

RAILROAD MEN TO WYOMING

They Will Be Largely Represented at Meeting of Wool Men.

BIG DELEGATION COMING HERE

At Conclusion of Season in Cheyenne Delegates Will Board a Train for Omaha to Attend the National Meeting.

A dozen or more prominent railroad men are preparing to make their presence felt at the annual convention of the Wyoming Wool Growers' association in Cheyenne next Monday.

The Burlington will be represented by Assistant General Freight Agent Montgomery and John Petric, general live stock agent, and all of the local live stock agents who cover western Nebraska and Wyoming.

Here the Union Pacific freight men will resolve themselves into a reception committee to assist in entertaining the delegates to the national convention of the Wool Growers' association that convenes in Omaha Thursday.

The Omaha men who go to the Cheyenne meeting expect to remain until the close of the convention, accompanying the delegates to this city.

They Are Enthusiastic

Omaha railroad men are all enthusiastic over both the Cheyenne and Omaha meetings. They anticipate a large attendance at both places and two very important and interesting meetings.

Iowa Uni Debating Teams

TEAM TO MEET NEBRASKA.

TEAM TO MEET ILLINOIS.

Last evening the Iowa debaters held a meeting with Nebraska at Lincoln and Illinois at Iowa City. The team at Lincoln had the negative of the question, "Resolved, That the ship subsidy is necessary to the American merchant marine."

J. Grant Pegg Wants Colored Assistant

John Grant Pegg, city inspector of weights and measures, has directed a communication to the city council objecting to the appointment of a white man as assistant inspector.

"It is not necessary to appoint more than one assistant inspector of weights and measures. I have consulted with Principal Dyett, Rev. John A. Williams, W. F. Bots and some of the leading negro business men in the city and they are of the same opinion."

RINE GOES TO ST. LOUIS TO ARGUE VIADUCT CASE

City Attorney John A. Rine will leave next week for St. Louis to uphold the city's side in the suit to compel the Missouri Pacific Railroad company to construct a viaduct at Forty-fifth and Dodge streets.

From Omaha's Near Neighbors

Editor Fred Fassett of Herman was in Blair Saturday. Bernard Haller was a passenger to Omaha Sunday evening.

Congressman Loback's secretary, J. H. Hanley, was in Blair last week. Clarence Dell of Lincoln spent Thanksgiving with his brother, Attorney George Dell.

W. H. Williams, editor of the Blair Tribune, left on Tuesday for a six weeks' trip to California.

Attorney Clark O'Hanlon and wife autoed to Arlington and ate turkey dinner with Judge Marshall at the home of Mrs. H. A. Westworth, superintendent of the Blair railroad bridge, returned Saturday from a trip to the Gulf coast in Texas.

Mr. and Mrs. Earl Stanfield of Omaha and Mrs. Fred Robertson of Herman were Thanksgiving visitors at the home of A. C. Jones.

John Schmaling was elected by the Modern Woodmen lodge as a delegate to the Chicago convention to protest against an increase in rates.

The high school foot ball players and their best girls were entertained on Monday evening at the home of County Attorney Carrigan by his daughter, Miss Phyllis.

A letter to Mr. and Mrs. Evans from their son, C. O. Evans at San Francisco, says he would leave the following day for China as chief quartermaster on the Cincinnati.

J. P. Gage of Fremont, grand secretary of the Odd Fellows, evening and helped confer the third degree on four candidates.

Judge Troup, at a session of the district court on Saturday, visited Mrs. Bertha Baker a divorcee from Attorney F. S. Baker, who is located in the western part of the state.

Elkhorn. Mrs. A. McGrew and daughter, Mrs. H. A. Muckelmann, were at Omaha Tuesday.

Albert Gernberg and family of Trainor, Ia., are visiting this week at the Bay and Claisen homes.

Casper Dellidotta lost a horse this week which he recently purchased, the animal having contracted a severe case of distemper.

