

USE AUDITORIUM FOR DEPOT

Believed Structure Will Be Taken for Interboro Station.

CITY NOT EXPECTED TO BUY

Member of Commercial Club Says Offer to Omaha is Made to Preclude Any Kicks Later On.

Much speculation as to who will be the purchaser of the Auditorium if the city does not decide to buy it is current among Omaha business men.

"It is my opinion that the Auditorium company already has a proposition to sell the building and does not expect the city to buy, but is merely offering it to the city to forestall complaints that score when it is sold to someone else," said a prominent member of the Commercial club.

Interboro Passenger Depot.

"I believe it is the idea to make the Auditorium a passenger station for two interurban electric lines and the Omaha Street Railway company. The interurbans are the ones now being built out of Council Bluffs and the Nebraska Traction and Power company, now operating between Omaha and Papillion, but which will be undoubtedly extended to Lincoln in due time.

Omaha Man Makes Rowboat Trip to the Gulf of Mexico

Joseph A. Davis, 333 William street, returned to Omaha Sunday after completing a trip down the Missouri and Mississippi rivers to New Orleans, a distance of about 2,000 miles, in an ordinary fourteen-foot runabout.

Mr. Davis left Omaha at noon July 24 and arrived at his destination on October 7. During his trip down the river Mr. Davis had several narrow escapes and after losing his way several times managed to get to New Orleans without capsizing once.

While on the Missouri river Mr. Davis averaged between forty and sixty miles a day and on the Mississippi river, where the current was not so strong, he made but twenty to thirty miles a day. His rowboat, which was covered with tin on the bottom, was in good condition when he arrived at New Orleans.

When near Bartlett, Ark., the adventurer became lost in the canyons and for three days paddled around in the woods not knowing where he was. After the first day his stock of canned goods gave out and he had to live on what he could catch a fish. For two days he went without food and on the last day managed to shoot a wild turkey. "I have eaten all kinds of fowl and game," said Mr. Davis, "but that turkey was the best thing I ever ate in my life."

During his trip Mr. Davis was not accompanied by any one and at times his strength was not enough to cope with the rough water and he would have to take in the oars and let the waves take him where they would.

Mother Tells Son to Keep His Socks

H. S. Grogan, superintendent of the city delivery department, is finding that the "mixes" department, which promised to be a nerve-racking one, will be tempered with a lot of humorous incidents.

Mr. Grogan came across a postal card upon which was a pathetic plea from "mother" for "Fred," in which "Fred" was asked not to throw away the woolen socks which she had knitted for him, as she had spent several months in making them. The letter was addressed to "Fred Kroppen, Nebraska," and therefore could not be delivered.

Ritchie Sues for Money Held by Police

A. R. Ritchie, the attorney employed by James Wilson and John Burns, the alleged Derby, Ia., bank robbers to secure their liberty on writs of habeas corpus, after they had been arrested by the Omaha police, started suit in county court to compel the police department to return the money which was taken from Burns and Wilson when they were arrested and is being held by the police department pending court orders.

CHIEF STOPS DISPLAY OF ITALIAN PICTURES

A delegation of fifteen men, representing the Italians of Omaha, called on Police Chief Donahue and asked that the moving pictures at the Elite theater, Fourteenth and Douglas streets, depicting scenes of the Italian-Turkish war be stopped.

MATTHEWS' RESIGNATION WILL NOT BE ACCEPTED

Instead of accepting Rev. John Matthews' resignation as pastor of the First Baptist church the officers of the church granted him a leave of absence until he fully recovers from an operation which he will undergo the latter part of this week at a hospital in Kansas City.

RETIRED OMAHA POLICE OFFICER DIES IN IRELAND.

MICHAEL WHALEN.

Mike Whalen Drops Dead from Heart Disease in Ireland

An Associated Press cablegram from Dublin last night brought to Omaha the news that Michael Whalen, for many years a member of the Omaha police force, had died suddenly on the street at Kingstown, a town not far from Dublin.

"Mike" Whalen left Omaha for Ireland in May of 1910, not very long after he had been put on the retired list and granted a pension for disability as well as for long service. He was connected with the Omaha police for more than a quarter of a century, and during that time distinguished himself on many occasions.

As a mark of respect the Omaha police department, represented by Chief Donahue, sent a cablegram to the chief constable at Dublin, this afternoon, directing that a floral wreath be prepared for the funeral.

Stanley First Man to Deliver Goods

The Burlington's new outbound freight house at 24th and Farnam streets, was opened to the public with the beginning of business yesterday. The working force is organized under Agent J. L. Hartington.

The first man to deliver goods at the new freight house was Mike Stanley, driver for the Lee-Glass-Anderson Hardware company. His team was backed up at the unloading platform at 5:30 o'clock.

Mike Stanley has the habit of being the first man on the job when new freight houses are opened. He was the first man to back a team up to the Northwestern's new freight house that was opened to the public a couple of years ago.

