How to Keep Young and Pretty "When I Am 40 Years Old"

Long before I am 40 I shall begin to feel old. Father Time by every means in my power. I shall criticize my face as if it were someone else's, without any more prejudice or sympathy. I shall say to myself, "Little Gaby, you are not as young as you were, and you must be careful. You used to be able to stay up late and not look any the worse for it the next morning, but now you must get to bed earlier, or make up for lost sleep in the daytime, even if you have to go without making calls, or going out for tea."
