Pleasures Past

Mrs. George Laler entertained informally at bridge Saturday afternoon at her home.
Mrs. Charles Whiting entertained at a matinee party Saturday afternoon at the Brandeis theater to see "The Newly Weds." Miss Bernice Edwards was the guest of honor. Those present were Misses Bernice Edwards, Katherine Powell, Katherine Milroy, Eloise Jenks, Mesdames Harold Miles of Des Moines, Charles Whiting.
The members of the Pi Sigma club entertained at a whist party at the home of Arthur Robinson Thursday evening, the occasion being his eighteenth birthday. An enjoyable evening was spent by those present:
Misses—Irene Harris, Marion Marowitz, Lillian Rubin, Madeline Alpersen, Sophia Alpersen, Messrs.—Arthur Robinson, Morris Robinson, Sam Olinde, Sam Rosenbloom, Max Rosenbloom, Julius Abrahamson, Mr. and Mrs. B. Robinson, Miss Rosina Mandelberg, who will be a December bride, was the guest of honor at an interesting and novel entertainment given by Miss Sadie Kirschbraun at her home on South Twenty-eighth avenue Saturday afternoon. Each guest wrote an

apt comment on the bride to be and appropriate illustrations were cut from magazines. The little stories or items and illustrations were then pasted in a book called "Interesting Chapters in the Life of Rosina Mandelberg." The table decorations for the luncheon which followed were elaborate and unusual. The table was decorated like a landscape, with a miniature lake, on which were ships and a train. The railway station was at the place of Miss Mandelberg, and here was a small trunk filled with dainty handkerchiefs for the bride's trousseau. Those present were:
Misses—Rosina Mandelberg, Gertrude Kopold, Florence Hiller, Evelyn Hergman, Mesdames—Katherine Powell, Joseph Rosenfeld, Julius Dreyfus, Milton Newman, Lester Kirschbraun, Louis Hiller, Chicago.
Mrs. Charles Ederer, 3904 Bristol street, entertained the Swiss Kaffee-Krauzchen in celebration of her birthday. A delightful luncheon was served. Those present were:
Mesdames—J. Schelberger, G. Laitenberger, M. Kuchsekwert, E. Gehrig, F. Zweifel, Charles Ederer.

Miss Katherine Milroy entertained at a beautifully appointed dinner last evening at her home in honor of Miss Bernice Edwards and Mr. Turner MacAllister. Covers were placed for:
Misses—Bernice Edwards, Katherine Powell, Mesdames—Harold Miles of Des Moines, Messrs.—Turner MacAllister, Nye Morhouse, Jack Webster, E. Fremont, Yale Holland, Dr. Waldo Scott, Earl Burkett.

Mr. and Mrs. John J. McMahon gave a house warming at their new home, 415 Florence boulevard, Saturday evening. Games were played during the evening, and prizes were won by Bert Lynn, Mr. P. Spellman, Miss Ethyl Lynn and Mrs. Myers. Those present were:
Mr. and Mrs. Charles O'Neill, Mr. and Mrs. Allen Jones, Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Piatner, Mr. and Mrs. C. Cox, Mr. and Mrs. H. P. Myers, Mr. and Mrs. A. V. Harrington, Mr. and Mrs. John J. McMahon, Mrs. M. Hall Davis, Ann Beck, Mrs. Ada Archer, Master Vern Harmon.

Wedding Bells

Mr. and Mrs. Gustav Fries announce the engagement of their daughter, Henrietta, to Mr. Albert Johnson of Los Angeles, Cal. The wedding will take place at Long Beach, Cal., the early part of January.
Invitations have been issued for the wedding of Miss Mable Hettshausen, daughter of Mrs. H. C. Hettshausen, to Mr. Alfred Westergard, which will take place Monday, December 25, at high noon at the home of the bride's mother, Mr. and Mrs. Westergard will be at home after January 15 at 1009 Dorcas street.

A large December wedding will be that of Miss Bernice Marie Edwards, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. G. Edwards, to Mr. Turner MacAllister of Oakland, Cal., formerly of Omaha. The wedding will be at the First Congregational church, followed by a reception at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Edwards on West Harney street. Mrs. Harold Miles of Des Moines and Mrs. Marion Fore Russell of Lincoln will be the matrons of honor and the bridesmaids will be Miss Katherine Powell, Miss Katherine Milroy and Miss Eloise Jenks. Mr. MacAllister arrived Monday from California, accompanied by his grandfather, Mr. Turner, and today his parents, Mr. and Mrs. B. A. MacAllister, and Mrs. Benjamin MacAllister, arrive and will be guests of Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Ross. The men of the wedding party will be Mr. Yale Holland, best man; Mr. Earl Burkett, Mr. Jack Webster, Dr. Waldo Scott and Mr. Nye Morehouse of Fremont, ushers.

For the Future

Rev. J. A. Jenkins, an Oberlin college alumnus, will give a stereopticon lecture at the Omaha High school Wednesday morning.
At the Omaha High school senior prom, the most important social event of the 1912 class, which will be given at Chambers' Friday evening, the hall will be attractively decorated in red and gray, the class colors, and in different school pennants. The Les Hiboux and the Grand Soucier's clubs of the school will have corners and a special section of the balcony will be reserved for spectators. As the prom comes on the even of the holidays many alumni, are planning to attend. The grand march will probably be led by Miss Laura Zimmerman and Edwin Landale, the class president. Harold Thomas and Roy Gould, committee in charge.

There is to be a subscription dance given at the University club by the younger members of the evening of Friday, December 22.
Miss Watts and Miss Redfield will entertain at supper Sunday evening at the Hamilton cafe for Miss Blanche Moore, who will be a December bride.
The active members of the Phi Kappa Psi will give a "rush" dinner at the Omaha club, followed by a theater party Wednesday evening, December 27.
Mrs. M. C. Peters will give an afternoon bridge party Wednesday, December 27, for Miss Daphne Peters, Miss Bertha Dickey and Miss Katherine Thummler.