The second firm to deliver goods was the driver for the Paxton, Gallagher company, and the third a man from the Carpenter Paper company. They were on hand before daylight, but Stanley beat them by several minutes.

Owing to some of the Commercial club members being out of the city, the function proposed, at which it was intended to have speeches, lunch and cigars, was postponed until December 20.

High School Girls Are Making Candy

High school girls in the domestic science department are learning the art of candy making this week under the supervision of Miss Neva Turner and judging from the toothsome dainties, nutritive sugar values and practical knowledge that they are acquiring daily, the confectionery art is a good one.

Next week individual "dainty" packages will be put up by the girls as Christmas gifts for the little tots at the Creech mission. Each package will contain different samples of candy made by the girls.

DEFENDANT IS REALLY PLAINTIFF IN THIS CASE

Suit of the West Point Creamery company against the Jerpe Commission company for $500 on a butter account went to the jury in Judge Redick's court yesterday afternoon. Though the creamery company literally is the plaintiff and seeks to recover $500, the actual plaintiff is the Jerpe Commission company. It admits $500 of the debt, but wants $40 deducted on the ground that some of the butter was not up to the government standard and it had to pay fines and court costs to a total of $40 to protect its customers when federal food inspectors made trouble. Judge Redick overruled a motion to direct a verdict for the plaintiff, the West Point Creamery company.

EARLY SHOPPING MOVE WINS

Large Stores Put Aside Purchases for Christmas Delivery.

NEW BOOKS ARE BIG SELLERS

Omaha People Are Interested in Many Authors Well Known Here—Books of Fiction Are Big Sellers.

The early shopping move is having its effect and the big stores all report a rushing business. The especial feature which appeals to many is the arrangements which have been made by the department and other large stores whereby presents bought now will be kept by the stores and delivered just before Christmas.

"Books are selling fast," said Henry Kisser, manager of the book department of The Bennett company, "and I notice that the same persons return each year to get good books for gift giving purposes. Some prominent citizens may be depended upon to buy certain volumes as soon as the sale is announced. There are always a few volumes of local interest which go fast because the public knows or has a knowledge of the author."

"Last year the 'Victory of Allan Ruedge' by Alexander Corkey had an unprecedented sale in this city, also 'The Price of the Prairie,' of which book Dr. Davidson, former superintendent of schools, to my knowledge bought over fifty copies, so delighted was he with it. This year the 'Feeling Fire' by Mr. Corkey is enjoying a tremendous sale in the west. It is a strong piece of fiction and in my estimation excels his first book. 'The Foreman of the J. A. C.' by Mrs. Joy Johnson of Omaha is attracting wide attention as a product from a woman who is but in her literary infancy as a writer of western fiction once the world knows of her work."

"Keene Abbott's 'A Melody in Silver,' is another volume by an Omaha author who is enjoying a strong local patronage as well as a national one. 'Fiction, of course, takes the lead in number of volumes sold; however, the class of fiction bought today is of a strong character. For instance, we are selling stacks of Porter's 'The Harvester,' Duncan's 'The Measure of a Man,' Wright's 'The Winning of Barbara Worth,' Deland's 'The Iron Woman,' Mrs. Ward's 'The Case of Richard Meynell,' while in the little Christmas gift volumes Clara E. Laughlin's 'The Cleaners,' 'Pickett's The Fourth Physician,' McCarter, the author of the 'Price of the Prairie' and 'The Peace of the Solomon Valley,' Morgan's 'The Boy Who Brought Christmas,' Rutherford's 'Hush' and 'While Hugh Black's books, 'Comfort' and 'Happiness' are strong volumes."

The medicine we are introducing here to combat this condition we believe to be the best preparation ever before sold to the public, in that it is immediately effective in cases of debility and other troubles that go hand in hand with this disease. From 9 a. m. to 6 p. m. the specialists will continue to meet the public for a limited time at Brandeis Drug Dept., 16th and Douglas Sts., south side main floor.

CHICAGO LAND SHOW HAS ENORMOUS ATTENDANCE

Colonization Agent McDonough of the Union Pacific is back from Chicago, where he spent several days in attendance upon the land show that closed last Saturday night. Mr. McDonough says that, like the Omaha show, the Chicago affair was a great success.

In the Auditorium of the Chicago Land show the Union Pacific Railroad company caused to be erected two theaters, or lecture halls, each having a seating capacity of 400 persons. In these theaters there were continuous performances from 11:30 to 10:30 o'clock each afternoon and during the continuance of the show the attendance at the two places aggregated 10,000.

Cardinal Farley Takes Possession of Titular Church

ROME, Dec. 11.—Cardinal Farley, after attending a dinner given in the Irish college today in honor of Cardinal Bileletti, took possession of his titular church, Sancti Mariae Zophrara Minerva. The ceremony was imposing. The church was crowded with 10,000 persons of all nationalities.

