

NEBRASKA AND IOWA LOSE

Both Teams of This State Defeated in Debating League

GOPHERS SMOOTH AT DELIVERY

Minnesota Teams Overcome Nebraska in This Style—Illinois Defeat Iowa and Also Defeat Wisconsin Debaters.

MINNEAPOLIS, Minn., Dec. 9.—(Special Telegram.)—By special delivery the Minnesota debating team, available for a policy of shipping subsidies, met today at two to one decision on the Nebraska team, composed of Clifford L. Bell, 27, of Loup City; Harold A. Prince, 23, of Grand Island; and John Hargrave, 22, of Wymore. The judges were three members of the University of Wisconsin faculty, Carl R. Pinn, professor of American history; S. W. Gilman, professor of business administration; and George C. Seibery, professor of European history.

PROSECUTION IS IN DOUBT

Testimony Before Grand Jury to Determine Dynamite Indictments.

McNAMANG CONTINUES TALE

Manufacturer of Nitroglycerin Says Sold Explosives to These Confessed Dynamiters and Other Persons.

LOS ANGELES, Cal., Dec. 9.—The scope of the investigation undertaken by the federal grand jury here and the one in Indianapolis, Ind., so far as could be learned tonight, has not been sharply defined. Government officials it is thought will be able to determine only after the testimony of witnesses has proceeded further whether to return indictments here or in Indiana against those persons alleged to have been implicated in a conspiracy unlawfully to transport explosives from one state to another.

Dr. Charles Brenn Acquired by Jury

FAIRBURY, Neb., Dec. 9.—(Special.)—Dr. Charles Brenn of Wisconsin was not guilty today of a charge of criminal assault on Miss Alta Chambers, a nurse at Dr. Lynch's hospital. It was alleged the offense was committed August 8, 1911. County Attorney Frank L. Rain, assisted by John Healy, appeared for the state in the prosecution, while former Adjutant General John C. Hartigan and E. A. Wunder were counsel for the defense.

MURPHY DENIES WILL HAVE INTEREST IN BOSTON TEAM

CHICAGO, Dec. 9.—Charles W. Murphy, president of the Chicago National league baseball team, returned from a few days' visit to Cincinnati today, and denied that he had any interest in a company to acquire the Boston National league team.

OWLS ELECT THEIR OFFICERS

Banquet and Program Follows General Business Meeting of Order.

Nebraska Loses at Home.

LINCOLN, Neb., Dec. 9.—(Special Telegram.)—The Iowa university debating team defeated the Nebraska team here last night. The subject of debate was, "Resolved, That the United States should adopt a policy of shipping subsidies." Nebraska was represented by Joseph Goodstein, H. W. Garrett and A. H. Raymond; Iowa by R. N. Beebe, S. H. Krwin and R. F. Clough.

GRIP LEFT HER WRECK PE-RU-NA RESTORED HER.

MRS. LAURA BERBERICK. Grip and Catarrh. Mrs. Laura Berberick, No. 1111 Willow Ave., Hoboken, New Jersey, writes: "Four years ago I had a severe attack of the grippe, and was confined to bed, and when I came up after my sickness I was troubled with hoarseness and pain in head and throat, and was told I had catarrh. I took some medicine, but without much benefit."

GRIP AND CATARRH

SMELLING AND BREASTED. Mrs. A. L. Wetzel, 1922 Ohio Street, Terre Haute, Indiana, writes: "When I began to take your medicine I could not smell nor hear a church bell ring. Now I can both smell and hear. When I began your treatment my head was terrible. I had pain and churning noises in my head. I followed your advice faithfully and took Peruna, as you told me. Now I might say I am well. Three months ago I went around in a coil, now I feel brisk and active. I will always praise Peruna."

TEARS ACCOMPANY STORY

Lillian Graham Tells of Association with W. E. D. Stokes.

SISTER GAVE HER WARNING

Millionaire Hotel Proprietor Accused of Murder of Al Adams in Hotel Ansonia in Nineteen-Seven.

NEW YORK, Dec. 9.—An almost constant flow of tears accompanied the recital which Lillian Graham gave today of the sordid romance which led up to her shooting William E. D. Stokes, the millionaire hotel proprietor, on the night of June 7.

Methods of Farmers' Association Are Held to Be Illegal

DECORAH, Ia., Dec. 9.—(Special.)—Members of farmers' co-operative societies will find much to interest them in a decision just made by Judge Hobson of the district court, in which he held that farmers' co-operative companies cannot enforce special requirements from their members, but that they must enter in open market on equal terms and in competition with others in the same line of business.

