

DETECTIVE TELLS OF ARREST

Boast of J. B. McNamara Led His Companion to Confess.

SHADOWED FOR LONG PERIOD

Story of McManigal May Be Regarded as Sufficient and Two McNamaras May Be Sent at Once to Prison.

LOS ANGELES, Cal., Dec. 2.—"I've got hundreds of thousands of dollars and the American Federation of Labor back of me. It took only $30,000 to clear Vincent Altman of Chicago, and if they could not convict him, they can't convict me."

The federal grand jury heard McManigal's story all day and will hear more of it tomorrow. James B. McNamara, as the latter was being taken on a train from Detroit to Chicago on the night of April 12 last, caused Artie E. McManigal, then also under arrest, to become angered at McNamara for his indiscreet statement and was the first circumstance that led McManigal to break from his companion, and eventually to confess his connection with various dynamiting explosions throughout the country.

McManigal's real confession had been saved for the trial of James B. and John J. McNamara, now under sentence of life imprisonment, and fifteen years, respectively, but this evidence, as well as that which had been gathered by the state was turned over today to the United States government.

The federal grand jury heard McManigal's story all day and will hear more of it tomorrow. James B. McNamara, as the latter was being taken on a train from Detroit to Chicago on the night of April 12 last, caused Artie E. McManigal, then also under arrest, to become angered at McNamara for his indiscreet statement and was the first circumstance that led McManigal to break from his companion, and eventually to confess his connection with various dynamiting explosions throughout the country.

McManigal's real confession had been saved for the trial of James B. and John J. McNamara, now under sentence of life imprisonment, and fifteen years, respectively, but this evidence, as well as that which had been gathered by the state was turned over today to the United States government.

The federal grand jury heard McManigal's story all day and will hear more of it tomorrow. James B. McNamara, as the latter was being taken on a train from Detroit to Chicago on the night of April 12 last, caused Artie E. McManigal, then also under arrest, to become angered at McNamara for his indiscreet statement and was the first circumstance that led McManigal to break from his companion, and eventually to confess his connection with various dynamiting explosions throughout the country.

McManigal's real confession had been saved for the trial of James B. and John J. McNamara, now under sentence of life imprisonment, and fifteen years, respectively, but this evidence, as well as that which had been gathered by the state was turned over today to the United States government.

The federal grand jury heard McManigal's story all day and will hear more of it tomorrow. James B. McNamara, as the latter was being taken on a train from Detroit to Chicago on the night of April 12 last, caused Artie E. McManigal, then also under arrest, to become angered at McNamara for his indiscreet statement and was the first circumstance that led McManigal to break from his companion, and eventually to confess his connection with various dynamiting explosions throughout the country.

McManigal's real confession had been saved for the trial of James B. and John J. McNamara, now under sentence of life imprisonment, and fifteen years, respectively, but this evidence, as well as that which had been gathered by the state was turned over today to the United States government.

The federal grand jury heard McManigal's story all day and will hear more of it tomorrow. James B. McNamara, as the latter was being taken on a train from Detroit to Chicago on the night of April 12 last, caused Artie E. McManigal, then also under arrest, to become angered at McNamara for his indiscreet statement and was the first circumstance that led McManigal to break from his companion, and eventually to confess his connection with various dynamiting explosions throughout the country.

McManigal's real confession had been saved for the trial of James B. and John J. McNamara, now under sentence of life imprisonment, and fifteen years, respectively, but this evidence, as well as that which had been gathered by the state was turned over today to the United States government.

The federal grand jury heard McManigal's story all day and will hear more of it tomorrow. James B. McNamara, as the latter was being taken on a train from Detroit to Chicago on the night of April 12 last, caused Artie E. McManigal, then also under arrest, to become angered at McNamara for his indiscreet statement and was the first circumstance that led McManigal to break from his companion, and eventually to confess his connection with various dynamiting explosions throughout the country.

McManigal's real confession had been saved for the trial of James B. and John J. McNamara, now under sentence of life imprisonment, and fifteen years, respectively, but this evidence, as well as that which had been gathered by the state was turned over today to the United States government.

The federal grand jury heard McManigal's story all day and will hear more of it tomorrow. James B. McNamara, as the latter was being taken on a train from Detroit to Chicago on the night of April 12 last, caused Artie E. McManigal, then also under arrest, to become angered at McNamara for his indiscreet statement and was the first circumstance that led McManigal to break from his companion, and eventually to confess his connection with various dynamiting explosions throughout the country.

McManigal's real confession had been saved for the trial of James B. and John J. McNamara, now under sentence of life imprisonment, and fifteen years, respectively, but this evidence, as well as that which had been gathered by the state was turned over today to the United States government.

