ATTACK MADE ON INDICTMENT

Attorneys for Marks Say Cosson Coerced Grand Jury.

FILE MOTION TO QUASH SAME

Declare State Officer Had No Right to Be in Grand Jury Room and Use Arguments and Promises.

An attack was made yesterday upon the indictment returned by the grand jury against Ben Marks upon the ground that the attorney general and his assistants used illegal and coercive means to secure the indictment and exceeded their authority by his continuous presence in the grand jury room. The motion to quash the indictments was filed yesterday morning by Attorney George S. Wright, associated with Tinley & Mitchell in the defense of Marks. Mr. Wright insisted upon immediate hearing on the motion, but it caused the attorney general's forces such surprise that they asked for time. Later in the day was suggested, but this was declared to be too short and finally the hearing was set for 9 o'clock this morning, when it will be submitted to Judge Arthur.

Allegations of Motions.

This paragraph in the motion contains the charges: When the investigation of the transactions involved in the charge against this defendant was being had by the grand jury of Pottawattamie county, Iowa, Mr. George Cosson, the attorney general of the state of Iowa; that said Cosson was present during the investigation of the charge by the grand jury, and is not and was not a person required or permitted by law to be present; that during the investigation of the charge by the grand jury said Cosson examined witnesses and argued questions of fact to the grand jury and coerced the grand jury by arguments and by promises of production of other testimony at a future date. The investigation of the present during the examination one John Fletcher, who holds the position of assistant to the attorney general, the attorney general had before the grand jury, and were taken down by a shorthand reporter from the grand jury room to get a record of the statements made by the attorney general before the grand jury; that the defendant can establish the truth of these statements by the means of the grand jury, George Cosson, attorney general, and the clerk and the defendant will offer oral testimony upon the charges in this motion.

If the motion to quash is sustained the case will end, for a new indictment is barred by the statute of limitations. The contention presents grounds for carrying the case to the supreme court. The attorney general has called witnesses from distant parts of the country, including Colorado and Nebraska.

COUNCIL BLUFFS CURS TRIM 'Y' BOYS EASILY

The Council Bluffs Cubs defeated the Young Men's Christian association five in a fast and exciting game of basket ball, 52 to 27, last night at the 'Y' gymnasium. The Cubs put up a good exhibition of the game. The shooting and basket throwing kept them in the lead all through the game and they clearly outclassed the 'Y' five.

Hutchinson and Thomas starred for the association team, while Oliver, Montgomery and Deffenbaugh were the stars for the Cubs. Captain Wise was there on guarding and Gertsen's passing featured the second half.

The Cubs took the lead in the first five minutes of play and held it throughout the half. Deffenbaugh's long throw of a coal in this half was a feature. The half ended: Cubs, 25; 'Y', 14. The Cubs made a few changes in the second half. Deffenbaugh going to left forward and Gertsen to left guard. The association five made a desperate effort to tie the score, when within five minutes of the close both teams had the same number of baskets, but the Cubs, with their fast teamwork, soon took the lead and won out easily, taking their second game of the season. The lineup: Cubs—22, Oliver, R.F. R., Y. M. C. A.—27, Morrison, Deffenbaugh, L.P. L.P., Thomas (C) Montgomery, C.C. C., Phillips (C) Hutchinson, Deffenbaugh, Gertsen, L.G. L.G., Borwick (Goal); Oliver (G), Morrison, Montgomery (G), Wise, Deffenbaugh (G), Gertsen (F), Smith (G), Thomas (F), Phillips, Hutchinson, Montgomery (F), Phillips (G), Phillips (G). Points awarded: 11, Referee: Robinson of Omaha Young Men's Christian association. Time keeper: Wheeler. Time of halves: Twenty minutes.

New Saloon License Ordinance is Ready For Final Passage

The new saloon license ordinance was presented at the adjourned meeting of the city council yesterday afternoon and advanced to its second reading, and then laid over for final passage next Monday night. This was due to the absence of Alderman Younkerman and the announcement of Alderman Fisher that he would be present and bearing his full share of responsibility for the ordinance. Mayor Maloney also suggested that it would be necessary to take up the ordinance and pass it section by section.

The ordinance fixes the license at $2.00 a year by specifying that the sum of $100 shall be paid each month in addition to the regular state excise tax of $97.9 a year. The council, however, receded somewhat from the position first assumed in regard to wholesalers and fixed the wholesale license at $60 a year, instead of $90, as at first contemplated. Section three of the ordinance defines what constitutes wholesaling and declares:

The business of selling intoxicating liquors at wholesale shall be construed under this ordinance to mean all persons, firms or corporations who sell intoxicating liquors. To retail dealers, holding permits or licenses, under the regulations of commission by the city council in any quantity, or to others than licensed dealers, in original packages not less than one case, but not more than three dozen small bottles, or three dozen small bottles, or kegs of not less than four gallons capacity for malt liquors and in quantities of not less than five gallons of whisky, wine or all other spirituous liquors. Licensed dealers in quantities less than above limited.

