

YEISER BREAKS FORTH AGAIN

Circulars Broadcast Boosting the Roosevelt Banquet. WILL WORK TELEPHONE SCHEME Urges All Roosevelt Boosters to Interest Their Neighbors in the Work of Arranging General Interest.

John O. Yeiser has issued another of his unique letters favoring the candidacy of Theodore Roosevelt for president. He urges his followers to keep at the good work of arranging the big feed when it is hoped Roosevelt may be induced to talk to all over the long distance telephone.

"As a committeeman of the republican party I feel that you would encourage interest in the party in every way possible regardless of whether it is for La Follette, Taft or Roosevelt. Whatever interest may be aroused for any good republican will not be labor lost. But if no contents are made, partisans lose their spirit and the opposition is the gainer. We have great respect for the following of La Follette and Taft but there are large numbers of people in Nebraska and elsewhere who favor Roosevelt regardless of expressions about his not wanting the position. In this country where all able bodied men are subject to draft for the rank and file of the army, why should we not favor drafting the commander-in-chief in the same way? That is exactly what we are going to do. And this is how 'tis done."

"Would like to have you suggest a good Roosevelt man at large and one from your locality who you think would consent, if selected, to fill his presidential electors for Roosevelt at the April primaries. We would also like to have you get a few friends together and plan to organize a club for Roosevelt to affiliate with in whooping it up for T. R. If you cannot do this yourself, you will do the party great service by having some Roosevelt supporter take hold of the matter and comply with this request, unless it is already being given proper attention. Taft is a man pre-eminently qualified for the supreme bench and should have that position where he would be a master of law. We feel that although he would recognize a principle of law wherever encountered, he cannot tell a political scheme or sealawag. On this account and because of trusting too much in his supposed friends he is not as well qualified for the office of president as he would be for the other position."

"La Follette, too, is a great man, who will do valiant service in the senate and who will succeed Roosevelt as president. Many people wish his success now as Taft's friends wish him success. However, the question of success we are interested in is that of the republican party, which has been progressive since the days of slavery. We have praise for all good men, whether standpatter or progressive. T. R. is the one man, however, with whom we can win, and we know he is the right stuff. If we talk other candidates we would create conventions and discussions and could never agree. There are to be no conventions, no 'ifs,' 'ands' or 'buts' about it. This movement is for Roosevelt or bust, and we don't live in a busted state."

"We desire to have all of the members possible join in a series of banquets connected by long distance phone."

"However, if any are so situated they cannot join in our little revelry at the banquet, include them as members just the same for a sort of Red Cross division to cheer on the discouraged."

"Go right on and arrange for the big feed in the usual way and just as you want it locally, with such speakers as you desire personally present. We will work on the telephone privilege and encourage."

SOCIALISTS SELECT SLATE

Seven Men for City Commission Named by Referendum.

ALL PLAN TO ENTER THE RACE

If Anyone Withdraws This Week, Place Will Be Filled—Plans to Be Announced Soon.

The socialists of the city have selected by referendum vote seven candidates for commissioners at the April primaries. The list includes a real estate man, a physician, a grocer, a cashier, a shipping clerk, a printer and a cook. It is said that the men will all enter the race. If any wish to withdraw they may do so any time during the week and others to take their places will be chosen. J. N. Carter has been slated to replace the first man to withdraw. The platform on which the candidates will run will be announced within the next seven days. Following are the candidates: C. C. Vaughan, printer, 306 South Twenty-fifth street; L. M. Morrison, physician, 519 South Nineteenth street; Thor Jorgensen, real estate, 217 Mason street; F. A. Barnett, shipping clerk, 114 North Fifteenth street; E. A. Morrow, grocer, 346 Decatur street; Eugene Steere, cashier, 1664 South Twenty-sixth street; Peter Mehrens, chef, 609 North Central boulevard.

Corriere D'Italia Comes from Press

Il Corriere D'Italia, the new Italian newspaper, edited in Omaha and published in South Omaha, made its initial appearance yesterday. The publication is managed by Bart Carmelino and is edited by Giuseppe Sesto, assisted by Antonio Bennatti and Michele Roxas. The first number has four six-column pages. Local firms were generous with their advertising.