The federal grand jury heard McManigal's story all day and will hear more of it tomorrow. James B. McNamara, as the latter was being taken on a train from Detroit to Chicago on the night of April 12 last, caused Artie E. McManigal, then also under arrest, to become angered at McNamara for his indiscreet statement and was the first circumstance that led McManigal to break from his companion, and eventually to confess his connection with various dynamiting explosions throughout the country.

McManigal's real confession had been saved for the trial of James B. and John J. McNamara, now under sentence of life imprisonment, and fifteen years, respectively, but this evidence, as well as that which had been gathered by the state was turned over today to the United States government.

The federal grand jury heard McManigal's story all day and will hear more of it tomorrow. James B. McNamara, as the latter was being taken on a train from Detroit to Chicago on the night of April 12 last, caused Artie E. McManigal, then also under arrest, to become angered at McNamara for his indiscreet statement and was the first circumstance that led McManigal to break from his companion, and eventually to confess his connection with various dynamiting explosions throughout the country.

McManigal's real confession had been saved for the trial of James B. and John J. McNamara, now under sentence of life imprisonment, and fifteen years, respectively, but this evidence, as well as that which had been gathered by the state was turned over today to the United States government.

The federal grand jury heard McManigal's story all day and will hear more of it tomorrow. James B. McNamara, as the latter was being taken on a train from Detroit to Chicago on the night of April 12 last, caused Artie E. McManigal, then also under arrest, to become angered at McNamara for his indiscreet statement and was the first circumstance that led McManigal to break from his companion, and eventually to confess his connection with various dynamiting explosions throughout the country.

McManigal's real confession had been saved for the trial of James B. and John J. McNamara, now under sentence of life imprisonment, and fifteen years, respectively, but this evidence, as well as that which had been gathered by the state was turned over today to the United States government.

The federal grand jury heard McManigal's story all day and will hear more of it tomorrow. James B. McNamara, as the latter was being taken on a train from Detroit to Chicago on the night of April 12 last, caused Artie E. McManigal, then also under arrest, to become angered at McNamara for his indiscreet statement and was the first circumstance that led McManigal to break from his companion, and eventually to confess his connection with various dynamiting explosions throughout the country.

McManigal's real confession had been saved for the trial of James B. and John J. McNamara, now under sentence of life imprisonment, and fifteen years, respectively, but this evidence, as well as that which had been gathered by the state was turned over today to the United States government.

were on the same train coming to the opening of the American league season at Detroit. Of course they knew the detective servants with us and naturally they had to tell them who we had. We said they were a couple of jugs whom we had gotten for safe keeping.

"Later on James B. resented that remark, which he overheard, and said to us in the drawing room that he had never blown up a safe or robbed one in his life, and that every dollar had been paid to him by the man upstairs."

"He got a bit talkative then and said: 'I'm another Vincent Altman. I understand it took $30,000 to clear him and I've got hundreds of thousands of dollars and the American Federation of Labor back of me. Clarence B. Darrow will be my attorney. They did not convict Altman and they never can convict me. You fellows don't want me for no safe blowing. You want me for that job in Los Angeles.'"

"Here it was that McManigal reached out from the top berth and grabbed McNamara by the hair, saying, 'See, fellows, you know what you are talking about? I know what I'm talking about, you pin head,' answered J. B., and McManigal dropped a kick into his berth with the remark: 'All right if you do, go ahead.'"

"McManigal had nothing more to say. Along toward morning J. B. took a dip in the bath, saying, 'See, fellows, you know what you are talking about? I know what I'm talking about, you pin head,' answered J. B., and McManigal dropped a kick into his berth with the remark: 'All right if you do, go ahead.'"

"McManigal had nothing more to say. Along toward morning J. B. took a dip in the bath, saying, 'See, fellows, you know what you are talking about? I know what I'm talking about, you pin head,' answered J. B., and McManigal dropped a kick into his berth with the remark: 'All right if you do, go ahead.'"

"McManigal had nothing more to say. Along toward morning J. B. took a dip in the bath, saying, 'See, fellows, you know what you are talking about? I know what I'm talking about, you pin head,' answered J. B., and McManigal dropped a kick into his berth with the remark: 'All right if you do, go ahead.'"

"McManigal had nothing more to say. Along toward morning J. B. took a dip in the bath, saying, 'See, fellows, you know what you are talking about? I know what I'm talking about, you pin head,' answered J. B., and McManigal dropped a kick into his berth with the remark: 'All right if you do, go ahead.'"

"McManigal had nothing more to say. Along toward morning J. B. took a dip in the bath, saying, 'See, fellows, you know what you are talking about? I know what I'm talking about, you pin head,' answered J. B., and McManigal dropped a kick into his berth with the remark: 'All right if you do, go ahead.'"

"McManigal had nothing more to say. Along toward morning J. B. took a dip in the bath, saying, 'See, fellows, you know what you are talking about? I know what I'm talking about, you pin head,' answered J. B., and McManigal dropped a kick into his berth with the remark: 'All right if you do, go ahead.'"