Cardinal Farley sat on the throne, surrounded by clergy and received the homage of dignitaries of the church. Building Permits. Ben Wolf, 222-24 North Nineteenth street, permits to dwelling, 800; J. O. Sterner, 2307 Evans street, frame dwelling, $2,500; Omaha Wet Wash laundry, 2807 Farnam street, brick store building, $2,500; Armstrong-Walsh company, 1122 Fage street, frame dwelling, $2,500.

STATEMENT OF TROUBLE BY MRS. BETSY BORGESON

Did Not Believe Anything Could Bring Relief So Quickly.

NEW REMEDY CAUSED SURPRISE

Expert Says Manner of Living in the Thickly Populated Parts of This Country Makes Good Health Impossible.

One of the most interesting statements yet made in connection with the introduction of the remarkable new tonic 'Tona Vita' is that which was given recently by Mrs. Betsy Borgeson of No. 3230 Franklin street, this city.

"I didn't believe any medicine could help me so quickly. I suffered with extreme nervousness and many other complaints. I lost my appetite and couldn't sleep soundly—in fact, I have been generally debilitated for a long time. My condition grew constantly worse. I tried various kinds of remedies without any results. I finally lost all energy and felt completely worn out and depressed."

"I heard about the good 'Tona Vita' was doing in Omaha and decided to give it a trial. I began the treatment and felt immediate results. I have now taken the medicine for one week and am gaining in health daily, and the change really surprises me. My nervousness has about all gone and I feel thoroughly benefited. I don't believe I could praise 'Tona Vita' too much."

"The manner of living in the more thickly populated sections of the United States is such that nature finds it impossible to keep the human machine running true and strong day after day with its vitality being sapped by the constant nervous strain," said one of the specialists who are here introducing 'Tona Vita.' "Irregular hours," continued this specialist, "hastily eaten food, the wear and tear and rush of the modern life, all are partially responsible for the immense amount of dull, listless, half sick people of the present generation. Debility, or a 'run down' condition, as it is called, is everywhere. Half of the people I see in restaurants, street cars, theaters or on the street are unmistakably in a debilitated condition, and their nervous system drives them either to lie down and rest or to rush madly after more excitement."

Hospitals do not accept incurables, therefore, having but a short time to live, as an only hope of provision for my decline. For 4,163 more subscriptions to the above magazines the publishers will deposit $5,000 with the Conservative Savings & Loan Association for my benefit, the principal to revert to some CHARITY to be chosen by the VOTE of my subscribers—$2,750 of which is earned, also any publisher below will add $250 for 500 subscriptions in December.

Remember, whereas the thief receives a fair trial, it is yet necessary to look up the jury to enforce deliberation. I would not even receive a hearing. No man can judge results, but this is certain, 50,000 people subscribe for the Post and Journal in Iowa and Nebraska alone. I wrote 4,000 subscriptions last year myself. The next year to establish a business I offered the Curtis prize to the Child Saving Institute, thereby earning $1,000 for them.

Had any one of half a dozen Charities permitted me to have repeated this offer, provision for my decline could have been nicely arranged. But I could not get a hearing. A paralytic could not live alone, however.

Therefore, a year ago, to insure sufficient business to pay a woman for my care, I arranged with different publishers whereby for 500 subscriptions any month, $5,000 would deposit $250 towards a fund of $5,000 for my benefit, the principal to revert to some CHARITY to be selected by the VOTE of my subscribers. $2,500 was earned but I lost half my working capital.

Thus, the publishers provide fuel and light and pay $25 a month for clerk and $20 for nurse—which is business expense so long as I get the business. As I live and sleep in my office, my maintenance costs less than it would in an almshouse, else I could not live at all.

Friend, this is a matter of life or death with me. Isolated as I am I could not possibly earn $300 a year. But if the public will give its support to earn this $5,000 for CHARITY I will have earned a LIFE'S INCOME of $300 a year for three years' work besides TREATMENT and LIVING EXPENSES which would have been UTTERLY IMPOSSIBLE by any other plan.

As it will be impossible to write 500 subscriptions each month during the summer, I must therefore have 1,663 subscriptions in DECEMBER. I cannot get them myself, but 1,000 Farmers would find THE COUNTRY GENTLEMAN, the best investment they ever made.

I could save 1,000 people $1.10 a year on the SATURDAY EVENING POST and LADIES' HOME JOURNAL, being the difference between the single copy and the yearly subscription price. 1,000 people of these magazines advantageously for gift purposes. Gift cards sent on request.

If 1,000 people will place their order in DECEMBER the full $5,000 will follow as it did last year, to contribute 50c. DON'T WITHHOLD IT. Write for catalogue and story. Dignity is a barrier, but I believe you will. God bless you.
