Ownership Plan Is Dormant Now

George W. Shields, who brought action in the equity division of district court to enjoin the issue of waterworks bonds on the ground that all proceedings leading up to the voting of bonds were illegal, has succeeded in effectually stopping the city's move to assume ownership at an early date. The water board will wait until the suit is decided before attempting to take over the plant.

Bonds will be placed on the market as soon as the court's decision is announced.

At a meeting of the water board yesterday afternoon the situation was discussed and a definite move toward the assumption of ownership postponed. In addition to allowing a few bills, the Katz Construction company was given an extension of time of ten days in the construction of a main on California street.

CHAFFEE WATCHES COAT TILL HE REALIZES SWINDLE

G. M. Chaffee of Franklin met a nice looking gentleman while en route from Lincoln to St. Paul, Minn., yesterday afternoon. Both were going to the same place and both stopped off at Omaha. At the Union station the nice looking gentleman left his overcoat for Chaffee to guard while he took $35 of Chaffee's money to buy their tickets from Omaha to St. Paul. Chaffee guarded the stranger's coat until he realized his foolishness and then gave the police a description of the nice looking man.

HIGH SCHOOL GLEE CONCERT

Musical Club Successfully Gives Entertainment at First Christian Church.

The Omaha High School Glee club gave its first concert under the direction of Walter B. Graham, local vocal instructor, at the First Christian church last evening and held the undivided attention of a fair-sized and appreciative audience of students, faculty and general public for some two hours. Time and again the youthful songsters had to respond to encores until their repertoire was nearly exhausted.

As the concert was entirely the work of local talent it is all the more noteworthy because of its success. The feature of the assisting talent was the banjo quartet, consisting of Francis Potter and three of his pupils. The selections rendered by this four proved beyond a doubt that there are some in Omaha who still appreciate stringed instrument music. Others who assisted in the program were: Grace Blabaugh, piano; Walter B. Graham, baritone, and S. Arthur Lynn, basso. Willard Blabaugh, baritone, and Lynn Sackett, tenor, both members of the club, gave several individual selections of exceedingly high merit.

The concert was given under the auspices of the senior class of 1911-1912, which graduates from the school next month.

AFFAIRS AT SOUTH OMAHA

Magic City Banks Agree to Furnish Money to Meet City Bonds.

BOND SALE LIKELY TO BE GO

Speer & Co. Writes Investigation of Paper is Progressing Satisfactorily—Revenue Officer Looks Into Bootlegging Charges.

South Omaha's three national banks, the Packers, the Live Stock and the Stock Yards, have made good their promise to save the credit of the city at all events in case of the rejection of the contract for $110,880 renewal bonds issued by the city.

The money equally divided among the banks will be in New York City Tuesday morning and the fiscal agents there will be able to meet the obligations coming due.

The bonds when issued will be divided equally among the three banks of the city and held until Speer & Co. of Chicago accept the same.

The Chicago firm yesterday indicated in a letter to the mayor that the examination of the transcript of the bond history was progressing favorably and further data was requested. This clears away the doubt that has been cast upon the bids of the Speer house. In any case it would seem that the other bond buyers will not be called upon to assist the city in preserving its credit.

Prominent capitalists of Omaha yesterday paid visits to certain of the local officials and discussed the bond issue very carefully. Following their visit it was admitted that Omaha financiers would take up the issue in case the Chicago house failed to consummate the deal. The visitors would not state whether the issue would be taken by private individuals or by a company. The name of a prominent fraternal organization was mentioned in connection with the issue.

Mayor P. J. Trainor and City Treasurer Gillin were very cheerful over the outlook yesterday. The credit of the city is no longer in danger and there seems every probability that the Chicago bidders will take up the issue at the figure named in the bid.

Revenue Officer Investigates.

Following a visit paid to diverse saloons and gambling joints by an internal revenue officer Tuesday afternoon there was consternation among the free and easy brotherhood of South Omaha, who in an unassuming way have been keeping more or less wide open house.

Immediately following the visit of the government officer the local police were instructed by Chief of Police John Briggs to investigate any suspicious places and make arrests where the circumstances warranted.

According to the story of those who claim to know, the government officers found violations of the liquor laws in saloons and gambling houses. In one case it is said a saloonist was found to be selling rye whiskey for bourbon, an action which besides being heinous to the mind of the bibulous, is also against the laws of the United States. In another place evidence of bootlegging and retailing on the part of gamblers, and wholesaling on