Objection was expressed to the amount of liquor specified on the ground that it was too large and this may be modified to prevent it doing an injustice to some of the wholesalers, particularly such as the Jarvis-Wine company, who conduct no bar, but sell in original packages as small as single quarts of wine and brandies, where about all of the sacramental and table wine sold in the city are bought. There may be some modification of this section.

Section four also invests the ordinance with additional interest, for it holds the property liable for the payment of the license. This section says: That all real estate within which or whereon intoxicating liquors are sold or kept with intent to sell, subject to the provisions of this ordinance, shall be subject to and held for the payment of the additional tax herein provided for, and such tax shall become a lien on said real estate from the date of the sale of the property by the city clerk of said city, of Council Bluffs to the auditor of Pottawattamie county, as hereinafter provided. Mrs. DeLong's home is on Sixth avenue, in one of the F. H. Wind houses.

Mrs. Cope Loses Official Position

TOPEKA, Kan., Dec. 9.—Mrs. Carrie E. Cope, plaintiff in a $50,000 damage suit for libel against Bishop David H. Moore of the Methodist Episcopal church, resident in Cincinnati, has been summarily removed from official connection with the National Woman's Home Missionary society of the Methodist church, according to an announcement here today. A successor to Mrs. Cope will be appointed as chairman of the Indian work committee, and the national society will join in the dissolution suit pending against the Kansas branch of the society.

The trouble arose over a dispute over funds, which Mrs. Cope holds as an officer of the Kansas branch and which she refused to give up. Bishop Moore wrote a letter concerning her action in this matter, to which she took exception. He declined to make a public apology and she filed suit for damages.

Mrs. Emma DeLong Shoots Herself in Handling a Rifle

Mrs. Emma DeLong, 19 years old, wife of Frank DeLong, a lineman employed by the electric light company, received a painful and perhaps dangerous wound at 6:30 o'clock last evening. She was shot in the left hip with a 22-caliber rifle at the home of her father, B. H. Cones, 511 Iowa avenue.

Dr. O'Keefe was called and after an examination had indicated that the course taken by the bullet might be serious, hurried her to Dr. Cleaver's office for an X-ray exposure. The bullet was located by the rays and it was decided that the safety of the patient required its removal and Mrs. DeLong was taken to the Edmundson hospital shortly before 10 o'clock and an operation performed. At 11 o'clock Mrs. DeLong was still in the operating room.

Details of the accident could not be secured last night beyond the statement of the surgeons that it was accidental. Mrs. DeLong was handling the weapon when it was in some manner discharged with her hand and pointing downward. Details of the accident were in close contact with her side and pointing downward. Mrs. DeLong's home is on Sixth avenue, in one of the F. H. Wind houses.

MORE BOY THAN GIRL PUPILS

State Superintendent of Iowa Schools Gives Figures.

AVERAGE FOR TEACHERS $48.14

Male Teachers Get on Average $70.23 a Month—Attendance in Schools Averages 301-160 Day.

(From a Staff Correspondent.) DES MOINES, Ia., Dec. 9.—(Special Telegram.)—Iowa has more boys in its public schools than girls. During the year ending June 30, 1911, there were 209,213 male students between the ages of 4 and 21 years enrolled in the public schools of the state, while there were only 122,792 female students.

These figures are taken from the annual reports of the county superintendents that are being compiled in the office of A. M. Deyoe, state superintendent of public instruction, for his report, to be published soon.

According to the report, there are 17,134 teachers employed. Of this number 2,590 are men and 14,548 women. The average salary paid to the school ma'ams is $48.14, while the average compensation of their brothers engaged in school work for the state is $78.23.

Examine Medical Schools.

The Iowa State Board of Medical Examiners has a committee at work making investigation of various medical colleges that have been recognized in the state in order to graduate persons past the practice of medicine. The board has received information that some of the colleges in Chicago were now doing very poor work and some of them had engaged day and night faculties for the purpose of making extra haste in turning out new doctors. The committee, it is learned, will report adversely to some of the schools.

Port Dodge Fire Fund.

The city authorities at Port Dodge have been engaged in trying to find a way they can levy a special fire fund. When the city was a "second class" city, or below 15,000 population, there was a special law which authorized it. Now the city is out of the "second class" and has come under the commission form, and the city attorney has insisted that it may still levy the fund, but the attorney general holds to the contrary.

Will Enforce Drug Law.

The State Pharmacy commission is preparing to begin enforcement of that part of the state laws of Iowa which forbids dealers other than registered pharmacists from selling poisons and medicines containing alcohol. It appears that the present commission has not before paid any attention to the law and that department and general stores are carrying lines of patent medicines in violation of the law.

Prepare to Do Packing.

