Prices on Christmas Goods Are Lower: You Will Be Served Quickly Here

Many stocks are too large—we must force the selling. It is simply due to the late hour at which many shipments of goods joined our Holiday displays. Many of the biggest orders for some unexplainable reason were delayed several weeks in the delivery.

So a visit to Bennett's Saturday will reveal many a pleasant surprise for we have gone through all of the stocks and thrown out on tables and counters odds and ends and surpluses at prices which will surely move them this last day before Christmas. Begin in the basement and go through the entire store—there are bargains you will want in every department.

Articles you considered just beyond your purse are now within easy reach. The friend you wanted to give a good present or none at all, and finally decided to neglect, can now be considered again. Admirable gifts can be secured at a small expenditure—if you come to Bennett's Saturday.

And don't forget that the store will be closed all day Monday—Christmas. Two days' shopping must be done in one.
