

Home grown Daffydil Contest

Rules of Daffydil Contest

1. Answers must be addressed to "Daffydil Editor" of The Bee, and reach the office not later than 6 P. M. Thursday to be considered for prize award of last week.

2. Contestants may submit one or more Daffydils for any or all of the prizes.

3. Winners to be selected one by each advertiser on Daffydil Contest Page and printed in his advertisement, which will also announce prize for next contest.

Rules of Daffydil Contest (Cont'd.)

4. Each Daffydil must be written on a separate sheet of paper and must designate the advertiser for whom it is intended.

5. Winning Daffydils will be judged for their originality, wit and humor and preference will be shown those pertaining to the name of business of the advertiser.

6. Winners must call in person for prize at advertiser's place of business.

7. In addition to advertiser's prize The Bee will award five special prizes of $1.00 each to the five best Daffydil writers.

COME ON WITH YOUR SUNDERLAND DAFFYDILS!

Prize $2 To the one who writes the cleverest and best daffydil this week we will award a $2.00 due bill for credit on purchase of one or more tons of Sunderland Certified Coal.—S. B. Co.

CONGRATULATIONS TO OMAHA DAFFYDILSTERS!

Here are some of the best ones we have received:

"If the Conservative Building (14th and Harney Sts.) should blow up, where would Sunderland?"
(Ans.: In Omaha, the best city in the world.—S. B. Co.)

"When Escal landed his ark did Sunderland Certified Coal?"
(Ans.: About that time—and he has been landing it ever since.—S. B. Co.)

"If a man should make a contract for Certified Coal, would Sunderland be it?"
(Ans.: Certainly, for no one else sells Certified Coal.—S. B. Co.)

"If Columbus discovered America in 1492 when did Sunderland land in Omaha?"
(Ans.: If the Pilgrims landed in 1620, when did Sunderland land?"
(Ans.: Here since 1858. How many years?—S. B. Co.)

"Since a ton of Economy Certified Coal weighs 2,000 pounds, what does Iowa?"
(Ans.: You are absolutely right about the weight of Sunderland Certified Coal.)

"If your coal bill is too big, why not use ECONOMY?"
(Ans.: Splendid idea. And thousands ARE using Economy Coal.—S. B. Co.)

"Go to a foreign land, if you must, for health, but for coal go to Sunderland."
(Ans.: Plenty of health in our own land, but best coal comes only from Sunderland.—S. B. Co.)

"If the price of coal should fall, where would Sunderland?"
(Twenty "Daffyls" asked this question. Ans.: The lowest price for the best coal, always.—S. B. Co.)

SUNDERLAND BROTHERS COMPANY, 1614 Harney Street.

Thousands of splendid Daffydils were received for last week and we regret there were no more prizes to distribute.

However, try again this week and you may be one of the winners. There will be eighteen valuable prizes awarded next Sunday, so send in your daffydils before 6 P. M. Thursday.

Following are some very clever answers. The first five are the winners of the five $1.00 prizes offered by The Bee. Winners must call in person for their prizes.

Senator Sorenson:—If you use Sunderland certified coal will you not be reminded of three famous authors—Dickens' Howitt, Burns?

F. E. Walton, 1333 Monroe St., Omaha:—If Hayden Bros. went to Europe, would their piano sale?

M. A. Pillsbury, 4172 Chicago St.:—If beer went up, would Luxus still go down?

Reddy, 5115 Capitol Ave.:—If Bob would Cuff Buttons, would it make his Bear Ring? No but in the future he'd Watch Bob like a Wolf.

Opal Ring gave Ruby Brooch 15 carrots, would it make Jewel Case green with envy?

Pitch E. Vesey:—If it takes 5,000 volts to kill a man, how many would it take to kill-owat?

Mrs. Anna De Vol, 2308 Cuming St.:—If the Dog goes mad will Luxus foam?

M. W. Yeager, Benson:—If Daniel played in the lion's den, could you play a piano from Hay-den's?

F. J. Alberts, 561 1st Nat'l Bank:—If the Jack Clubs, the King Spades and the Queen Clubs, what in the duce would the Tracy?

Phil C. Scholz, 3516 Poppleton Ave.:—If W. J. Bryan is a magnetic speaker, is Chauncey Depeu an electric toaster?

Dell Allen, 109 S. 17th St.:—Could you eat more of Daffyl's candy than Anna Held?

Mildred Howard, 4807 No. 25th St.:—If Daffyl's Chocolates, have the Creams whipped, will that make the Bon-Bons box?

Marshall Penn, 542 So. 24th St.:—If she drank a quart of Port wine, would Mrs. Hiller Liquor Company?

J. M. Hyland, 5521 No. 24th St.:—If Farrell got mad, would he can the asymp?

Leah Gilson, 3517 Franklin St.:—If a diver fell in love with a lady, would she be a Waterman's Ideal?

O. K. Walton, 1284 Jackson St., Omaha:—If Hiller's liquor was the motive power, what would alcohol?

Another Prize Winner

FIRST PRIZE WINNER: "If the Alamito lacks nothing to be the best what does Fer-mil-lact?"

I. Dudley, Roland Apt.

TAFT'S PHILADELPHIA DENTAL ROOMS 1517 Douglas St. Omaha, Neb. Dec. 2, 1911.

We believe we can truthfully say our baby's fine health and robust growth which enabled him to win first prize, is due to the fact that he consumes at least a quart of ALAMITO Perfect-Pasteurized milk daily. That we have used the milk for years and would not take any other is ample evidence of what we think of this brand of milk.

DR. H. A. WAHL.

At the Baby Shows held in Omaha during recent years, ALAMITO milk babies have always taken leading prizes.

THE REASON:—Pure, clean milk, pasteurized, sealed in sterilized bottles, delivered early to your home, costing no more than the ordinary kind.

FOLLOWING ARE THE OTHER PRIZE WINNERS:

2d Prize—The Alamito Creamery Co. sell everything that a cow can give. Now what can a cow give buttermilk? (But her milk.) Frank Quisley, 309 Barker Block.

3d Prize—If a man is out of sight is he pasteurize. Geo. B. Dyball, 2914 Poppleton Ave.

ALAMITO Douglas 411; Ind. A-4411.

1st prize, $3 milk ticket.
2d prize, $2 milk ticket.
3d prize, $1 milk ticket.

We wish to thank all contestants for their efforts in our behalf.
