MISS BERNICE EDWARDS

MISS KATHERINE MILROY

MISS ELOISE JENKS

M. R. Murphy. The wedding will take place in the spring. The many friends of the young people regret that they are to reside in another city. Mr. Murphy attended Creighton college and has gone into the commission business in Sioux City.

Fraternity Men Entertain.
The local men belonging to Nebraska chapters of Phi Delta Theta, especially those who have attended the university at Lincoln of late years, are planning to entertain one of their fraternity who has been actively climbing the ladder of historic fame since leaving college.

Wedding Bells.
The marriage of Miss Mayme K. Golden of Omaha and Mr. Lawrence A. Carpenter of Chicago will take place Thursday, December 11. Owing to illness in the family of the bride the ceremony will be performed in Chicago and Miss Golden will be accompanied there by her parents. The young couple will make their future home at 527 Prairie avenue, Chicago.

The wedding of Miss Bertha Mayer of Kansas City, Mo., and Mr. Sam Meyer of Omaha took place Tuesday evening at 9 o'clock in the parlors of the Hotel Baltimore at Kansas City. The attendants were the groom's brother, Mr. Charles Meyer of St. Louis, and Mr. Dave Mayer of Kansas City. The parlors were beautifully decorated with palms, ferns and baskets of pink and white carnations, with southern amilax suspended from the chandeliers. The bride's gown was white lace over mesaline and trimmed with silk fringe. Her long tulle veil was fastened with lilacs of the valley. After the ceremony a supper was served in the White room, where the prevailing colors, pink and white, were used. A pretty feature of the dining room decoration was the large basket of pink and white carnations surrounded by ferns which adorned the table. The out-of-town guests were: Miss Hanna Meyer of St. Louis, Miss Claude Meyer of Philadelphia, Mr. Sig. C. Meyer of Philadelphia, Mr. Joseph Meyer of Butler, Mo., Mr. and Mrs. Meyer are at home at the Hotel Sanford.

The bride is a daughter of Robert and Mrs. Whitmore and graduated from the university in the class of 1911. She is a member of Alpha Chi Omega sorority. The groom is a young business man of Valley. They will be at home after January 1 in Valley.

The marriage of Miss Nell Whitmore to Mr. Neils Edward Johnson took place at 8 o'clock Thursday evening at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. G. Whitmore of Valley. Rev. W. H. Wheatley of Lincoln officiated. The bride was gowned in white satin trimmed with chantilly lace. She wore a veil and carried a shower bouquet of white roses and lilies of the valley. Her only ornament was a diamond and pearl pendant, the gift of the groom's parents.

While congratulations were being received by the bride and groom, Mr. and Mrs. W. G. Whitmore, father and mother of the bride; the bride and groom; Mr. and Mrs. Johnson, parents of the groom; Lawrence Coy, the attendant of the groom; and the four bridesmaids.

Miss Bernice Edwards, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. G. Edwards, and Mr. Turner MacAllister of Oakland, Cal., whose wedding will take place December 13 will be honor guests at a number of social entertainments, Saturday, Mrs. A. H. Fuller entertained informally at luncheon for Miss Edwards, Monday Miss Eloise Jenks will entertain at luncheon for Miss Edwards and her cousin, Mrs. Harold Miles, of Des Moines. Miss Katherine Powell, another bridesmaid, will entertain some evening this week for Miss Edwards and Mr. MacAllister. Saturday evening Miss Katherine Milroy, who is to dining room, where the Misses Seeter, Dale Puch, Verne Hyderf, Della Robinson and Lola Byars served. Among the out-of-town guests were Chancellor and Mrs. Avery, Dr. and Mrs. Condra, Dean and Mrs. Burnett, Mr. A. G. Billemeier, Mr. and Mrs. Newell Barnes and about thirty of the Alpha Chi girls, all from Lincoln; Mr. and Mrs. McClenaghan, Mr. and Mrs. Linnquist and the Misses Bess and Annie Fry of Omaha; Francis Kirkow and Miss Gladys Eddy of Fremont; Mr. and Mrs. Jess Whitmore of Grand Island.

The bride is a daughter of Robert and Mrs. Whitmore and graduated from the university in the class of 1911. She is a member of Alpha Chi Omega sorority. The groom is a young business man of Valley. They will be at home after January 1 in Valley.

Mrs. Charles Offutt gave an informal tea Thursday afternoon for Mrs. V. G. McGillicuddy of San Francisco. Miss Olga Storz and Miss Louise Storz entertained informally at bridge Saturday afternoon at their home. Five tables of players were present.

Mrs. Luther Kountze gave an informal tea Thursday afternoon for Mrs. Harry Wilkins of Chicago, when a few of the latter's old friends were asked. Mrs. Frank Wilhelm entertained informally at luncheon Saturday afternoon at her home. A lavender color scheme was used and fifteen guests were present.

Mrs. Charles Metz entertained informally at bridge Friday afternoon for her guest, Mrs. A. Gray of Chicago, and Mrs. Adolph Dwork of Schuyler, Neb., guest of Mrs. Fred Metz. Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Barker, 2d, entertained at a bridge dinner last evening at their home. The guests were: Mr. and Mrs. Frederic W. Thomas, Mr. and Mrs. Frank T. B. Martin, Mr. and Mrs. Ralph West, Mr. and Mrs. Charles W. Martin, Mrs. W. G. Carey McGrew, Mr. Wilson Austin.

A novel social entertainment was given by Mrs. J. G. Wadsworth, Mrs. Howard W. Tilton and Mrs. Alfred Hanchett of Council Bluffs Friday afternoon at the Grand hotel. Miss Ethel Lyman of Chicago, a talented story teller, told a number of interesting and entertaining Japanese legends. Miss Lyman has made an extended study of the legends of the orient and the unique entertainment was much enjoyed by the guests. Mrs. Lucius Prior of Omaha sang several Japanese songs, and was accompanied by Mrs. Carlton Woodward. The ball room of the Grand hotel, where the program was given, was attractively decorated with palms, ferns and cut roses. There were 150 guests present, thirty being from Omaha. Assisting as hostesses were: Mesdames Frank Penny, Angeline Brusmaid, Roy Wilcox, Misses Irma Smith, Marion Tilton and Rachael Parmelee.

Little Miss Phyllis Hunter entertained at two parties for her little school friends. The first was given Friday children. A table of objects for the smaller children, a cobweb game in which were favors for the little ones, was the principal entertainment. Those present were Misses Virginia Pearce, Ruth Grinnell, Masters William Poppleton, James Roney and James McMullen. The second of the series was given Saturday afternoon, when

GIFTS THAT ARE PERMANENT
For many people the coming of Christmas means the purchase of diamonds for gifts. The diamond has such a great value and is so much appreciated by all that no mistake can be made through the giving of a pure stone for Christmas. It has a permanent value, too, which will keep thoughts of the donor fresh in the memory of the recipient long after the gift-day has passed.
We have a most interesting collection of artistically designed mountings made entirely of platinum or of gold and set with the finest quality of blue white diamonds and rare stones. Dinner and cluster rings, pendant earrings, la valieres, lockets, brooches, pendants, scarf pins, tie clasps, all are displayed here with the finest diamond settings.
Our excellent assortment offers every possible advantage to gift buyers.