William Anderson is improving his residence, recently purchased of Mrs. Livingston, by adding new porches, fence, plastering and papering. Mrs. R. J. McCormick will occupy it until spring at least.

George Frost, an old resident of Douglas county, died last Friday at an Omaha hospital, where he was taken several weeks ago. He leaves a wife, Mrs. William Harry and Richard, all residents of this vicinity.

The C. C. club met with Mrs. J. A. Gibbons Thursday. The afternoon was spent at cards, there being four tables. The first prize was won by Mrs. J. G. Seefus. Mrs. Gibbons was assisted by being Mrs. Thomas Lynn, has returned to Waterloo to work in the seed houses.

August Schneider, Jr., went to Omaha Saturday carrying with him a large bundle of furs of wild animals he had caught trapping on the Elkhorn river this fall.

J. C. Robinson made a trip as far west as Lexington the first of the week, returning Tuesday evening. The car met him at Fremont, as he came in on one of the fast trains.

Miss Bird Claybaugh, who teaches near South Omaha, was home for Thanksgiving. She was accompanied home Thursday morning by Mrs. W. W. Claybaugh and daughter.

Lawrence Robinson left Sunday afternoon for his school duties at the university. Miss Vernon Hider, who had been visiting Miss Robinson over Thanksgiving, also returned to Lincoln that afternoon to resume school studies at the university.

Miss May Nichols went to Omaha Tuesday. Miss Shepard visited Rev. and Mrs. Elliott at North Bend last week.

Mrs. Neff and son, Harold of Omaha, visited Mrs. Curtis last of the week. Mr. and Mrs. Tom Harford are rejoicing over the birth of a daughter December 1.

Mrs. Margaret Holdsworth spent several days with her sister, Mrs. J. Turk, in Omaha this week.

Mr. and Mrs. H. Heimbach returned Monday from a visit with Rev. and Mrs. Zimmerman at Walkhill, Neb.

Miss Arthur, of Colorado Springs, Colo., visited Mrs. A. E. Hubbard and the Whitmore families Saturday.

Mrs. Dursey and daughter, Miss Agnes, came down from Fremont and were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Eddy Sunday.

Five of the Omaha Theological seminary accepted the call of the First Presbyterian church and will begin his charge December 17. There will be no preaching services until that date.

Mr. and Mrs. John Lentell left Wednesday to visit Mr. Lentell's parents at Woodley, Kan. A telegram arrived Thursday announcing the death by accident of the father, J. V. Lentell.

The regular monthly meeting of the Ladies' aid society of the Methodist Episcopal church was held at the home of Mrs. M. W. Gaines Wednesday afternoon. Mrs. Susan Lewis assisted Mrs. Gaines in serving lunch.

The World held its annual meeting Tuesday evening at the following officers: John L. Yeager, C. C. W. T. Miller, A. L. John Minahan, clerk; W. E. Weekly, bankers; S. J. Bled, E. D. Talbot, W. G. Burt, O. S. A. Gardner, M. J. Hall, part C. C.; Dr. J. C. Akee, physician.

Elk City. J. W. Shumaker made a business trip to Omaha this week.

Miss Florence McCright of Ashland is visiting her sister, Mrs. Odell.

County Superintendent Yoder was visiting the schools here Wednesday.

Prof. Odell has organized a class for systematic Bible study which meets every Thursday evening.

The regular monthly business meeting of the Epworth league was held at the Tallman home this week.

The Elk City church choir was called to the home of the late George Frost to sing at his funeral Monday afternoon.

Miss Cunningham and Mrs. Hico of Kennard, niece of Mrs. Tallman, were visitors at the latter's home this week.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Gilston and two children returned Saturday from a four day Thanksgiving visit at University Place.

A large number of Elk City people attended the Ladies' aid society's bazaar at Washington Tuesday afternoon and evening. The net proceeds amounted to $118.

Sam and George Gelston left Monday for Chicago to attend the international stock show. They will visit their brother Will at Quincy, Ill., on their return trip.

