

WYOMING OIL MAN IS HERE TO MAKE DISTRIBUTING POINT

General Manager Brooks Comes to Omaha to Locate Warehouse. Refinery to Be in Operation by the First of the Year to Take Care of Output of the New Wyoming Oil Fields.

Warring Officials to Engage a Berth

County Commissioner Oscar J. Pickard and Peter F. Elmsner, who have done more or less warring on the Board of County Commissioners since last January, will go to Denver and Yule to prod the Colorado Yule Marble company into rushing marble shipments for work in the new county building.

Terrific Speed Made on Union Pacific

Passengers on the Los Angeles Limited from North Platte into Omaha this morning were treated to the fastest ride that has ever been given in the history of the Union Pacific railroad.

Anti-Tobacco Law for Minors to Be Posted in Schools

A copy of the law against the use of tobacco by minors, printed in bold, black-face type will adorn each room in every school building in the city before the holiday season begins.

Land Baron Case Will Be Retried

United States Attorney Howell and Special Assistant Attorney General Rush have prepared new evidence to be used in the trial of F. S. Baird, a Chicago attorney, who has appealed to the circuit court of appeals from the decision of Judge Munger, who, two years ago, sentenced him to sixty days in jail for an attempt to defraud the government of lands in Dawes county.

No Reduced Rates for the Holidays

People this year need not look for any reduced rates on the railroads for the holidays. Railroad officials have given out the information that there will not be any. As a result, people will pay the regular fare—2 cents per mile—or stay at home.

ORPHEUM THEATER BUILDING MAY SOON CHANGE HANDS

A representative of the Orpheum Theater company, with power of attorney to sell that part of the company's property lying between the Orpheum theater and Harney street, is in Omaha in conference with George Barker, who has made an offer for the property.

FIELD CLUB ELECTS OFFICERS

E. Buckingham is Chosen President by the Board of Directors. JACK HUGHES IS RE-ELECTED. C. A. Goss is Selected as Vice President—Philip Potter Treasurer.

Chief Donahue May Be Called to Help in Dynamiting Case

Chief of Police Donahue received a letter today from District Attorney John D. Fredricks of Los Angeles, saying that the Orin McManical confession would be forwarded later and that Chief Donahue probably will be called upon to assist in the further investigation of the dynamiting case.

Billy Has Appetite for Costly Apparel

Mrs. D. Daniels has a goal, and according to testimony introduced in Justice Leeder's court Billy is some epicure. He seems to contemplate a wholesome underkirt if he can find silk hose on the line.

Saloon Man Sued for Boy's Downfall

Mrs. Rose A. Hallahan of South Omaha has started suit for $5,000 damages against Cornelius O'Brien, a South Omaha saloon keeper, in district court, alleging he ruined her son, James, a minor, by selling him liquor.

Judges Are Chosen for Sheep Contests

The list of judges for the mid-winter sheep show next week has been completed by the selection of the judges for the Rambouillet class, as follows: J. E. Webb, Southport, Ind.; C. E. Lockwood, Washington, Mich.; P. R. Cook, Belle Fourche, S. D.

Berka Undecided on Barber Ordinance

Acting Mayor Louis Berka will reach a decision on the signing of the barber ordinance passed at the last meeting of the city council. This last ordinance repeals the others and leaves the situation here as it was before the beginning of the fight for Sunday closing.

GREAT WESTERN AGENTS ARE TO MEET MONTHLY

The Great Western has adopted a plan of monthly meetings for the officers and agents of the road. The first of these meetings of the western division will be held at Fort Dodge December 14, at which time and place the superintendents and agents west of Oleville will meet and talk over affairs that pertain to their various lines of work.

PAST RECORDS WORK AGAINST THESE TWO MEN

Harry Glover and Clarence Tyler, charged with highway robbery, made two of the biggest mistakes of their lives in criminal court when they took the witness stand in their own defense to stoutly declare they were not the men who held up John Stenowitsky in South Omaha and robbed him of $25. Deputy County Attorney Fitzgerald cross-examined them and they had to admit they had been in trouble before and had served terms in the penitentiary for highway robbery and breaking and entering.

