Oregon.

PORTLAND, The Great City of the Northwest.

This is a special offer for quick sale. Must be seen to appreciate its value.
54 acres located three and one-half miles from the city limits. Macadamized road all the way, on one side of which are beautiful homes and on the other side the Willamette river.
The surrounding land is platted and large, massive homes are under construction.
This land is surveyed into acres with roads to each acre. These roads are not, however, deducted from the acreage. The soil is rich, black loam, and needs no irrigation. Fruit growing is very profitable here, especially small fruits such as strawberries. The Logan berry, etc., raising is a profitable business, yielding about a half crop the first year, and netting from $500 to $800 per acre second year. Potatoes and cucumbers are produced in large quantities.
A car line is being built and we are but a short distance from creameries and cash markets.
Price, $32,400, if taken before January first; half cash, balance to suit purchaser.
Address owner, Mrs. E. F. Taylor, Oregon Hotel, Portland, Ore.