The Odd Fellows lodge this week elected officers for the ensuing year as follows: M. L. Compton, noble grand; R. P. Jaines, vice grand; Chris Christensen, secretary; Fred Moulton, treasurer.

Fred Moulton a long time guest of the Club hotel, was the recipient of a surprise party Saturday evening. It being the occasion of his fifty-fifth birthday anniversary. A general good time was enjoyed at cards and other games. Refreshments were served.

Millard. Clifford Stuart of Omaha was a guest of Vivian Roberts on Sunday.

Rowley Harrow spent the Thanksgiving holidays at his home in Council Bluffs.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Murphy and son Lincoln are visiting with the Baldwin family.

William Von Dohren, sr., is visiting with his son-in-law, Mr. Talbot, at Rushville, Neb.

Miss Hilda Anderson of Cozad, Neb., visited her sister, Mrs. Lena Johnson, last week.

Miss Gladys Bagdwin was out from Omaha Saturday to visit at her home over Sunday.

Mrs. E. A. Roshier and son visited several days this week with her mother at Wymore, Neb.

Henry Von Dohren, J. W. Anderson and Mayme Von Dohren attended the dance at Elkhorn last week.

Miss McClure of Papillion made her weekly visit to Millard Saturday to instruct her pupils in music.

Misses Edith and Lois Anderson, Elsa Stiert, Mabel Koch and Tillie Nelson went to Omaha Saturday morning.

Arthur York and Miss Anderson of Benson were guests of Hilda Dagerman Saturday evening and Sunday.

Miss Wilhelmina Koel, who teaches in the public schools, spent the week-end with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Koch.

Mrs. George Boyer and son of Papillion spent several days last week with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Hermann Koch.

Miss Mayme Von Dohren spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. George Schomer of near Benson, returning Monday morning.

Nehawka. E. M. Pollard was a Lincoln visitor Thursday.

Mrs. J. M. Palmer is visiting in Avoca this week.

D. D. Adams, who has been sick for six weeks, is improving.

Mr. and Mrs. Viell made a flying automobile trip to Omaha Monday.

Miss Nellie Hildebrand of Havlock is spending the week in Nehawka.

Mr. and Mrs. George Sheldon have gone to housekeeping in their new home.

Mr. Bonner has returned from a week's stay with his mother at Cambridge.

Will Carroll of Portland, Ore., is visiting relatives in Nehawka this week.

Mrs. St. John returned Monday from a short stay with her daughter at Peru.

William Carroll, sr., has returned from a two months' visit with his son at York.

Springfield. Dr. H. Y. Bates of Belgrade was here Thursday.

Hart Wilson has sold his farm to Dent Smith for $10 per acre.

Mrs. W. H. Underwood of St. Paul

Why Not Give Useful Presents?

This Store Has Many Things Appropriate for Xmas Gifts

MEN'S DEPT. Men's Suits, Christmas Neckwear, Men's Shoes, Suit Cases, Men's Overcoats, Hats and Shoes, Shirts and Underwear

LADIES' DEPT. Ladies' Suits, Ladies' Coats, Fur Coats, Fur Sets, Fur Scarfs, Fancy Silk Waists and Petticoats, Ladies' Dresses and Separate Skirts

POPULAR PRICES IN ALL LINES Open a Charge Account Here

$1.00 A Week Will Dress You Well

THE PEOPLES' CLOAK & CLOTHING STORE 1405 DOUGLAS ST.

Nebraska's Greatest Piano Sale

STARTS Saturday morning at 8 o'clock in Hayden Bros' Piano Department. Great in numbers; great in qualities; great in beauty; great in tone; great in durability; great in low prices; great in satisfying terms of payment.

CHRISTMAS PIANO SALE we are able to quote the most extraordinary low prices on the most beautiful and artistic of high-grade standard pianos ever placed on sale.