GABLE PLEADS GUILTY TO SHOOTING REX KEBBLING

MARION CITY, Ia., Dec. 9.—(Special Telegram.)—The indictment against him for attempting to murder Chief of Police Locke was dismissed today and Robert Gable this afternoon pleaded guilty to the attempted murder of Rex Keibling, a hog buyer, in the city of Marion, Iowa, on the night of December 7.

Omaha Girl Honored By the President of University of Iowa

IOWA CITY, Ia., Dec. 9.—(Special.)—Miss Esther Thomas of Omaha was named today by President John W. Bowman of the University of Iowa as a member of the greater university committee, one of the most influential organizations of Iowa's educational institutions.

DELAY GETTING JURY TO TRY CLAUSSEN CASE

SHERIDAN, Wyo., Dec. 9.—(Special Telegram.)—At 2 o'clock this afternoon, the jury in the Clausen case finally completed after a day and a half of sparring between prosecution and defense and the trial about to begin, Juror S. H. Wymor, a rancher, received a message advising him of the critical illness of his wife, necessitating his excusal. Judge Parmelee, presiding at the trial, immediately announced an hour's recess and ordered a third special venire of twenty-five tamen issued, but at the adjournment of court at 2:30 tonight the twelfth juror had not yet been accepted.

OMAHA GIRL HONORED

By the President of University of Iowa

DELAY GETTING JURY

TO TRY CLAUSSEN CASE

SHERIDAN, Wyo., Dec. 9.—(Special Telegram.)—At 2 o'clock this afternoon, the jury in the Clausen case finally completed after a day and a half of sparring between prosecution and defense and the trial about to begin, Juror S. H. Wymor, a rancher, received a message advising him of the critical illness of his wife, necessitating his excusal. Judge Parmelee, presiding at the trial, immediately announced an hour's recess and ordered a third special venire of twenty-five tamen issued, but at the adjournment of court at 2:30 tonight the twelfth juror had not yet been accepted.

Boys Confess Robbery

ROCK ISLAND, Ill., Dec. 9.—Five boys, all under 20 years of age, confessed today to a series of robberies that have mystified the police department for months.

Thousands Killed by Chinese Troops in Sian-Fu Fights

PEKING, Dec. 9.—The first direct and uncontroverted news received from Sian-Fu since the recent outbreak there was brought here today by messenger. It consists of letters to the British and American legations and the director of posts.

FRED F. KANERT ON TRIAL BEFORE HALL COUNTY JURY

GRAND ISLAND, Neb., Dec. 9.—(Special.)—Yesterday afternoon and all of this morning the district court was occupied with the work of selecting a jury in the case of the state against Fred F. Kanert, on a statutory charge brought by Miss Waddick, a girl of but 14 or 15 years.

NO MONEY DOWN PAY NEXT YEAR

Our Holiday Credit Help Will Make Your Gift Buying Very, Very Easy. We want you to understand that our credit service is gladly extended you on such gift articles as you might have in mind to purchase.

Just come in and make your gift giving selection now—tomorrow—we will arrange so you will not have to pay one cent down and can commence paying next year.

So we say to you, "buy holiday gifts now—pay for them later." Come in and see how good your credit really is.

Omaha Girl Honored By the President of University of Iowa

IOWA CITY, Ia., Dec. 9.—(Special.)—Miss Esther Thomas of Omaha was named today by President John W. Bowman of the University of Iowa as a member of the greater university committee, one of the most influential organizations of Iowa's educational institutions.

DELAY GETTING JURY TO TRY CLAUSSEN CASE

SHERIDAN, Wyo., Dec. 9.—(Special Telegram.)—At 2 o'clock this afternoon, the jury in the Clausen case finally completed after a day and a half of sparring between prosecution and defense and the trial about to begin, Juror S. H. Wymor, a rancher, received a message advising him of the critical illness of his wife, necessitating his excusal. Judge Parmelee, presiding at the trial, immediately announced an hour's recess and ordered a third special venire of twenty-five tamen issued, but at the adjournment of court at 2:30 tonight the twelfth juror had not yet been accepted.

Boys Confess Robbery

ROCK ISLAND, Ill., Dec. 9.—Five boys, all under 20 years of age, confessed today to a series of robberies that have mystified the police department for months.