FARMER SMITH CHARGES HANS WITH STEALING COW

J. J. Smith, a farmer living just north of Florence, caused the arrest yesterday afternoon of Fred Hanson, a Washington county farmer, accusing him of stealing a first-class cow more than six months ago. Hans formerly was a special officer for the Northwestern railroad. The charge against him is grand larceny. More than six months ago Smith missed his bovine one that he highly prized. He started an investigation and located her on Hans' farm. Not having sufficient evidence to charge Hans with stealing the cow, Smith simply started a replevin suit and took possession of the animal. When a sheriff's deputy appeared with a replevin writ Hans made no resistance, but promptly surrendered the cow. He said he had purchased her for $20 and hated to lose the money, but if she was Smith's he was welcome to her. Since then Smith has been trying to secure evidence of theft of the cow by Hans.

IOWA WOMAN PAYS INTO CONSCIENCE FUND

Local officials of the Illinois Central railroad have $2.45 and they don't know what to do with it. It's real money, too; three bright, new and crisp dollar bills, a silver quarter and two silver dimes. Saturday morning when the mail came, among other letters there was one with an Iowa City, Ia., post mark. In a feminine hand it bore the address: "The Illinois Central, ticket office, Omaha, Neb." Three 1-cent stamps had carried the letter through the mails. When this Iowa City letter was opened, the silver rolled out. Then a sheet of high grade paper, highly perfumed, was drawn from the envelope. On this paper, which was about the size of a postcard, were the two words, "Conscience Money" and that was all. Probably the $2.45 will go to the Chicago offices, but the local officers would like to spend it for Christmas presents.

DOUGLAS COUNTY FOR TAFT

Republicans Form Douglas County Taft Republican Club.

WEBSTER IS CHOSEN CHAIRMAN

Administration of the President Endorsed—Delegates Named for the Big State Mass Meeting at Lincoln.

Members of the Douglas County Taft Republican club, gathered at the Hotel Rome Saturday, unanimously endorsed President William Howard Taft for re-nomination and declared that the record of his administration was sufficient reason for loyal republicans supporting him in the next national campaign. A motion was passed to forward him greetings at Washington and apprise him of the action of the club, which is composed of 98 Douglas county, Omaha and South Omaha business and professional men. The permanent organization of the club was effected with the election of John L. Webster as chairman without a dissenting vote. Mr. Webster was empowered to attend the Lincoln, Neb. convention to handle the interests of the organization. Joseph Morrow was chosen secretary and a committee consisting of S. A. Searle, A. W. Jeffers, M. L. Learned, Charles L. Saunders and David Anderson was appointed by the chairman to arrange accommodations for 500 delegates to the republican mass meeting at Lincoln on December 13. Delegates to the number of 100 were selected at the meeting. Any member of the club may, upon application, be named a delegate. Preceding the organization of the club Mr. Webster was appointed chairman and called for speeches from A. W. Jeffers and Judge Ben Baker. Both responded with praise for the president and approval of his administration as thoroughly effective and businesslike. Denouncing the doings of such men as Lincoln Steffens, whose attempt to plant the belief that he had swayed the courts in the McNamara case, was expounded, an exciting discourse on the courts. Mr. Jeffers declared that "the courts were not designed to represent either a majority or minority opinion and judges should therefore not be subject to recall." President Taft's action in vetoing the measure was cited as another working of his numerous constructive and conservative policies.

Following Judge Baker's address Mr. Webster said that, not excepting minor differences of opinion on lesser issues, the republican national committee would assemble with no other aim than the re-nomination of President Taft. At least two-thirds of the republicans of the country would without hesitation endorse him as the most logical and the safest and the sanest candidate, he said.

