising make up the Culp-Langworthy stock.

You KNOW, to a certainty, what to expect of such makes as:

- The "L" System
- Sturm-Mayer
- Garson-Meyer
- Adler's Collegian
- Brandigee-Kinkaid
- Granert Rothschild
- and other makes of equal prestige.

Remember, they are Men's Suits and Overcoats in colors and weights for right now.

From Omaha's Near Neighbors

Blair.
Max Taylor spent Sunday visiting friends in Albion, Neb.
Uncle Johnnie Robbins is spending the week with his daughter at Carroll, Ia.
Dr. and Mrs. Bernstein of Hartington spent Thanksgiving at the W. D. Haller home.
Mrs. Rothery of Omaha visited with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Pierce, last week.
Watson Tyson celebrated his eightieth birthday anniversary Thursday with a family party.
Miss Louise Michael of Tekamah visited with her cousins, Misses Hilda and Edith Schmahling.
Earnest Dixon, a young farmer north of Blair, sold a bunch of chickens which brought him $15.
Three Blair merchants paid County Judge Eller $30 and costs each for selling tobacco to minors last Thursday.
Mr. and Mrs. Forest Wentworth celebrated their first wedding anniversary at the Grimm brothers' home last Friday.
Clerk of the District Court E. C. Jackson and wife celebrated the forty-ninth anniversary of their marriage Thanksgiving day.
Mr. and Mrs. Lyman Peck of Calhoun, and Mrs. James Foley of Omaha were guests at the Eastern Star meeting Thursday evening.
Mrs. Carrie E. Wright of Schuyler, state grand matron of the Eastern Star, will inspect McKinley chapter of this city Tuesday, December 5.

Miss Helen Cone of Ashland and Miss Cora Barclay of South Omaha were guests at the home of C. R. Gates over Saturday and Sunday.
County Judge Eller issued the license and officiated at the wedding of Mr. Jesse Laughlin of Coleman, S. D., and Miss Ethel M. Ballard of this city.
Mrs. A. J. Taylor, daughter, Ariene, and son, Paul, are starting the week with her daughters, Mrs. B. S. Fletcher of Schuyler and Mrs. G. A. Smith of Mead.
Willard Eakin, secretary to Senator Hitchcock, with his wife, spent Sunday at the home of his parents, west of Kennard. His sister, Miss Hattie Eakin, will spend the winter with them in Washington.

Arlington.
Henry Godel was a Fremont visitor Tuesday.
Frank Reynolds was a Fremont visitor Saturday.
George Seerest of Elk City was a business caller here Tuesday.
G. A. Marshall of the Arlington Nurseries was a Lincoln visitor Friday.
B. G. Nunnally left for southern Kentucky Sunday, where he will spend the winter.
Miss Myrtle McKibbin returned home Sunday from Winslow, where she was employed in the postoffice during a week's vacation by Postmaster Marks.

B. C. Marshall, an aged retired farmer, was seriously hurt Wednesday by being run into by a runaway team. Mr. Marshall was in a light buggy and was thrown out and bruised very much.
At the regular meeting Wednesday of the Odd Fellows' lodge these officers were elected for next year: Noble grand, H. J. McKibbin; vice grand, F. W. Pfeiffer; secretary, G. L. Pfeiffer; treasurer, F. G. Menking; trustee, E. S. Menking.

Millard.
Miss Marie Neisen was an Omaha visitor Saturday.
Miss Lois Anderson, who teaches near Elkhorn, was home over Sunday.
Mr. and Mrs. William von Dohren, Jr., spent several days in Omaha last week. Messrs. Henry von Dohren and Pete Sorenson motored to Omaha Saturday afternoon.
Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Dagerman visited Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Dagerman at Benson.
Miss Frances Thoecke, Miss Dangaard and Miss Tina Neisen went to Omaha Saturday morning.
Messrs. Theodore and Charles Anderson, Chris Thoecke and Leslie Wheeler autoed to Omaha Sunday.
Mr. and Mrs. Boedel and daughter, Rose, of Omaha attended the Frahm party Sunday evening.
Mr. and Mrs. Baldwin returned from Lincoln Monday. Their daughter, Mrs. Murphy, and son accompanied them home for an indefinite stay.
Mr. and Mrs. Frank entertained many relatives and friends Sunday evening in honor of Mrs. Frahm's birthday anniversary. Large luncheon, cards, games and cards proved the most interesting entertainment of the evening.