Thousands Killed by Chinese Troops in Sian-Fu Fights

PEKING, Dec. 9.—The first direct and uncontroverted news received from Sian-Fu since the recent outbreak there was brought here today by messenger. It consists of letters to the British and American legations and the director of posts.

FRED F. KANERT ON TRIAL BEFORE HALL COUNTY JURY

GRAND ISLAND, Neb., Dec. 9.—(Special.)—Yesterday afternoon and all of this morning the district court was occupied with the work of selecting a jury in the case of the state against Fred F. Kanert, on a statutory charge brought by Miss Waddick, a girl of but 14 or 15 years.

NO MONEY DOWN PAY NEXT YEAR

Our Holiday Credit Help Will Make Your Gift Buying Very, Very Easy. We want you to understand that our credit service is gladly extended you on such gift articles as you might have in mind to purchase.

Just come in and make your gift giving selection now—tomorrow—we will arrange so you will not have to pay one cent down and can commence paying next year.

So we say to you, "buy holiday gifts now—pay for them later." Come in and see how good your credit really is.

Omaha Girl Honored By the President of University of Iowa

IOWA CITY, Ia., Dec. 9.—(Special.)—Miss Esther Thomas of Omaha was named today by President John W. Bowman of the University of Iowa as a member of the greater university committee, one of the most influential organizations of Iowa's educational institutions.

DELAY GETTING JURY TO TRY CLAUSSEN CASE

SHERIDAN, Wyo., Dec. 9.—(Special Telegram.)—At 2 o'clock this afternoon, the jury in the Clausen case finally completed after a day and a half of sparring between prosecution and defense and the trial about to begin, Juror S. H. Wymor, a rancher, received a message advising him of the critical illness of his wife, necessitating his excusal. Judge Parmelee, presiding at the trial, immediately announced an hour's recess and ordered a third special venire of twenty-five tamen issued, but at the adjournment of court at 2:30 tonight the twelfth juror had not yet been accepted.

Boys Confess Robbery

ROCK ISLAND, Ill., Dec. 9.—Five boys, all under 20 years of age, confessed today to a series of robberies that have mystified the police department for months.

Thousands Killed by Chinese Troops in Sian-Fu Fights

PEKING, Dec. 9.—The first direct and uncontroverted news received from Sian-Fu since the recent outbreak there was brought here today by messenger. It consists of letters to the British and American legations and the director of posts.

FRED F. KANERT ON TRIAL BEFORE HALL COUNTY JURY

GRAND ISLAND, Neb., Dec. 9.—(Special.)—Yesterday afternoon and all of this morning the district court was occupied with the work of selecting a jury in the case of the state against Fred F. Kanert, on a statutory charge brought by Miss Waddick, a girl of but 14 or 15 years.

NO MONEY DOWN PAY NEXT YEAR

Our Holiday Credit Help Will Make Your Gift Buying Very, Very Easy. We want you to understand that our credit service is gladly extended you on such gift articles as you might have in mind to purchase.

Just come in and make your gift giving selection now—tomorrow—we will arrange so you will not have to pay one cent down and can commence paying next year.

So we say to you, "buy holiday gifts now—pay for them later." Come in and see how good your credit really is.

Omaha Girl Honored By the President of University of Iowa

IOWA CITY, Ia., Dec. 9.—(Special.)—Miss Esther Thomas of Omaha was named today by President John W. Bowman of the University of Iowa as a member of the greater university committee, one of the most influential organizations of Iowa's educational institutions.

DELAY GETTING JURY TO TRY CLAUSSEN CASE

SHERIDAN, Wyo., Dec. 9.—(Special Telegram.)—At 2 o'clock this afternoon, the jury in the Clausen case finally completed after a day and a half of sparring between prosecution and defense and the trial about to begin, Juror S. H. Wymor, a rancher, received a message advising him of the critical illness of his wife, necessitating his excusal. Judge Parmelee, presiding at the trial, immediately announced an hour's recess and ordered a third special venire of twenty-five tamen issued, but at the adjournment of court at 2:30 tonight the twelfth juror had not yet been accepted.

Boys Confess Robbery

ROCK ISLAND, Ill., Dec. 9.—Five boys, all under 20 years of age, confessed today to a series of robberies that have mystified the police department for months.

Advertisement for Union Outfitting Co. featuring various furniture items like rockers, parlors, and chairs, with prices and descriptions. Includes a large illustration of a woman and child.