JOB HARRIMAN IS DEFEATED Los Angeles Socialists Lose by About Forty Thousand Votes.

MANY STAY AWAY FROM POLLS In Precincts Where Heaviest Socialist Vote Was Expected the Vote Proved to Be Unusually Light.

LOS ANGELES, Cal., Dec. 6.—The total vote of 70 out of 97 precincts that participated in the election yesterday showed:

Mayor George Alexander, good government candidate, 59,062.

Bob Harriman, socialist candidate, 37,044.

Our campaign starts today, he declared. "We will take the legislature next year."

The defeated candidate for mayor next year said the showing made yesterday was something the socialists could be proud of.

Scott's Vote Lowest. Predictions that that a reaction in the vote would be made.