Elkhorn.
Ora Hollister was at Omaha several days last week.
Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Nouns entertained company Thanksgiving.
Mr. and Mrs. E. H. Sturtevant of Omaha spent Thanksgiving at the Baldwin home.
Miss Frieda Gregerson, who has spent the last few months in Colorado, returned home Thursday.
Dr. Hickey and family came down from Bennington to eat turkey with Mr. and Mrs. C. White on Thursday.
Mr. and Mrs. Henry Keyserberg and daughter spent Thanksgiving with Mr. Keyserberg's sister, Mrs. Subben.
The Thanksgiving ball given by Julius Schult was well attended, many being here from all the adjoining towns.
Mrs. J. E. Pate went to Omaha Wednesday to meet a sister from Arlington. She came home Thursday morning.
Miss Doris Mickey went to Lincoln Friday to attend the foot ball game and to spend Thanksgiving with her brother, Clark's, family.
T. J. McCormick of Burke, S. D., came Thursday for a visit. He reports crops as not being very good in that country this year, there being a heavy frost in August.

Irvington.
Chris Peterson of Benson spent Thanksgiving at Dett's.
Miss Clara Hendrickson is visiting her sister in David City.
Myron Hall is seriously ill with a hemorrhage of the lungs.
Austin Anderson, who has been quite ill, has been reported better.
Miss Katie Peterson of Benson spent Thanksgiving with her father, A. C. Dein.
The revival meetings held by the Irvington Congregational church are now in progress.
District No. 39 gave a program and box supper Tuesday evening. The proceeds amounted to $5.
Mrs. and Miss Gillespie and Miss Amy Clark of Council Bluffs were the guests of Mrs. D. C. Kratz Thanksgiving.
Mr. and Mrs. H. H. Harmon and family of Lincoln spent Thanksgiving day at the home of Mr. and Mrs. D. C. Kratz.
Mr. and Mrs. Peter Munson and daughter Maude and Mr. and Mrs. Will Pamp-and family spent Thanksgiving at C. E. Pamp's.

Mr. and Mrs. John Anderson and family and Mr. and Mrs. Joe Freeman spent Sunday with their parents, Mrs. and Mrs. John Anderson.
The Congregational and Christian churches of Irvington held their union Thanksgiving services at the Irvington Christian church.
The Christian Endeavor society of the Christian church gave a box social and program Friday evening. The Irvington band furnished music for the event. The proceeds amounted to $33.
Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Brewster entertained Mr. and Mrs. E. Brewster and family and Mr. and Mrs. Charlie Cowen of Omaha, Carl Hibbard, Elias Brewster and Roy and Ray Brewster on Thanksgiving day.
Waterloo.
Mrs. George Niel returned last week from her visit to her daughter and other relatives at Elkhorn.
Thomas Appleby and sister, Miss Anna Appleby, went to Omaha Sunday afternoon to visit relatives a few days.
Mr. and Mrs. E. S. Fox came out Wednesday evening in their car to enjoy Thanksgiving dinner with Mrs. Nelson.
Clarence McWhorter of Norfolk, a nephew of William McWhorter, was here the first of the week visiting his uncle and family.
W. T. Waldron has located at Verdigris, Neb., having been elected cashier of the Knox County bank at Verdigris Thursday last week.
Mr. and Mrs. Hiland Noyes and Judge Emerson, Ia., who were here last week for Thanksgiving dinner at the Noyes farm, where a family gathering was held.
James Allen and wife arrived Wednesday from Missouri and are visiting Mrs. Allen's brother, Edna Brown, and her daughter, Mrs. Harve Purchase, and family.
Mrs. Mendel Park has been visiting Mrs. S. A. Teal the last week. Mrs. Gardner came from the Bluffs Monday and visited over night, returning Tuesday afternoon.
George E. Jackett of Gretna, Neb., has been here a few days this week visiting his daughter, Mrs. W. J. Mack. Mrs. Jackett came Wednesday evening for the Thanksgiving dinner.
Mr. and Mrs. Herbert McWhorter and daughters, Inez and Mina, came in Wednesday afternoon from Hooper to spend the Thanksgiving holidays with their Waterloo relatives.
Mr. and Mrs. E. G. Johnson and children of Emerson, Ia., who were here last week visiting Mrs. Johnson's brother, G. A. Bink, and other relatives, left Friday morning last for Schuyler, where they will reside.

