

A Fancy Shirt Waist Will Best

Express Your Christmas Sentiments

There's not a Woman or Miss who feels that she ever had as many shirtwaists as she really needed—what a splendid opportunity then, to give her something which she most wants, and after all, that is the gift most appreciated.

You'll find here a surprisingly complete assortment—you may select a pretty variety of plain linen or madras, made with pleats or without, and priced very modestly at,

$2.95 and $3.50.
Or, there are exquisite creations of fancy chiffons, crepe de chine, soft tulle, fancy voiles, and marquisettes.

The prices range, $6.50 — $7.50 — $8.75 — $9.00 — $10.75 — $12.50 — $15 and $18.

Each waist is so cleverly fashioned that only a separate description would fully convey its beauty—as an example of the completeness of the showing we mention a strikingly beautiful waist of gray chiffon over white chiffon, made with wide lapel and deep yoke of white chiffon over the daintiest of imported silk lace, which also finishes the cuff—the price is $21.00.

Bring your Christmas list to this store—whether for man, woman or child, you'll find here the most pleasing and appropriate of gifts.

KELLY CASE BEFORE COURT

Lawyer for Defense Asks Judgment in Accord with Verdict.

MORE ARGUMENTS TO COME

Jury Called Man Guilty and Inmate at Same Time and Attorneys Must Now Bring About Some Solution.

DES MOINES, Ia., Dec. 12.—Motion for judgment pursuant to the special finding of the jury in the Dr. Harry D. Kelly murder case was filed today by Attorney John T. Mulvaney, representing the young Council Bluffs physician, who was convicted of manslaughter for the killing of Deputy Sheriff Clarence Woodman and Edmund Stenzel, and at the same time pronounced insane by the jury.

Arguments on the motion will be continued until Senator C. G. Saunders, counsel with Mr. Mulvaney, returns from Washington. Kelly's sentence, which was set for tomorrow, will be continued until arguments have been heard on the motion.

Mr. Mulvaney points out that the verdict of the jury is in conflict with the finding of the jury in the special interrogatory and that they are at variance.

Des Moines Grocers' Association Indicted on Gambling Charge

DES MOINES, Ia., Dec. 12.—The Des Moines Retail Grocers' association, was today indicted on the charge of conducting a gambling house. The Polk county grand jury based its complaint on the alleged operation of "wheel of fortune" during the recent poor food show here. The officers of the association will be served with papers during the afternoon.

The county prosecutor announces that he will make an attempt to have the organization dissolved at the conclusion of the forthcoming trial. It had been charged that the retail grocers were responsible for the high cost of living in Des Moines, but the grand jury ignored that feature, and preferred the indictment for alleged gambling.

Conductor Falls Under Train.
IOWA CITY, Ia., Dec. 12.—(Special.)—Matthew Archer of Rock Island, conductor on a Rock Island passenger train, fell beneath the wheels of a switch engine just west of West Liberty, near here, this morning and was horribly mangled about the left shoulder. He will lose an arm, but will live.

Charged with Theft of Grip.
LOOAN, Ia., Dec. 12.—(Special.)—George Bales was brought to Logan today by Officer Myers of Missouri Valley to await the action of the grand jury in the January term of court. Mr. Bales was arrested at Dunlap Sunday evening on charge of taking a grip at Missouri Valley belonging to another party. Mr. Bales says that he is 17 years of age and a resident of Newark, N. J. His preliminary trial took place at Missouri Valley today before C. Alexander.

A Particularly Timely Sale

We have recently purchased the entire "TELFYAN COLLECTION," $40,000 worth of rare and beautiful ORIENTAL RUGS, personally selected in the Orient by Mr. S. Telfyan, a connoisseur of international repute. By taking the entire collection we secured an exceptionally low price, and during the month of December we offer every specimen in this great collection at a price that will be as interesting as it is unusual. The collection comprises many most beautiful small pieces, which range in price from $15 to $25. They are especially adapted for Christmas presentation purposes. We give every patron our personal assurance that these rugs are entirely worthy, and, at the prices at which they are now offered, they constitute a most unusually good value.