The newly organized Des Moines Packing company has asked the state executive council for the necessary authority to commence business by the issue of the capital stock of $125,000 against the assets of the company, the old Agar packing plant. The company will get ready for business and probably open soon after the first of the year.

Dramatic Attempt at Suicide.

A man named James Wilson, said to be from Caliente, Nev., attempted to kill himself while on a crowded Rock Island train early this morning. The train was approaching Valley Junction from the west when he took out a razor and proceeded to cut his throat, making a terrible gash. He was taken in charge by an officer and the train brought him at once to Des Moines, where he was placed in a hospital. He was evidently insane and probably will recover.

Failed to Get Out on Parole.

Although he has been paroled and has been expecting to come home, W. L. Carter, who was sent to Fort Madison penitentiary November 18, 1909, from this city, has not been released. He is in solitary confinement and is closely guarded. It is reported that worry over foreclosure of a mortgage has impaired his physical and mental condition. Carter expected to be home for Thanksgiving dinner. His old mother prepared for him, but he did not come.

She Will Tell Her Story.

Miss Ella Kling, alleged "confidential stenographer" of an alleged price controlling "boos printers" combine of Des Moines, this morning, cited twice by Judge De Graff for contempt of court—yesterday and the day before—for flat refusal to answer catechism of the grand jury, which is investigating the existence or nonentity of the "combine," through her attorney, told the court she had made up her mind to answer what questions the grand jury chose to ask in the way of the investigation. Her attorney said she has been sick for several days and that only was the reason for her obstinate attitude in the grand jury room.

Saloon Licenses.

City Assessor Montis is serving notices on the eighty-six saloons of Des Moines to pay in the $105,300, or the first quarterly installment of the muellet $1,200 license tax, January 1. Notice must be served on or before the fourteenth day of the last month of the quarter and

DEATH RECORD.

B. F. McIninch. AUBURN, Neb., Dec. 8.—(Special.)—Benjamin F. McIninch, aged 75 years, died yesterday at his home five miles southeast of this place. Mr. McIninch was a prominent citizen and for several terms was one of the county commissioners of this county. He located in this county in 1857 on the farm where he died. During the war of the rebellion he enlisted in the Second Nebraska and was with it during its Indian campaigns and afterwards saw service in Missouri. The year that Mr. McIninch located in this county he was united in marriage with Jane Kennedy, and to this marriage was born eight children, all of whom, together with the widow, survive him. All the children are married and only two reside in this county. Mr. McIninch was well-to-do.

POLICE RAID THREE RESORTS

Liquor Confiscated and Prisoners Released When They Give Bond. Information against several disorderly houses furnished the police by County Attorney English caused three raids in which fourteen persons were arrested and a large quantity of liquor was confiscated last night. The raids were made by Sergeants Samuelson and Vanous and Detective Steve Maloney. The first place visited was 211 South Thirtieth street. At 192 Douglas street women were arrested who gave their names as Mable Johnson, Hattie Williams and Blanche Young. John Brown, charged with being the keeper of the place, was arrested, and with him William Smith and Emma McClellan were taken upon the charge of being inmates. Lillian Wilkes and Joseph Panlow were arrested as inmates of a house at 1115

Elks to Make Hit With Their Show

Just as many as could safely be permitted saw the full rehearsal of the Elks' minstrel show last night. It was more than worth seeing. It was a menace to every button on the clothes of the spectators. The rehearsal was pulled off in the auditorium of the Elks' club with a brilliancy that promises something memorable next Tuesday night, when the general public will be given its opportunity at the Dohany theater. The local hits are immense and there is not a man in town whose name is worth a headline who will be permitted to suffer. Mayor Maloney was in the crowd suffering from convulsions with the others and heard his name taken in vain many times. Pat McBride and George Hughes, whose business engagements prevented them being taken into the class of funmakers, were the only two sad men in the crowd last night. They were grieving over missing the opportunity of their lives. Another full rehearsal will be held tonight and tomorrow afternoon the show will be staged with full dress effects in the theater, followed by two others Monday afternoon and evening.

May Build Tabernacle in Single Day Only

The architect's plans for the big tabernacle that is soon to be erected in Baylis park for the accommodation of the Hartmann revival, the second of which has been turned over to a local contractor, who has agreed to superintend the work free of cost. In connection with the offer of the Carpenters' union to do all of the work without compensation this places the cost of the big temporary building at the nominal figure of $250 charged for the rental of the lumber. This reduces the total cost to a minimum so low that but a small part of the original estimate of $1,500 will be required. It has been the purpose of the members of the Carpenters' union to undertake to do all of the construction work in a single day. The second of the various churches have planned to serve coffee to the men while at work and hot meals at the appointed time and to show in every way hearty appreciation of the generous offer. The meetings are to begin in January and are scheduled to last one month. If the popularity is as great as anticipated the period may be extended two months.