"McManigal had nothing more to say. Along toward morning J. B. took a dip in the bath, saying, 'See, fellows, you know what you are talking about? I know what I'm talking about, you pin head,' answered J. B., and McManigal dropped a kick into his berth with the remark: 'All right if you do, go ahead.'"

"McManigal had nothing more to say. Along toward morning J. B. took a dip in the bath, saying, 'See, fellows, you know what you are talking about? I know what I'm talking about, you pin head,' answered J. B., and McManigal dropped a kick into his berth with the remark: 'All right if you do, go ahead.'"

"McManigal had nothing more to say. Along toward morning J. B. took a dip in the bath, saying, 'See, fellows, you know what you are talking about? I know what I'm talking about, you pin head,' answered J. B., and McManigal dropped a kick into his berth with the remark: 'All right if you do, go ahead.'"

"McManigal had nothing more to say. Along toward morning J. B. took a dip in the bath, saying, 'See, fellows, you know what you are talking about? I know what I'm talking about, you pin head,' answered J. B., and McManigal dropped a kick into his berth with the remark: 'All right if you do, go ahead.'"

"McManigal had nothing more to say. Along toward morning J. B. took a dip in the bath, saying, 'See, fellows, you know what you are talking about? I know what I'm talking about, you pin head,' answered J. B., and McManigal dropped a kick into his berth with the remark: 'All right if you do, go ahead.'"

"McManigal had nothing more to say. Along toward morning J. B. took a dip in the bath, saying, 'See, fellows, you know what you are talking about? I know what I'm talking about, you pin head,' answered J. B., and McManigal dropped a kick into his berth with the remark: 'All right if you do, go ahead.'"

"McManigal had nothing more to say. Along toward morning J. B. took a dip in the bath, saying, 'See, fellows, you know what you are talking about? I know what I'm talking about, you pin head,' answered J. B., and McManigal dropped a kick into his berth with the remark: 'All right if you do, go ahead.'"

"McManigal had nothing more to say. Along toward morning J. B. took a dip in the bath, saying, 'See, fellows, you know what you are talking about? I know what I'm talking about, you pin head,' answered J. B., and McManigal dropped a kick into his berth with the remark: 'All right if you do, go ahead.'"

whom had been delegated the task of handling the evidence and examination of the witnesses of the state, corroborated McManigal's revelations tonight.

Earnest L. Brown, chief investigator for District Attorney John D. Fredericks in the McNamara trial, favored today concerning a trip to San Francisco, with possible arrests in view, and finally did not go.

"The next arrest in this case will be a higher up," he said. "A man well known in the labor world and it will take place soon."

SALT LAKE CITY, Utah, Dec. 2.—The long arm of the federal government reached Salt Lake City today and gathered in what may prove to be oral and documentary evidence for the grand jury at Los Angeles, called to investigate industrial dynamiting. Deputy United States marshal took possession of the books of the iron workers' local union this afternoon.

A summons to appear before the grand jury was served upon J. E. Munsey, the business agent of the union. Munsey is known to have been intimate with James B. McNamara and is said to have kept McNamara at his house after the Times explosion at Los Angeles.

Mrs. Larson Testifies to Save Her Husband

TEKAMAH, Neb., Dec. 2.—(Special Telegram.)—Mrs. Frank Larson on the witness stand in the trial of her husband for shooting his brother, Charles Larson, today declared she had told her husband of illicit relations that had existed between herself and Charles, who was killed. Mrs. Larson is a woman of about 35 years, apparently of timid and shrinking disposition. Her two children, aged 12 and 9 years, are in the court room during the progress of the case.

The state in its cross-examination of witnesses is seeking to show that the defendant was actuated more by jealousy of the property of his brother than by jealousy over family relations, seeking to throw doubt on the truth of the testimony of the wife in her husband's behalf. She, however, was scarcely questioned after her direct testimony.

It is believed arguments will be reached tomorrow.

PRESBYTERIAN MISSIONARY SOCIETY TO MEET IN OMAHA

MILWAUKEE, Wis., Dec. 2.—(Special Telegram.)—The Presbyterian Sunday School Missionaries' society of the northwest brought a three days' conference to the convention city for 1932.

At the Omaha conference active work will be done toward the awakening of widespread interest in the Sunday school movement throughout Nebraska and the surrounding states.

Plan Increases in Newspaper Postage

CLEVELAND, O., Dec. 2.—Speaking directly for the Postoffice department and as the personal representative of Postmaster General Hitchcock, James J. Britt, assistant postmaster general, tonight before the Cleveland Association of Credit Men, declared that the department, through the special postal commission, intended to recommend to congress within a few days that the rate on all newspapers and periodicals be increased from 1 to 2 cents a pound and increased by degrees later on until they paid a rate nearing the cost to the government of handling them.