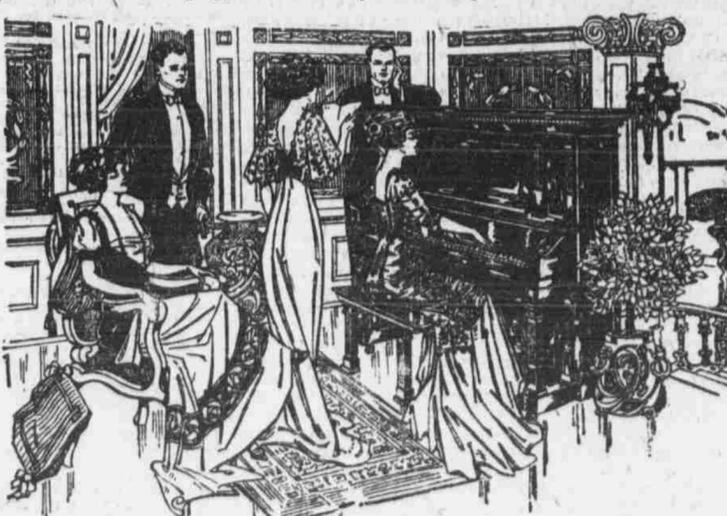

UNEQUALED

Is there any piano house in the west where you could select a piano from such a great gathering of well known and favored makes as the following: Everett, Knabe Bros., Sohmer, Estey, Fischer, Chickering Bros., Wegman, Price & Teeple, Ludwig, Milton, Schaeffer, H. P. Nelson, Ebersole, Weiler, Stark, Davenport & Tracy, Smith & Barnes, R. & S. Howard, Brinkerhoff.

- Wheat $45 Cornish $98 Mueller $95 Clump & Co. $98 Chickering & Son $134 Kimball $75 Vose & Sons $125 Kimball $125 Haines & Co. $100 McPhall $198

We here quote a few prices on high-grade standard instruments that are brand new. They are pianos that have been shipped to us as samples and on approval. We are authorized by the factories from which they come, to dispose of them at these extremely low prices rather than ship them back.

Prices that save you money and at the same time do not sacrifice quality.

The Gift Desirable

No matter to whom given, above all other gifts, is a piano, for the reasons of the many different purposes to which it is applied. First, a piano is a handsome piece of furniture for the home. A piano in the home carries with it character. A piano has a refining influence on every member of the household. It assists materially in the entertainment of visitors; it is a source of amusement and pleasure to every member of the home; as an educator for the children it is one of the greatest helps of the age. In all countries, and in all climates, the piano in this day in the home is considered one of the home's greatest necessities. In this holiday sale of

High-Grade Standard Instruments WE GUARANTEE TO THE PURCHASER a saving of from Twenty-five Dollars to Two Hundred and Ten Dollars; amount of the saving depending upon the quality of the piano purchased. We can afford to sell higher qualities of pianos for less money than others for the simple reason that we buy our pianos outright, paying spot cash and receiving the benefit of the factory discounts that the other dealers do not get. Call at our piano rooms and you will see for yourselves that our piano stock is much larger; our pianos are much more beautiful; our qualities are of a much higher grade; and if you will inquire you will find, quality considered, that our prices are in every instance from 25% to 50 per cent less than other dealers are asking, and that our terms are so convenient and satisfactory that even the small salaried man can well afford to install in his home one of

A Piano Investigate the offerings of every other piano store in Nebraska—then call upon us—see what we have to offer—and we are assured of a sale, provided quality, prices and terms are what you are looking for.

HAYDEN BROS. Nebraska's Leading Piano Distributors Terms so pleasing and easy as to satisfy the most exacting.

TONE'S OLD GOLDEN COFFEE

There are more cups to the pound in this coffee. The growths that enter into it are picked to give strength as well as splendid, enjoyable cup-quality. Roasted to the instant of coffee perfection.

You'll be convinced by a single pound that it is not only the most delicious coffee, but that it is most economical.

At your grocer's—35c a pound. TONE BROS., Des Moines, Ia.