Springfield.
Roger Gelb was up from Peru last Saturday.
Mr. and Mrs. Charles Rodgers of Olympia, Wash., are here on a visit.
H. Fregendaum was called to Wathena, Kan., by the serious illness of his mother.
Mrs. Fritz Swanson died suddenly on Wednesday last for Hooper and left six small children.
Moses Martin expects to go to Tennessee for his health and has advertised his personal effects for sale.
Nick Van Hattama was given a surprise last week when his father gave him a deed to a farm near Modale, Ia.
Ford Bates, E. Christenson, W. C. Bates and J. C. Miller attended the Nebraska-Michigan foot ball game Saturday.
Willie Kleck, Roger Gelb, Frank Begley, Loyd Morrison, Alola Ewell and Eula Bales were home for Thanksgiving.
Wilson Johnson was given a patent on a device for a railroad engine taking water along the track while running.
Loyd Wright has invented a monoplane and gave an exhibition of it on Thursday. He has experimented on it for a year or so.

Tekamah.
Tekamah has organized a checker club. W. A. Wassum, the Omaha railway agent here, is president.
The large majority of our farmers have

One of these 10,000 MISSION CLOCKS is yours if you will secure two subscriptions to a weekly magazine.

This 8-DAY MISSION CLOCK of black finished dried oak with raised metal numerals, large brass pendulum and ornamental side weights, cup bell strikes the half hour and accidental gone on the hour. SIZE 14x17. Is yours at no cost to you.

A Superb Xmas Gift—A Perfect Timekeeper

A handsome object of American art, suitable for the finest home. If we hear from you before Nov. 15, this clock will be shipped Dec. 15. Send us your name and address and we will tell you what to do, to get it. It is worth the asking for.

WRITE TO NIGHT TO MISSION CLOCK DEPT. Blue Building, Scranton, Pa.

Don't wait for Luck to fall into your lap. Take a firm grip on Opportunity.

You Need Vitality, Strength, Force.

If you are Weak, Nerveless, Bloodless, your arms are bound, your energies paralyzed.

Scott's Emulsion is the Vitalizer—and your opportunity.

TRADE-MARK ALL DRUGGISTS 11-48

Holiday Remembrances

Suggestions From "The Gift Store"

It is an absolute fact that every article in this store is specially suitable for a pleasing Christmas remembrance. There isn't anything nicer than one of the splendid Mezzotints, and as we are cutting off one-fourth of the price between now and Christmas, it makes an opportunity not to be lightly regarded.

By way of suggestion we call your attention to the fact that we have a most complete line of the world's best pictures—at prices that you can afford to pay. Powell Proofs, Campbell Prints, Burlington Proofs, etc.

Specimens of Art in Actual Photograph, Hand Colored Engravings by the world's foremost colorists.

In addition to our well known line of pictures, we have, for the Holiday trade, innumerable specialties of exquisite daintiness at prices that put them within the range of possibilities.

Imported Tapestries, and Tapestry covered boxes for Milady's bureau—Smoking Sets of Brass and Gun Metal for the man that has to keep his ashes off the carpet.

Artificial flowers for the home—Christmas Holly and Mistletoe for those who appreciate the uses of Mistletoe in the Holiday season.

Suppose you spend a few minutes with us. Just let us show you how to solve every Christmas difficulty, won't you?

A. HOPSE CO.
(Framar's Craft Shop)
1613 Douglas Street . . . Omaha, Neb.

THE OMAHA BEE Less than a penny and cleaner than any.