The government is now making a surplus of $2,000,000 a year from first-class matter, including letters, while at the same time the sum of $68,206,662 is being lost each year on the carrying of second-class matter," said Mr. Britt.

RIGHT TO USE WATER FOR PURPOSES OUTSIDE STATE

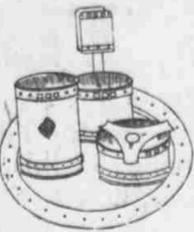

(From a Staff Correspondent.) LINCOLN, Dec. 2.—(Special.)—Has the State Board of Irrigation power to give permission to take water from the rivers of the commonwealth? Such a case came up before the supreme court today for trial.

Over two years ago E. L. Kirk of Sioux City made application to the Nebraska State Board of Irrigation to take certain water out of the Niobrara river, for power purposes, the point of diversion being in Knox county. The plan was to utilize this power for Sioux City enterprises.

For a short time after this the state board granted the right to Mr. Kirk, but according to section 42, article 2 of the Nebraska irrigation laws, such a grant could not be made by the state board. After this defeated Mr. Kirk's plan he appealed to the district court of Knox county, and here the irrigation law was sustained. Accordingly, the case was taken to the supreme court, where Kirk takes the position that the state legislature can take in measures it may see fit in a case of this kind, but that the State Board of Irrigation has no legal right to do other than what is prescribed by the legislature.

Gifts at Low Cuts for a Day

Christmas gift seekers will find here Saturday three special bargains. They are cut low for this single day and are bargains in every sense.

$2.75 Smokers' Outfit $2.00—This smokers' outfit (like cut) is made of metal imported from Germany and is prettily trimmed in brass. It consists of a tray, ash box, two cigar holders and match box.

$3.50 Table Covers $2.00—These table covers are made in imitation of prayer rugs, and are the most choice designs. They never have sold below $3.50.

$2.00 Spanish Leather Hassocks $1.25—These Hassocks are made of genuine Spanish leather and are superior in quality. The bargain price of $1.25 is wonderfully low.

Furniture Recommendations for Christmas

Furniture is being purchased this season in larger quantities for Christmas gifts than ever before. We offer a few gift suggestions here:

- Bed Room Rockers—Oak and mahogany $1.25 and Up.
Arm Rockers—Oak and mahogany $3.25 and Up.
Wing Chairs—Finely upholstered $20.00 and Up.
$62.00 Wing Chair—Mahogany frame, denim upholstery $35.00
$45.00 Mahogany Clock—Magnificent article; height, 7 feet 6 inches $35.00
$34.00 Craftsman Clock—Excellent quality $27.00
Italian Marble Pedestals—Finest quality $7.50 and Up.
Mahogany Tea Tray—Artistic designs $5.50 and Up.
Brass Jardiniere—High grade, at $90c and Up.
McDougall Kitchen Cabinets—Sanitary leg base, removable flour bins, all metal sifter flour bins, metal bread and cake box, white enamel linings, lower tilting bin, glass cereal and spice jars, self-feeding sugar bin; grill work on rippled glass doors, wire sliding shelves, moulding boards; door racks, etc., at $20.00 and Up.

Remember—Good furniture may be cheap, but "cheap" furniture cannot be good

Miller, Stewart & Beaton Co.

THE TAG POLICY HOUSE
Established 1884 413-15-17 South Sixteenth St.

We Bake Things, Too, Mrs. Housewife.

Bread, biscuit, pastry—everything. We are doing it every day. That's how we found out just the flour that you wanted. Now we know the wheat that makes it. Now we know how to grind it. Every kernel goes through twenty sets of rolls. Now we sift it ten times—through ten sheets of silk cloth—to sift out the perfect flour. That flour—and that only—goes in bags branded "Gold Medal."

Our baking insures its unvarying goodness. We test out each batch of flour. And millions know the result. Every bag of Gold Medal Flour is exactly the same as the best bag that ever went out. That's why the best-selling flour today in the world is

Washburn-Crosby's GOLD MEDAL FLOUR

Right through

YOU and your baggage are on the same train all the way. You never have to worry about your trunk. "Was it transferred" never enters your head, for when you board the

Kansas City-Florida Special

you are on a complete through train—the electric lighted coaches, electric lighted sleepers and baggage car all go through. Frisco and Southern Ry. There are no connections to be made anywhere on the route—the train is independent and goes through on this schedule:

Table with departure times for Kansas City, Memphis, Birmingham, Atlanta, and Jacksonville.

Leaves Kansas City, daily 6:15 p. m. Arrives Memphis 8:15 a. m. Arrives Birmingham 3:45 p. m. Arrives Atlanta 9:20 p. m. Arrives Jacksonville 7:40 a. m.

BEE WANT ADS PRODUCE RESULTS