

An economy guide to fine gift furniture

Every piece a gift for the years

BELATED Christmas shoppers seeking the true gift will find at this store a wealth of suggestions, all forming the most appropriate as well as the most economical gifts. Pieces of furniture no longer are regarded as luxuries; they are necessities to comfortable and happy existence. For this reason furniture articles make the best gifts for Christmas. There are few families in Omaha whose lives would not be more exquisitely and delicately lived after the acquisition of one or more of the articles illustrated on this page.

That ladies' writing desk is a beautiful bit of furniture for the woman's boudoir. How many happy hours would some fair recipient spend at such an exquisite creation, penning letters to her dear friends! Indeed, all these articles would serve to enhance the comforts, beauty and happiness of any home.

The pieces shown here are only a hint as to the wealth of Christmas suggestions at this store. We have an immense choice group from which to select. The assemblage of small odd-bit furniture is particularly fine, with work tables, tilting top tables, tea trays, tea wagons, muffin stands, book stands, book blocks, foot rests, pedestals, costumers and occasional tables. Prices begin as low as $1.00. A greater part of this gift furniture has been assembled so one may make a quick choice. This is the kind of furniture that never goes out of fashion nor becomes rickety a few days after Christmas. It is furniture which grows old gracefully and becomes an honored member of the family.
