

THE OMAHA DAILY BEE
FOUNDED BY EDWARD ROSEWATER
VICTOR ROSEWATER, EDITOR
BEE BUILDING, FARNAM AND 17TH
Entered at Omaha postoffice as second class matter.

Now for Parcels Post.
Many subjects will demand the attention of congress when it reconvenes after the holidays and not the least of these is the president's recommendation for an experimental rural parcels post.

both by parents and city authorities.
The mayor has already designated one hilly street for coasting, where he offers a degree of protection to the young folks.

Looking Backward
This Day in Omaha
COMPILED FROM BEE FILES
DEC. 27.
Thirty Years Ago—
Superintendent Doran, in charge of construction for the Western Union, is in Omaha consulting with Superintendent of Telegraph Dickey on his way to St. Louis.

Politics in Nebraska
Hastings Tribune: Hastings will soon be well prepared for the political campaign. With a Taft club organized, a La Follette club to be organized tonight, and the democrats up a tree, things are shaping up nicely in this vicinity.

POLITICAL SNAPSHOTS.
St. Louis Republic: About how long can the Champ Clark boom survive the deadly fever of Willie Hearst?
Cleveland Plain Dealer: A western judge named Hook seems likely to go to the supreme court to fill the Harlan vacancy.

LAUGHING GAS.
There was a time long ago when the first "Person One Would Wish to Have Seen" was Santa Claus.
That's right, isn't it, old gray top?—Cleveland Plain Dealer.

Well, how do the "leavin's" taste?
No nature faking about this year's white Christmas.
At any rate, there is no shrinkage in that wool message.

Conditions in Porto Rico.
The secretary of war's report to congress on Porto Rico is most interesting as showing the remarkable material progress made on that island in the thirteen years of American occupation.

"The One Wise Colonel."
Believing that every man is entitled to the fruits of his own industry and wishing to see that our esteemed fellow townsman gets all the fruits thus coming to him; is also to show that for once it is not true that "a prophet is not without honor save in his own country," we reprint this editorial from the Chicago Tribune, under the caption as used above.

The newspaper discovery that most of the swords decorating the officers of the British army were "made in Germany," gave John Bull a thrill that almost upset his appetite for plum pudding.

Caution in Coasting.
Now is a good time for young folks, who indulge in the exhilarating sport of coasting, to remember that street cars, automobiles and other vehicles are still obliged to use the streets and that precaution is necessary on their part to avoid accidents.

Dr. Spillet and I were out together today and he asked me to have a drink on him.
"Never accept that from a doctor, man?"
"Why not?"
"Because don't you know that when a doctor treats you, he always sends you the bill?"—Baltimore American.

Supervision of Dynamite.
Pittsburgh Dispatch,
Possibly it may come to this, that the government shall take over the manufacture of dynamite as a national monopoly and take account into whose keeping it shall come, even to the supervision of its own military explosives.
