Coral Among Fashionable People

THE wearing of coral is supremely fashionable this winter, because the decree of Paris that the soft, beautiful coral shades should predominate in society centers.

The C. B. Brown store anticipated the coral popularity and is today showing an important gathering of precious corals from Cory, Clark & Noon of Newark.

The corals sold by this eastern firm are excellent for their quality and color. There is probably no other gem that calls for so much technical knowledge and care in the selection as the coral—and it is, therefore, only natural that Cory, Clark & Noon should have the best corals, for this firm secures gems of perfect quality and natural color. Their coral jewelry can be relied upon as to color and quality.