WRESTLING COPPER Back in Mat Game

C. A. Jensen, the big heavyweight policeman wrestler is coming back into the mat game. He secretly has been getting himself into shape at his home, where he has fitted up a gymnasium. The fact that Jensen has been preparing to get back into the game came out at the wrestling match Friday night, when he let slip a little statement which caused a few of the knowing ones to wake up. Jensen until last summer was well known among the grapplers of this section. He was taken sick early last summer and had to retire from the game until he regained his strength and condition. That he is in good condition is certain from the fact that he weighs five pounds more than he ever weighed before and is as hard as nails. Prior to his sickness Jensen was reputed to be a comer among the heavyweights, having made a good showing against Westergaard after being in the game but a short while. He has taken on such men as Bill Huf, Paul Domko, Farmer Burns and several other ones and got the best of the argument in many instances. When asked whether he was going to come back into the game Jensen said he was preparing himself for that purpose and declared he never felt better in his life. After a few more weeks of hard training, he said, he will be prepared to take on any of the bunch. Jensen is well known in Omaha, having been in the police force for several years. He is a fearless and quiet man and that is testified to by several bad men who have been quited by him at police headquarters.

OMAHA REPUBLICANS FOR TAFT

Enthusiastic Resolutions for Him Adopted at Auburn. AUBURN, Neb., Dec. 8.—(Special Telegram.)—The republican committee of Nebraska county met this afternoon and adopted resolutions endorsing the administration of William Howard Taft as president of the United States and urging his re-nomination and re-election. The committee was called together by E. H. Hart, chairman, who presided at its deliberations. No opposition developed to the Taft resolutions. There was a large attendance of county committeemen and a large degree of enthusiasm throughout the meeting. The following resolution was offered by a member of the committee and was carried by a unanimous vote: The republican committee of Nebraska county, convened in convention at Auburn, Neb., hereby declare we heartily endorse the splendid administration of President Taft and his policies, and we urge our fellow citizens to support him as the most noble in the history of the country. We agree with him in his belief in a sensible revision of the tariff based upon a serious investigation of the various schedules. We see, justly proud of his firm opposition to the destruction of the Sherman law and his refusal to accept any partial enforcement of its provisions and we look upon his recent message to congress as being one of the wisest and the most forceful documents ever given to the American people. We commend him for his peace policy and peace utterances, which are recognized by all nations as emanating from one of the strongest and most powerful peace advocates in the world. We endorse his re-nomination and re-election. Various committeemen in speeches declared that the resolution expressed the sentiment of the republicans in their locality. T. J. Majors of Peru offered the following resolution, which was also unanimously adopted by the committee: I move we in committee assembled hereby endorse the economic and progressive administration of Hon. Chester A. Aldrich, governor of Nebraska.

JREEN SAYS NEW LAW INTENDED "VOTE FOR SEVEN"

John P. Jreen, who drafted the commission plan law, declared in the face of opposition, that his intention and the intention of those who assisted him, was to provide that seven men be voted for at the primary. Preparation is being made to let the courts settle the matter if necessary. City Attorney John A. Rine has ruled on the point of law involved, holding that it is clear but seven men can be voted for of the fourteen to be nominated. Dan B. Butler, city clerk, who will handle on the official ballots how many shall be balloted for, says that unless he has further proof he will make it fourteen. While the question of the number to be voted for at the primary is mooted the commission plan law in its other provisions is not invalidated nor even rendered obscure by the one clause. The question now disturbing the legal profession will, if the plan is adopted, be the law go not away, be settled in time to prevent it being made cause for disension at the primary.

PASTOR MATTHEWS RESIGNS

To Undergo Operation Which Will Keep Him from Work.

CHURCH BOARD MAY NOT ACCEPT

Some Think It Best to Leave Pastorate Vacant Until Dr. Matthews is Able to Return.

Rev. John Matthews, pastor of the First Baptist church, has tendered his resignation to the advisory board of the church. He is about to submit to an operation which will compel him to cease activity in church matters for at least three months. He deemed it advisable to resign that the board might be free to secure another pastor at once. The resignation came very unexpectedly to the members of the church and many express hope that the board will refuse to accept his resignation, saying they will make provisions for the carrying on of the church work during his absence. Dr. Matthews will occupy the pulpit as usual this morning and evening, then early in the week will enter a hospital in Kansas City, in the care of his family physician, for the operation. F. M. Parsons, one of the deacons of the church, said in regard to the resignation of Dr. Matthews: "Nothing has been done by the board as yet. It was rather unexpected. The general opinion now is for leaving the pastorate vacant for Dr. Matthews when he recovers from his operation."