SHOP EARLY CAMPAIGN IS NOW BEING FELT

The shop early campaign, inaugurated by the Commercial club and thoughtfully followed by thousands of Omahans, is having a better effect in more ways than the Commercial club expected when the "shop early" movement was started.

Chief Donahue May Be Called to Help in Dynamiting Case

Chief of Police Donahue received a letter today from District Attorney John D. Fredricks of Los Angeles, saying that the Orin McManical confession would be forwarded later and that Chief Donahue probably will be called upon to assist in the further investigation of the dynamiting case.

Billy Has Appetite for Costly Apparel

Mrs. D. Daniels has a goal, and according to testimony introduced in Justice Leeder's court Billy is some epicure. He seems to contemplate a wholesome underkirt if he can find silk hose on the line.

Saloon Man Sued for Boy's Downfall

Mrs. Rose A. Hallahan of South Omaha has started suit for $5,000 damages against Cornelius O'Brien, a South Omaha saloon keeper, in district court, alleging he ruined her son, James, a minor, by selling him liquor.

Judges Are Chosen for Sheep Contests

The list of judges for the mid-winter sheep show next week has been completed by the selection of the judges for the Rambouillet class, as follows: J. E. Webb, Southport, Ind.; C. E. Lockwood, Washington, Mich.; P. R. Cook, Belle Fourche, S. D.

Berka Undecided on Barber Ordinance

Acting Mayor Louis Berka will reach a decision on the signing of the barber ordinance passed at the last meeting of the city council. This last ordinance repeals the others and leaves the situation here as it was before the beginning of the fight for Sunday closing.

GREAT WESTERN AGENTS ARE TO MEET MONTHLY

The Great Western has adopted a plan of monthly meetings for the officers and agents of the road. The first of these meetings of the western division will be held at Fort Dodge December 14, at which time and place the superintendents and agents west of Oleville will meet and talk over affairs that pertain to their various lines of work.

PAST RECORDS WORK AGAINST THESE TWO MEN

Harry Glover and Clarence Tyler, charged with highway robbery, made two of the biggest mistakes of their lives in criminal court when they took the witness stand in their own defense to stoutly declare they were not the men who held up John Stenowitsky in South Omaha and robbed him of $25.

SHOP EARLY CAMPAIGN IS NOW BEING FELT

The shop early campaign, inaugurated by the Commercial club and thoughtfully followed by thousands of Omahans, is having a better effect in more ways than the Commercial club expected when the "shop early" movement was started.

FAMOUS PIANOS At Remarkable Terms and Prices No Money Down - 30 Days' Free Trial - Free Stool - Free Scarf. SCHMOLLER & MUELLER PIANO CO. Manufacturers, Wholesalers, Retailers 1311-1313 Farnam St. OMAHA, NEB. Established 1859

BRIEF CITY NEWS Have Root Print It. Omaha General Hospital, Dong $55. Egyptian Chocolate 30c. Mrs. Dillon Gas. Elec. Mixers, Burgess-Granden Silver Plating, Ong Plating Co. D. 2223. Keep Your Money and Valuables in the American Safe Deposit vaults in the Bee building. Boxes rent for $3 per year.

The Gift for Remembrance BECAUSE of its beauty and usefulness, an artistic Electric Lamp received as a gift becomes a treasured heirloom. Its enduring qualities withstand the ordinary usage of generations. Our stock of Christmas Lamps have been most carefully selected this year, and never before have we had such a beautiful display of useful Electric Lamps.

MILTON ROGERS & SONS COMPANY Offer Sensible Presents at Sensational Prices Many Surprisingly Low Priced Gifts—Useful and Attractive—Placed on Sale Monday at a Further 20 PER CENT DISCOUNT