Unlimited Credit Given by Railroad to Shipper Illegal

TOLEDO, O., Dec. 10.—That the granting of unlimited credit by the issuance of notes to guarantee freight charges constitutes a discrimination under the Elkins anti-rebate law is the decision of United States Judge John M. Killits in overruling demurrers to indictments returned against the Hocking Valley Railroad company, handed down yesterday. The Sunday Creek Coal company also is held liable, for its demurrers to indictments were similarly overruled. The cases, it is said, are to be carried to the supreme court of the United States for a decision. The plan was, it is alleged, that the Hocking Valley instead of collecting cash for compelling the Sunday Creek company to deposit bonds or security for payment of freight charges, permitted the coal concern to give its notes at the end of each month and that the railroad never made any attempt to collect on these, but did collect cash in certain instances. More than $2,485,000 worth of rebates, it was alleged by the government, were involved in the "unlimited" credit plan, and that the rival shippers of the Sunday Creek company had to pay cash or the bonds or securities to guarantee payment.

Omaha Lads win "R" at the Nebraska Uni

Russell Israel, son of Charles Israel, 523 Dewey avenue, was one of the lucky ones at the University of Nebraska to work on the Cornhusker foot ball squad this season. This "R" is a letter awarded to members of the squad who have worked hard and played all season. Israel played left end on the freshman eleven and although light and somewhat inexperienced made a good showing. He graduated from the Omaha High school last June, but while there did not take much part in the gridiron game. He is counted on now as a likely man to hold down a regular position on the varsity eleven next year. He is 18 years old and stands five feet nine inches. Although weighing but 145 pounds he was able to hold his own at all times. Other Omaha lads who were awarded "R" at the university this season were Warren Howard, who played a sensational game at quarter on the "scrub" and Harry De Lamatre, who held down a halfback position.

CONDITION OF SWANSON IS SOMEWHAT IMPROVED

Physicians attending Heliwig Swanson, manager of the women's suit department of the Nebraska Clothing company, whose skull was fractured late Friday afternoon in an automobile collision near Elkhorn, said last night their patient was somewhat improved. He is yet, however, in a dangerous condition. John A. Swanson, president of the King-Swanson Clothing company, who was also injured in the accident, is improving. He is at his home, 605 1/2 Ward street.

Schlitz Brown Bottle

Light starts decay even in pure beer. Dark glass gives protection against light. The brown bottle protects Schlitz purity from the brewery to your glass.

Don't say "Beer"! Say "Schlitz"

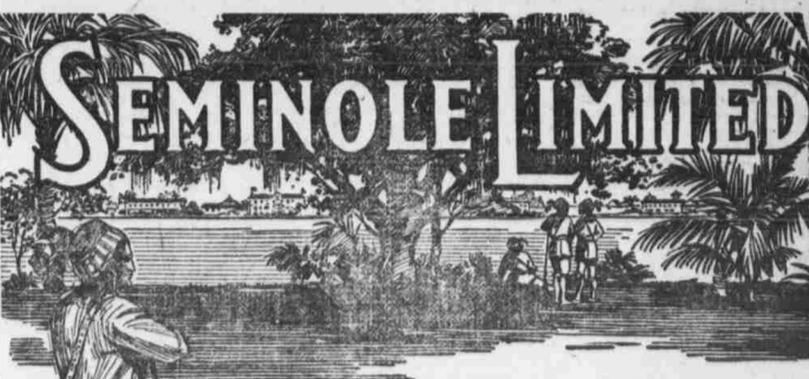

Our barley is selected by one of the partners in our business. We go to Bohemia for hops. The water is brought from rock 1,400 feet underground. Not only is Schlitz beer filtered through white wood pulp, but even the air in which it is cooled is filtered. It is aged for months in glass enameled tanks. It cannot cause biliousness. It will not ferment in your stomach. If you knew what we know about beer, you would say, "Schlitz—Schlitz in Brown Bottles."
